Cairn - A pyramid of stones used as a landmark or trailmarker by explorers or trailblazers. It is the hope of the staff that this yearbook will act as a marker, not as the end of our high school days, but as the beginning of our journeys through life.

Reviving the Spirit

School Spirit

Danny Devine shows his school spirit by donning a stylish retro outfit for Spirit Week.

Blazer Spirit

Mr. Malkmus is a good sport in his frog hat as he prepares for a dip in the dunk tank.

In the Spirit

Wally Cuddeford shows his Blazer Pride by sporting a green and gold face with matching hair.

Community Spirit

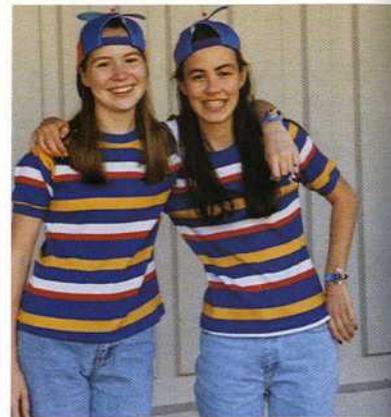

Amber Beers and Bryann Lee are laboring as part of Interact's "Making a Difference Day", a community service project for a local park.

There was a new feeling on the campus of Timberline High School this year. Through community, unity and pride, Blazers got involved and made THS a place where positive things happened. The ASB officers chose "United as One, We're Second to None" as the year's motto. Blazers proved this throughout the year by being involved in the community, embracing our cultural diversity and maintaining the tradition of academic achievement.

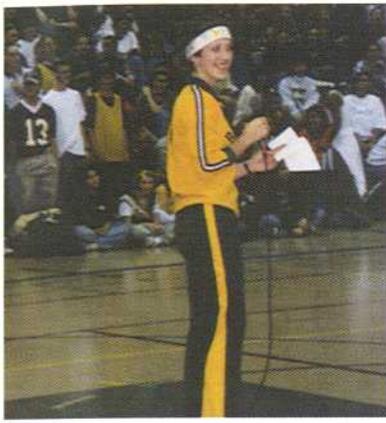

Reviving the Spirit is dedicated to all of the Blazers who helped make the 1996 - 1997 school year a time to remember.

RENAISSANCE

Blazer Spirit Showing Through

Danny Devine takes a shot at the dunk tank at lunchtime. Kevin Gubbe and John Frost show their Nisqually Totem pride at the assembly. Miss Woodsum catches disco fever, while Ms. Parker and Mr. Peltier are staying alive on Retro Day. Freshman, Cynthia Coulson and Anna Taber get caught wearing the same outfit on Twin Day. David Burris and Tim Eikum found the wackiest clothes in the back of their closets for Crazy Hair and Mismatch day. Kim Potts, Jenean Bracken, and Amber Drury may look like they just stumbled out of bed and came to school but they are actually showing their spirit on Pajama Day.

The Time of Our Lives

A.S.B. Secretary, Erin Walker, introduces the entries for the class competition at the Homecoming assembly. Each class made giant hearts that included the theme and colors of the dance. Mr. Geiger and Mr. Peltier volunteered to be targets in the dunk tank. With the help of some football players, Junior Lindsey Willis, performs a basket toss for the crowd. The dance team performs their famous kicks in a special Homecoming routine.

Blazer Fashion

Do you ever wonder why people dress a certain way? There are many influences that contribute to the way a person dresses. These influences mostly come from friends or somebody that is admired or looked up to. A person's dress style tells a lot about them, their attitude, their interests, and their dislikes. For example, a person wearing baggy clothing and Airwalks may be labeled as a person who likes to skate and listen to alternative or grunge music. Timberline has a wide variety of fashion styles, which shows its great diversity of students.

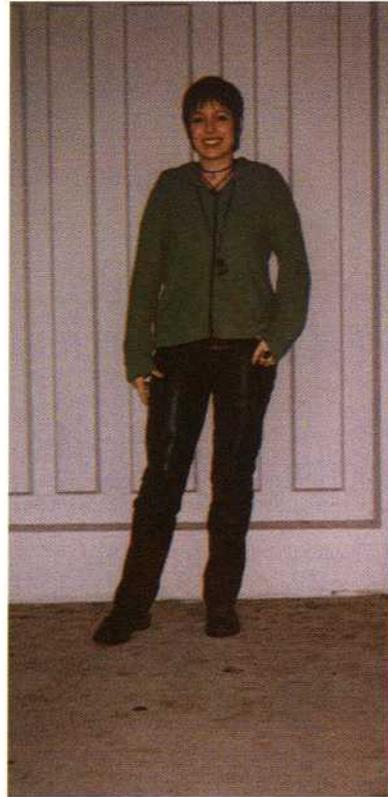

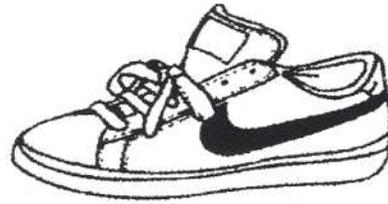

Top: Who copied who? Alex Garcia, Arlett Cardenas, and Denise Farrior, in their hip hop style, point fingers at the copy cat among them.

Right: Rickey Jones and Ufi Sakaria are "cool like that" in their fashionable everyday clothing.

After Game Dances

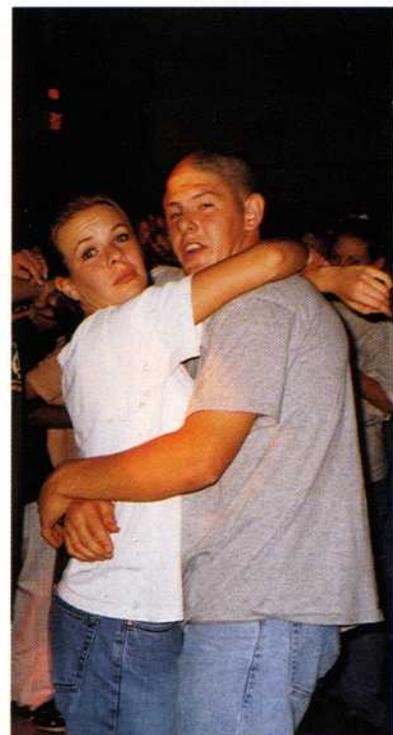

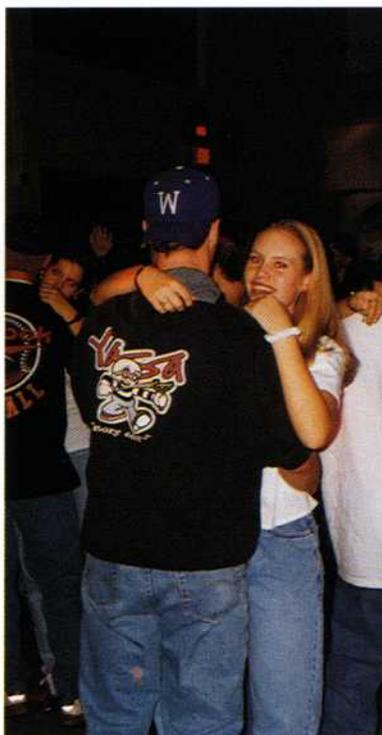

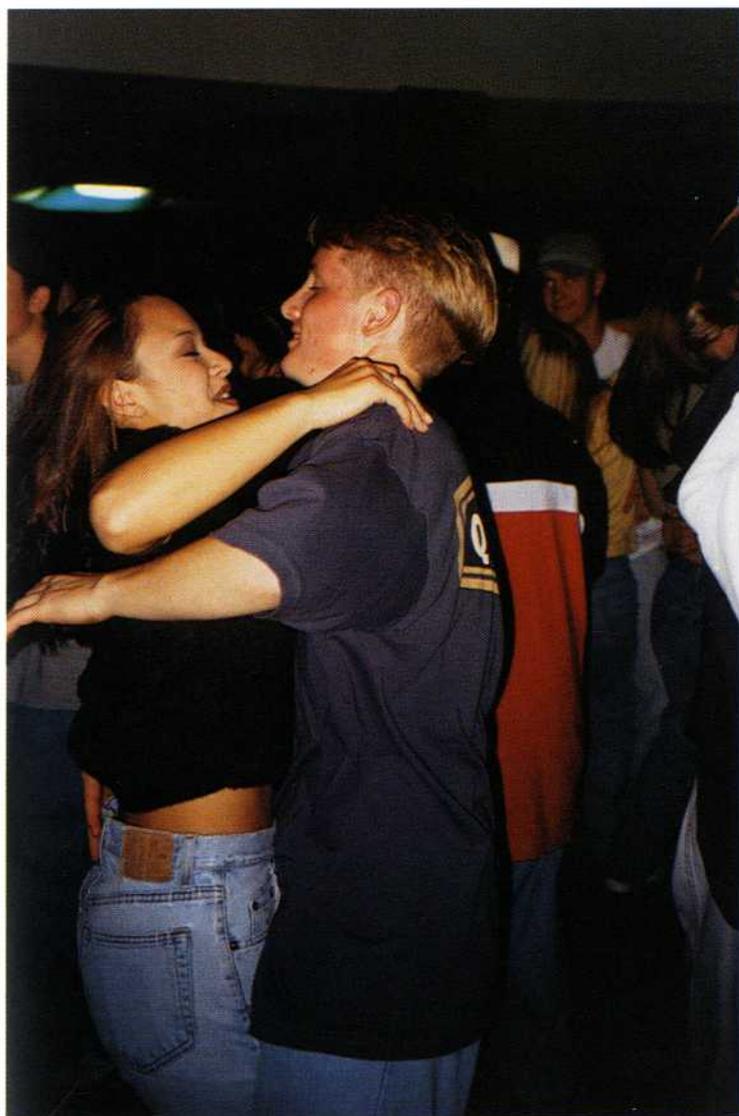

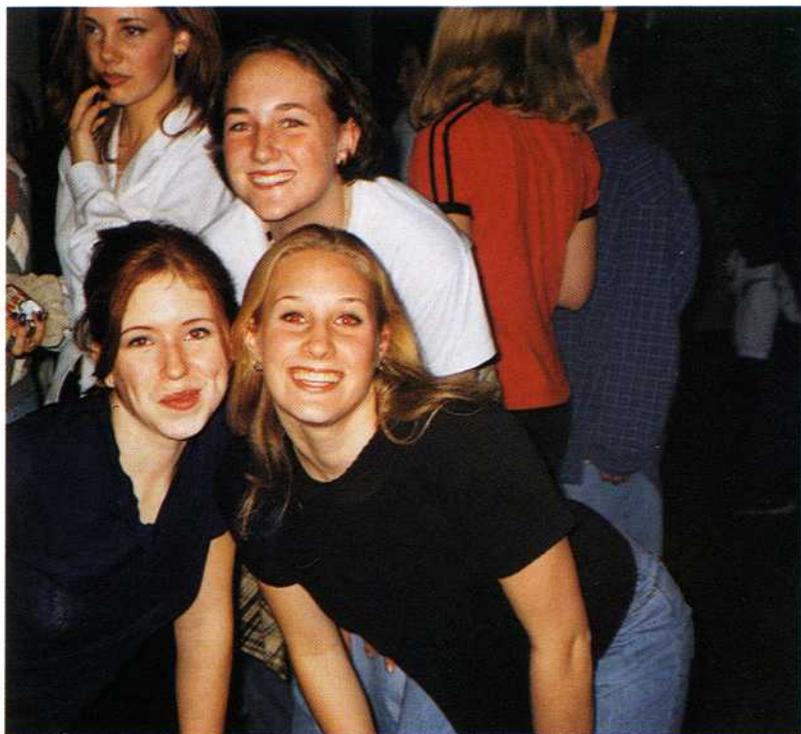

This year after game dances were a big success with many THS students. The dances lasted from 9:00 to midnight. The blazers had a blast dancing as they celebrated the home game victory.

A variety of music was played to please as many students as possible. At every dance a DJ was hired to entertain for the night. Every time the DJs would bring the

As the music played, students from all classes showed their moves on the dance floor. Songs such as Keith Sweat's "Twisted" and a blast from the past Vanilla Ice's "Ice, Ice Baby" got the crowd moving.

The dances gave students a chance to socialize outside of the classroom, and they were Cheek to Cheek... Amanda Howell, Courtney Carignan, and Celinda Ramsey have a great time as they pose for the camera.

Slowing Down... Babette Hathaway has a great time as she dances with Dusty Lensing.

Death Grip... Ted Hanby and Elisa Summit enjoy each other's company as they dance.

Body Slam: Sara Christensen and Josh Robischon get down to the funky beat.

Right: Freshman, Staci Hewitt and Brian Scoggs take a break from dancing to enjoy each others company. The backdrops gave the dance a romantic setting.

Michelle Trefielo, Amy Bostio and Rochelle Jones ditch their dates for some girl talk. Who needs those guys this year!

Homecoming Court: Freshman; Xavier Florence and Brandi Blodgett, Sophmores; Josh Schlotzman and Jenny Shaw, Juniors; Jeff Vaughn and Jolene Stokesberry, Seniors; Brett Cain and Jodi Benton, Kevin Gubbe and Dana Reams, Bob Fair and Cheri Reams, Juniors; Scott Rinear and Kerry Mills, Sophmores; Jason Shaw and Rachel Casillas.

TOTAL ECLIPSE OF THE HEART

HOMECOMING 1996 A SPECIAL NIGHT FOR US ALL!

Left: Junior Blaine Nonthaeth brought a special surprise to give to his date. The ladies weren't the only ones who had manicures done for this dance.

Below: Freshman, Keith Peterson and Mekenna Leeham relax together at the dance. This is their first formal dance at Timberline.

This year's Homecoming was a night of magic and excitement. Friday October 4 was the night of the big game against Mt. Tahoma, when the Blazers defeated the Thunderbirds 24 to 12.

The half time show featured a rare, but excellent performance by the marching band. Also at half time the dance team performed a special routine with costumes and props to the song "Total Eclipse of the Heart"

Which was the theme of the dance. The climax of the halftime show was the announcement of Homecoming Queen, Jodi Benton and King, Bob Fair.

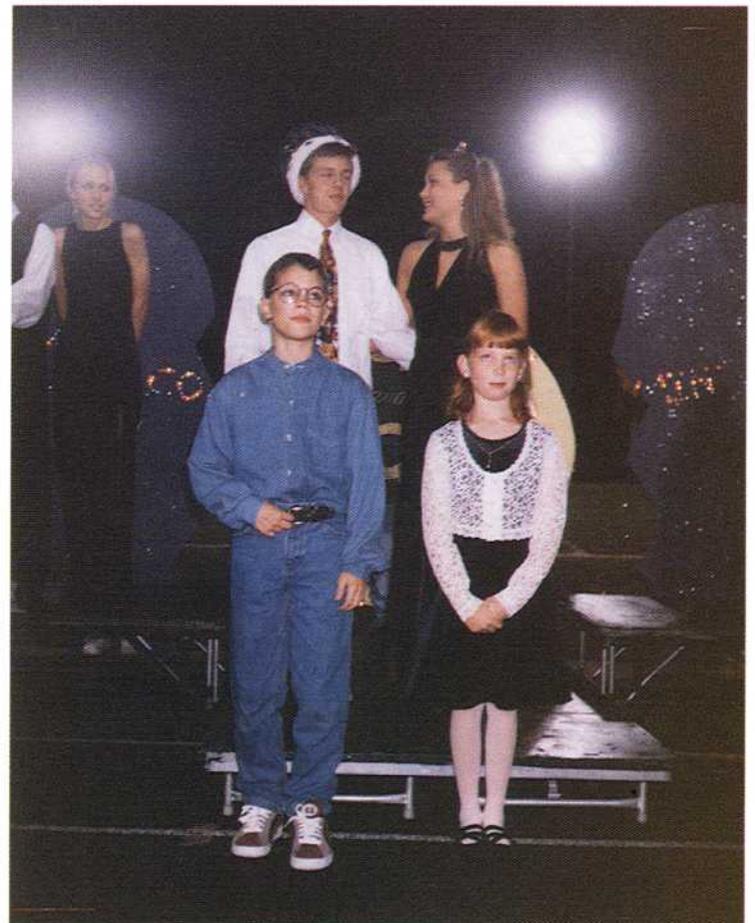

The colors of the dance were silver, purple, forest green, and gold. Senior, Jeff Parsley said: "I thought the colors were nice and overall the dance was good."

It was a great night and a great way to start the year.

Above: Teresa Bourgois and Derrick Williams aren't afraid to show their own style and show some of the diversity at THS.

Hey Maqurena! This was one of the most popular dances of the year, gaurenteed to make you shake your booty.

Summer Odysseys

Od•ys•sey (od'e•se) A long adventurous, wandering journey.

As last year's classes ended, Timberline Students put away their papers and books and headed off for a great summer.

Waking up with the sun is a thing of the past, along with the stresses of homework, tests, and finals. The sounds of students are now absent from the halls. Seniors go their separate ways and teachers pack up their memories and head for quieter days.

Whether Timberline students just stayed at home or they traveled around the globe, last summer was a summer to remember.

SUMMER JOBS Seniors, Cassandra Arellano and Marc Farnor enjoy a day at the park playing volleyball with coworkers, at the Attorney General's office summer picnic.

SCALING TO THE TOP Mindy Wachter and Robin McBride, escorted by Jeff Vaughn, stop to take a break after a "Death Hike" at Mt. Rainer.

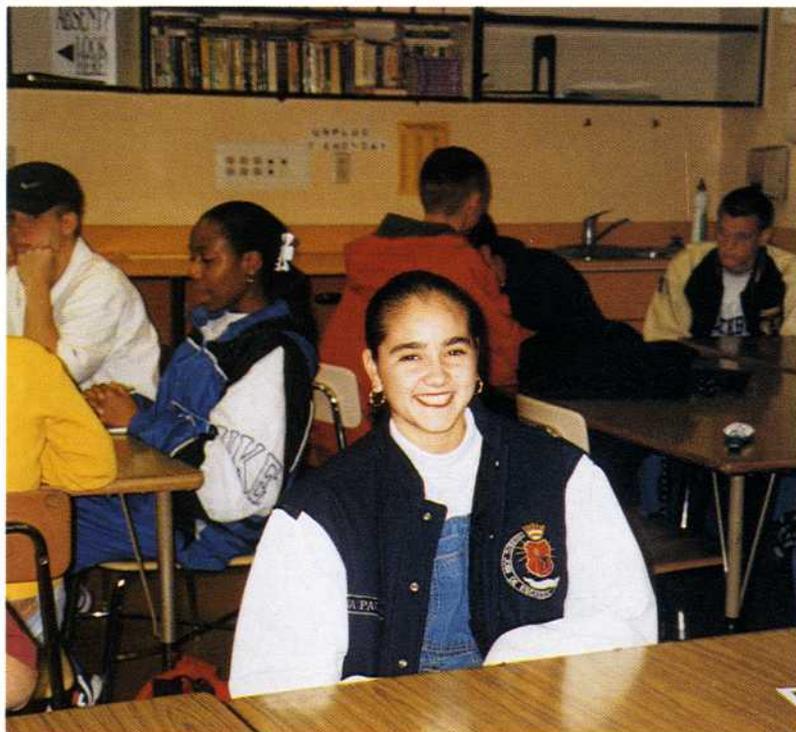

IN THE CENTER OF IT ALL As the city streets of London fill with mid-day traffic Anna Reynolds looks at the wonder of the buildings and people that surround her.

GOING FOR THE GOLD This summer Mr. Hawkins joined many others from around the world at the Olympic Games, in Atlanta. He attended such events as cycling, gymnastics, and track and field.

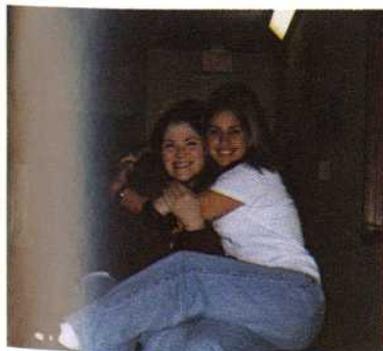

SENIORS

"The End of the Beginning"

The Perfectionist... Senior, Destiny French glances at a fellow classmate's work while perfecting her own paper. Destiny is rather particular, as you can see from the crumpled paper off to the right.

A Warm Welcome... Senior, Ana Rodriguez gives us a warm smile, though she is bundled up against the chilly Lacey weather. Ana misses Mexico's warm climate.

Seeking Therapy?... Sarah Woolsey is deeply absorbed with an article in Psychology Today. We hope she finds what she's looking for.

Friends for life...Robin McBride and Mindy Wachter have been inseparable since the day they met. From the looks of things that's not going to change.

Covering Every Angle... Sung Lee, Kelly Walsh, Chelsea Perry and Alice Avery look like they've seen the "Brady Bunch Movie" one too many times. "Kids put on your Sunday best, we're going to Sears!"

The Studious Glance... Zach Dickerson junior, glances up from his work in his mythology class. During this brief moment our yearbook staff snaps his picture capturing his solemn expression.

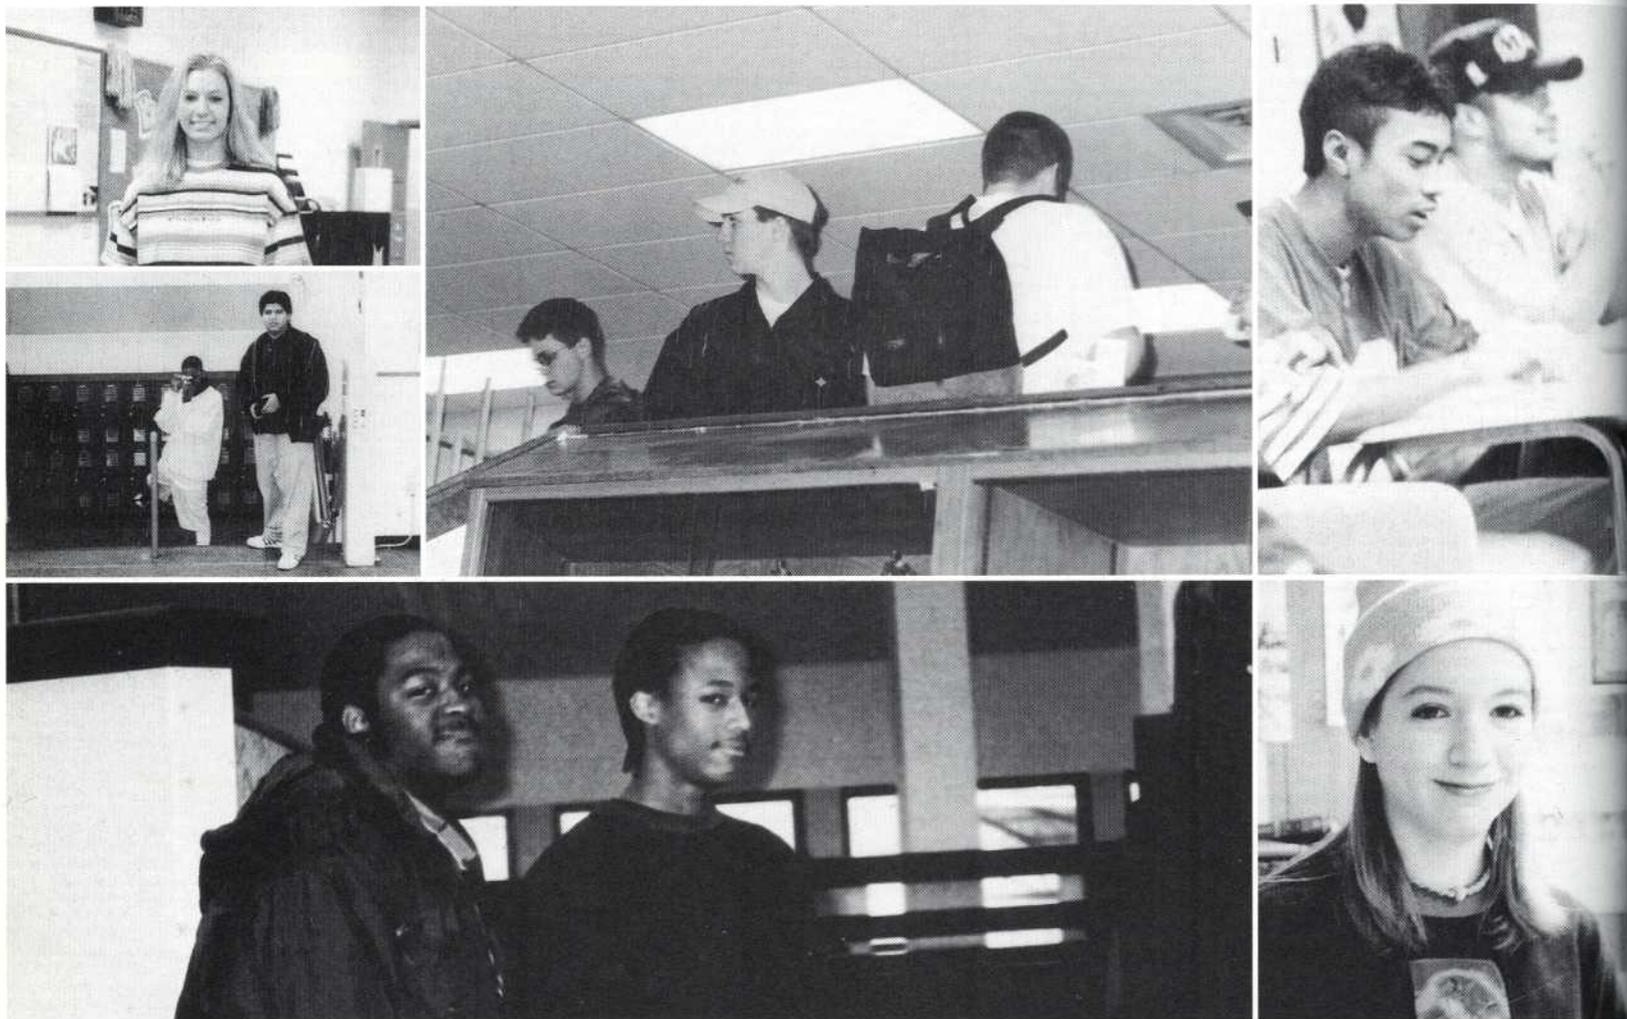

Unforgettable Moments... During an assembly juniors, Nicki Bonser, Courtney Carignan, and Yvonne Brown give us a big smile. Meanwhile Jesse Weldon and Chad McClellan look on at the action below. These are just some of the moments that they will never forget!

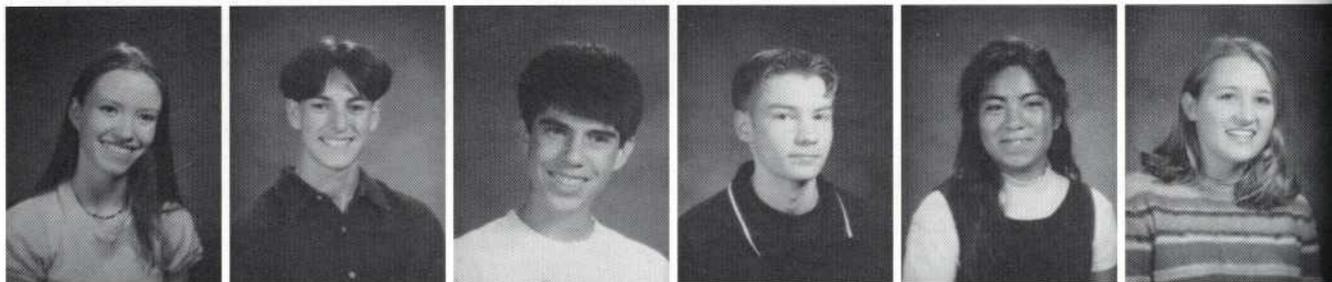

Classroom Candid: Senior, Imran Ismail and junior, Emron Amin pause from their work in Mrs. Donnely's sixth period drawing and painting class. Take note, these faces could be famous someday.

In Their Own Words

Hard Working Juniors

Balancing the stress and work of high school along with that of an outside job can be very challenging. Yet, year after year many students maintain the crucial mix of relaxation and hardwork. We asked a few experts on this topic: Where they work and how they like their job.

Micah works at Target by the Capitol Mall. He enjoys working with customers. (except when they complain about things he can't explain.)

Micah Abshear

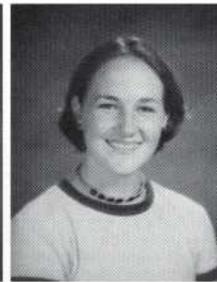

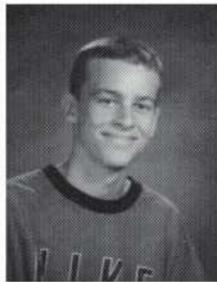

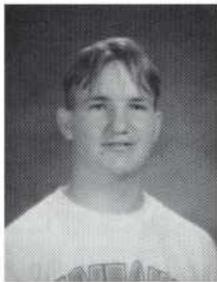

Rachel works at McDonald's Playland. Instead of flipping hamburgers she plays with the young toddlers all day.

Rachel Burnsed

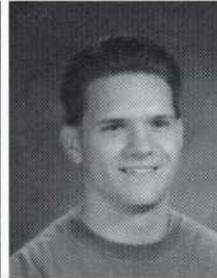

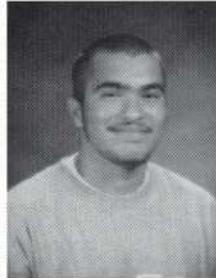

Robert is employed by Olympia Ground Maintenance. He likes the work but says that it's hard on the arms.

In Their Own Words

CRIME THROUGH THE EYES OF THS

Crime today is very different from the past. Teens are getting into more trouble than they were 20 years ago. Instead of walking away from a fight, teens pull guns and kill one another. There's more robberies and murders then there were and it's getting worse. What can we do? Some of our THS students were asked what should be done about crime. Here's what they said:

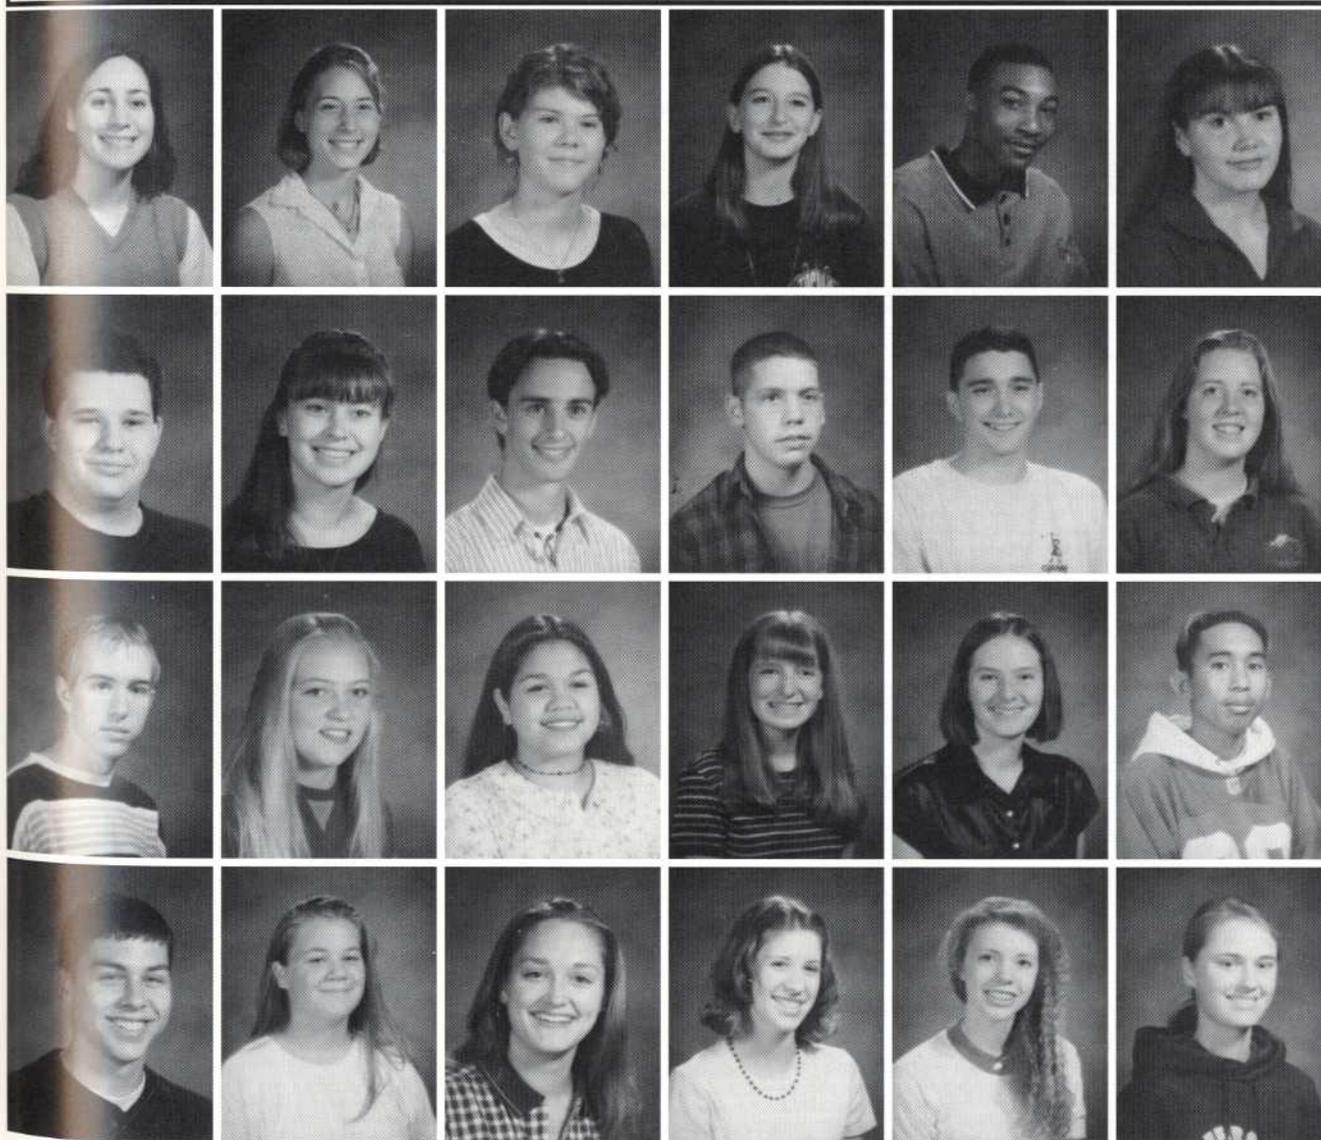

"In order to prevent crime we should enforce stricter laws and put police officers on the streets."

Matt Brown

"Crime in the United States is a problem, but taking rights away, like making guns illegal, is not a way to solve our problems."

Junior Q&A

"What are you most looking forward to about being a senior?"

"Getting ready for college, getting out of the house."

Joshua T.M. Taylor

"I can't wait to get out of AP!"

Amy Turner

"We don't have to make up snow days."

Sarah Vagt

"Always winning the class competition."

Kerry Mills

"Being Bob Cratchett in the Christmas Carol!"

Phil Price

"Only having one year left."

Amanda Howell

"I'm looking forward to parties and being the top of the school."

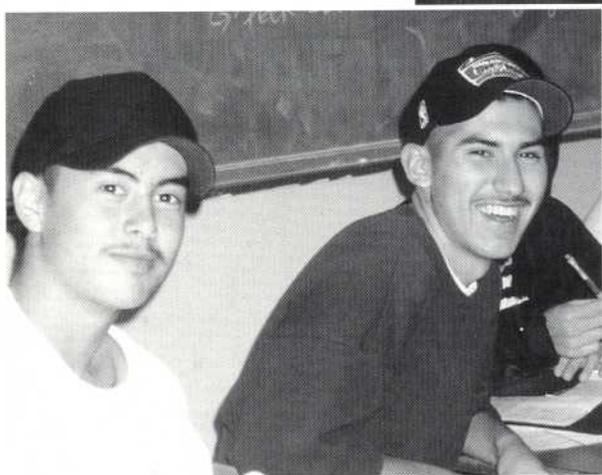

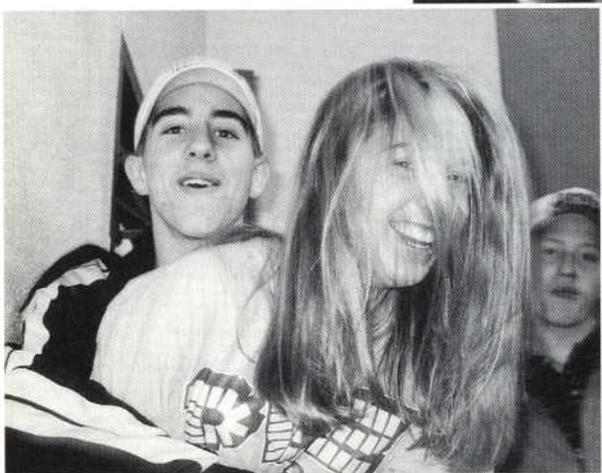

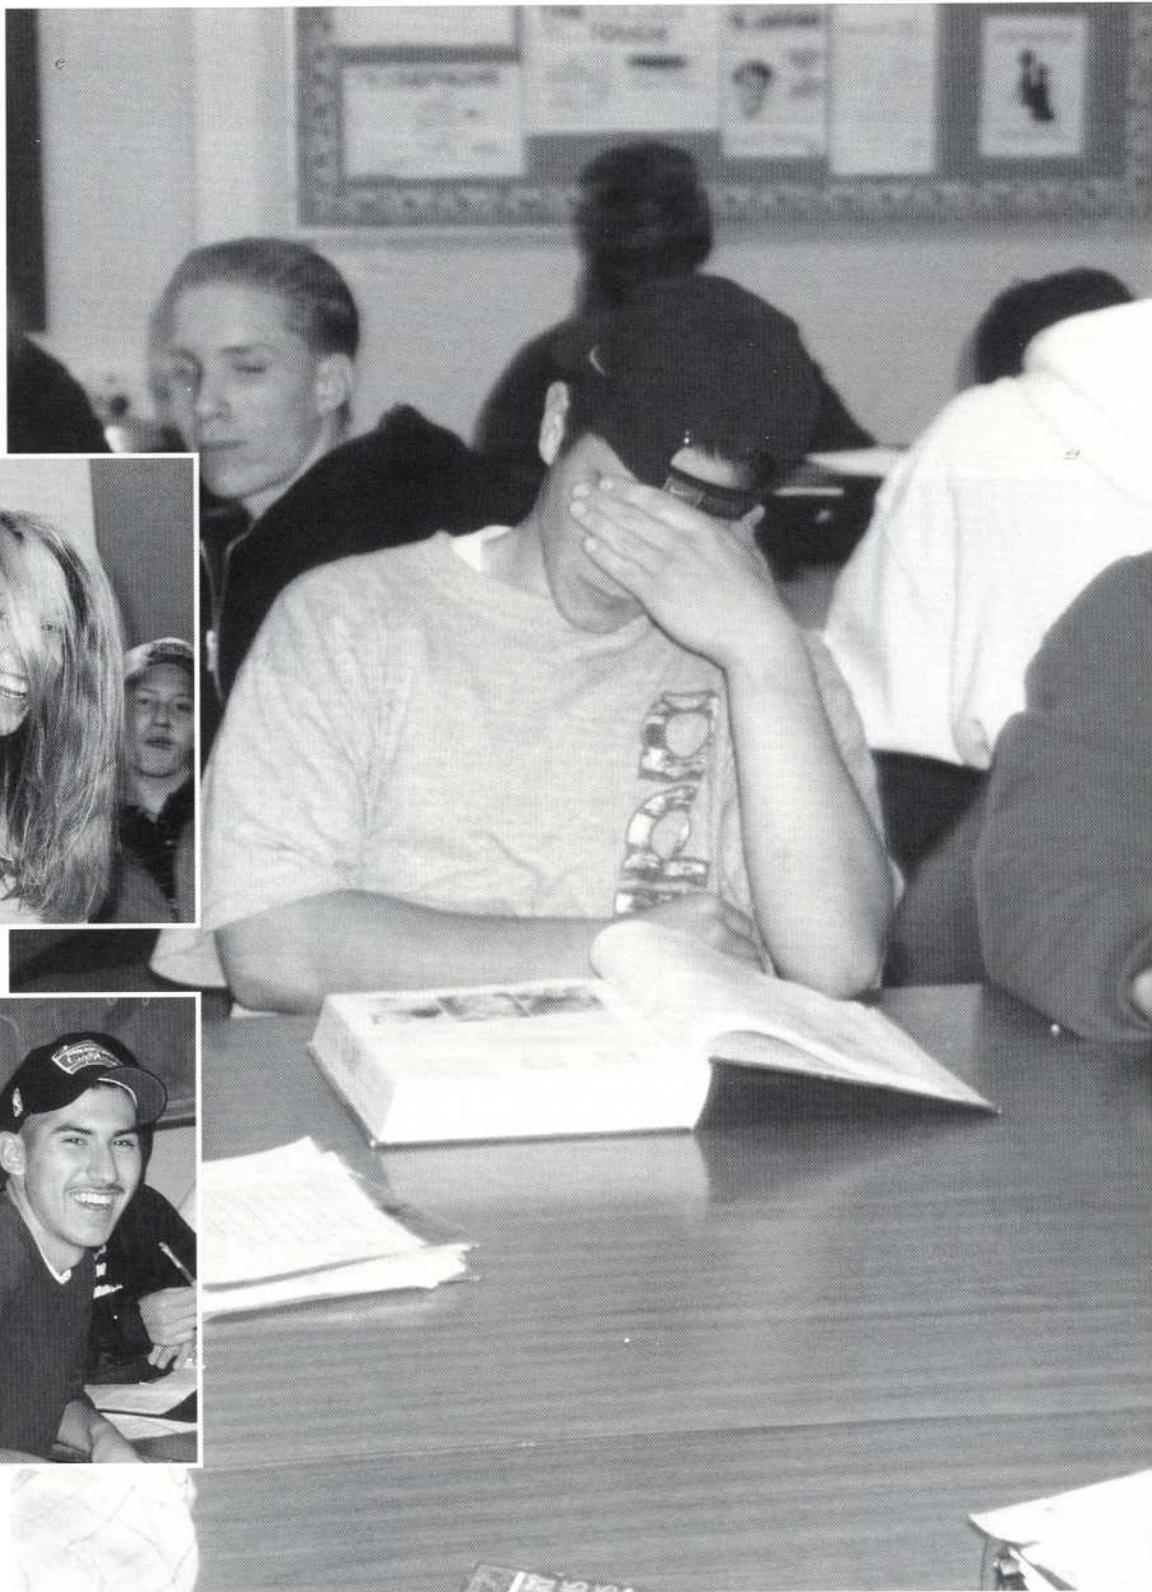

Matt Kilgore

"I love Timberline but, getting out of school."

Nick Oldright

Dreaming of Escape: Billy Hoffman daydreams during class to escape from the never ending onslaught of homework. Kristen Rivas tries to escape the evil clutches of the flirtatious Jeremy Cole. Nick Graham and Marcos Lozano are always on the lookout for an opportunity to take a break from their studies and socialize. Talking in class has always been a favorite pastime of students and a pet peeve of teachers.

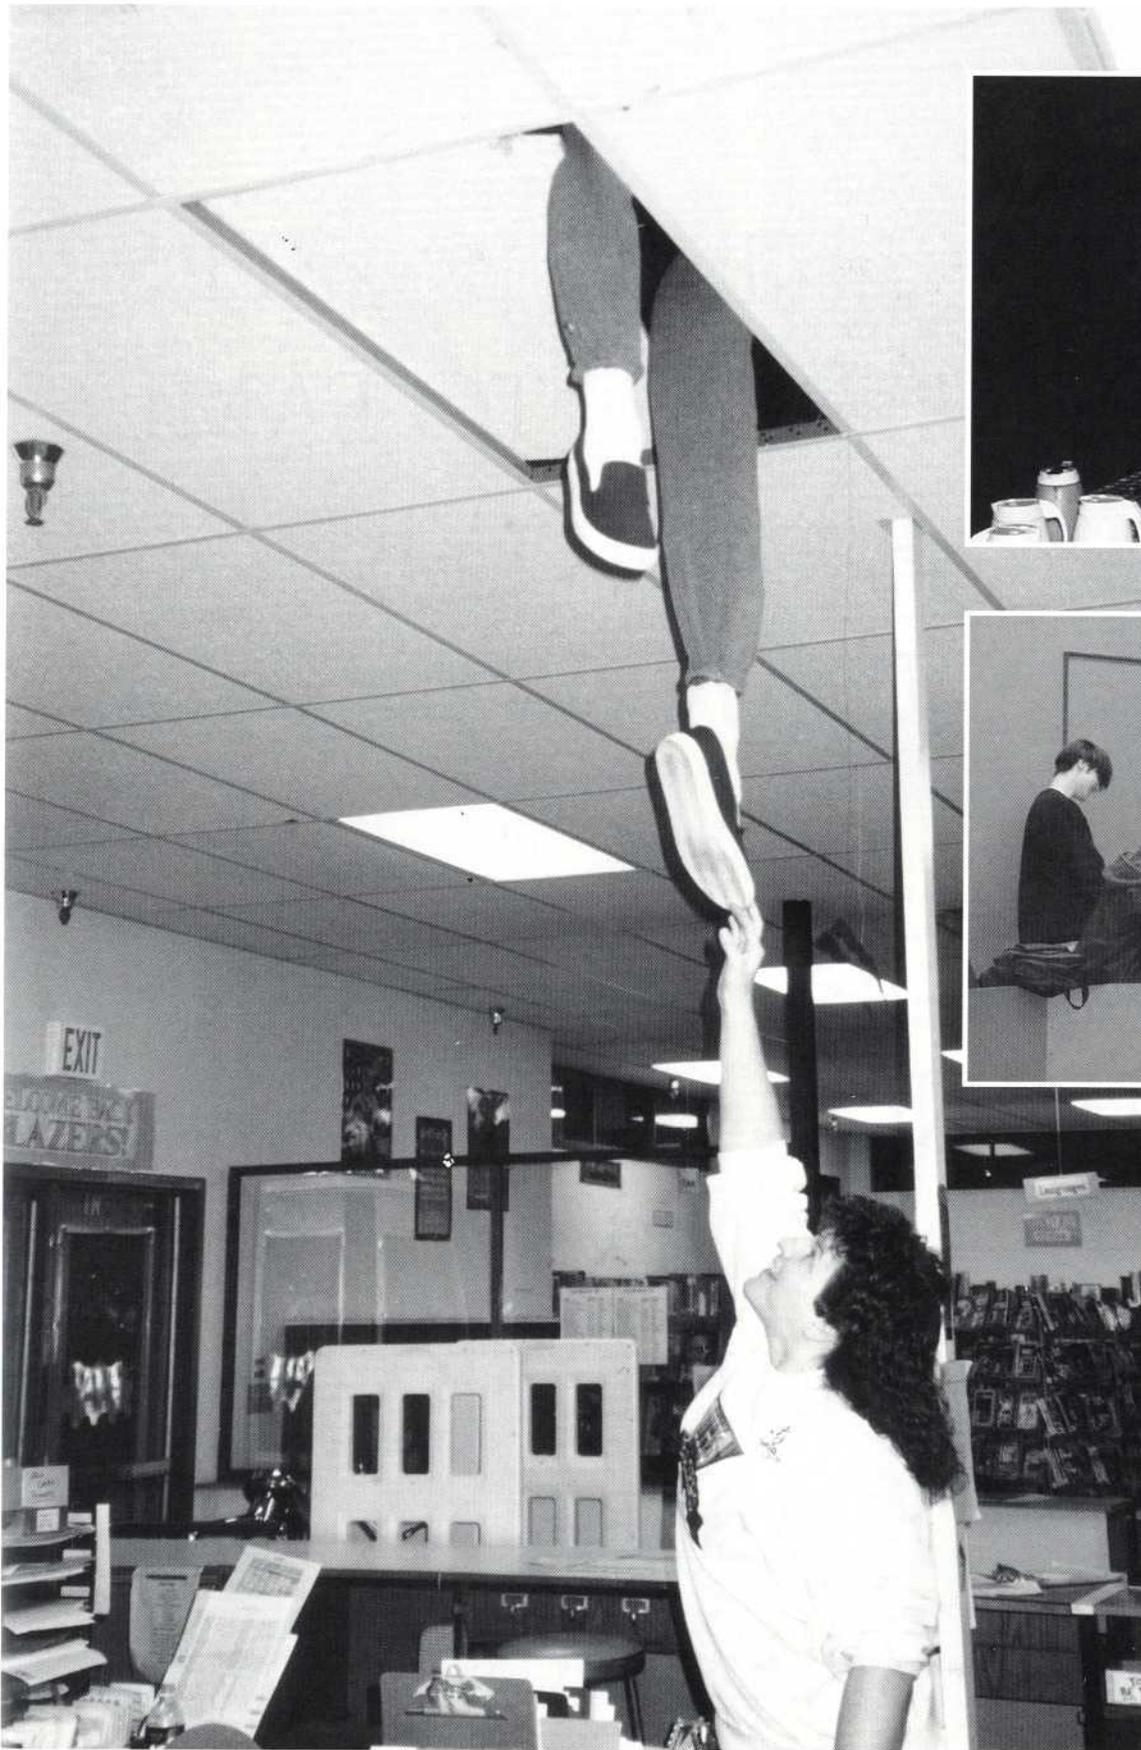

For some students breaking away was an occasional nap or extra long lunch period, for others it was a daily trip to detention.

Sometimes even the hard working Blazers need a break.

Timberline students take time away from their studies to relax and enjoy the atmosphere

Breaking Away

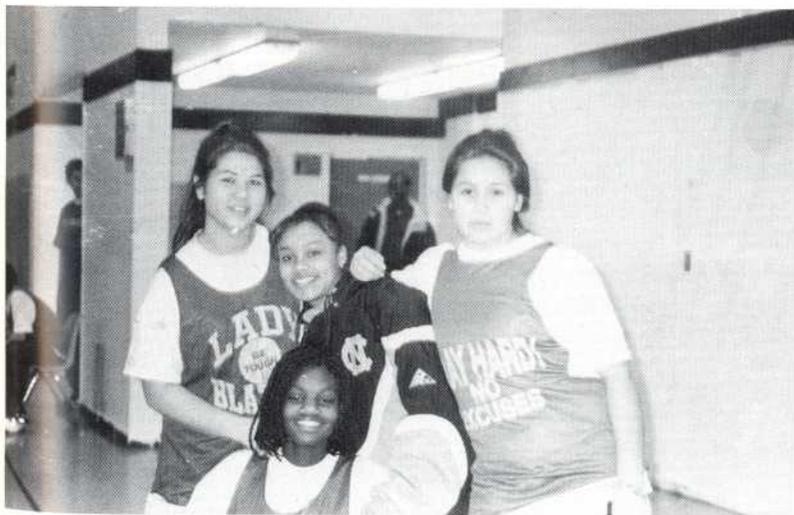

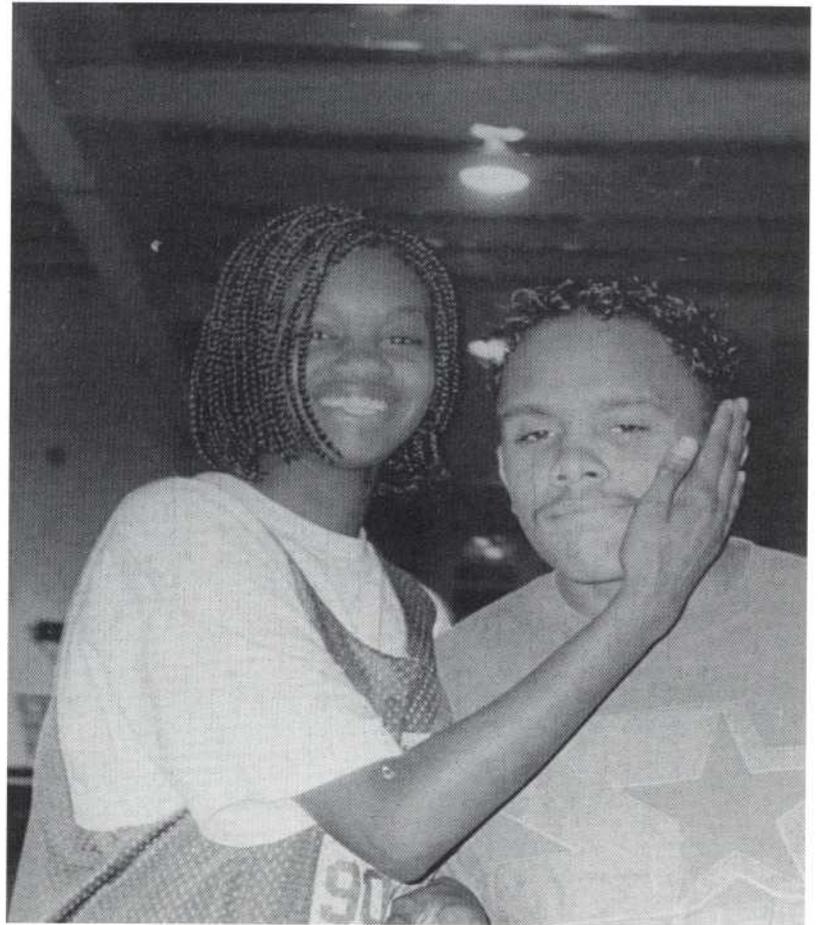

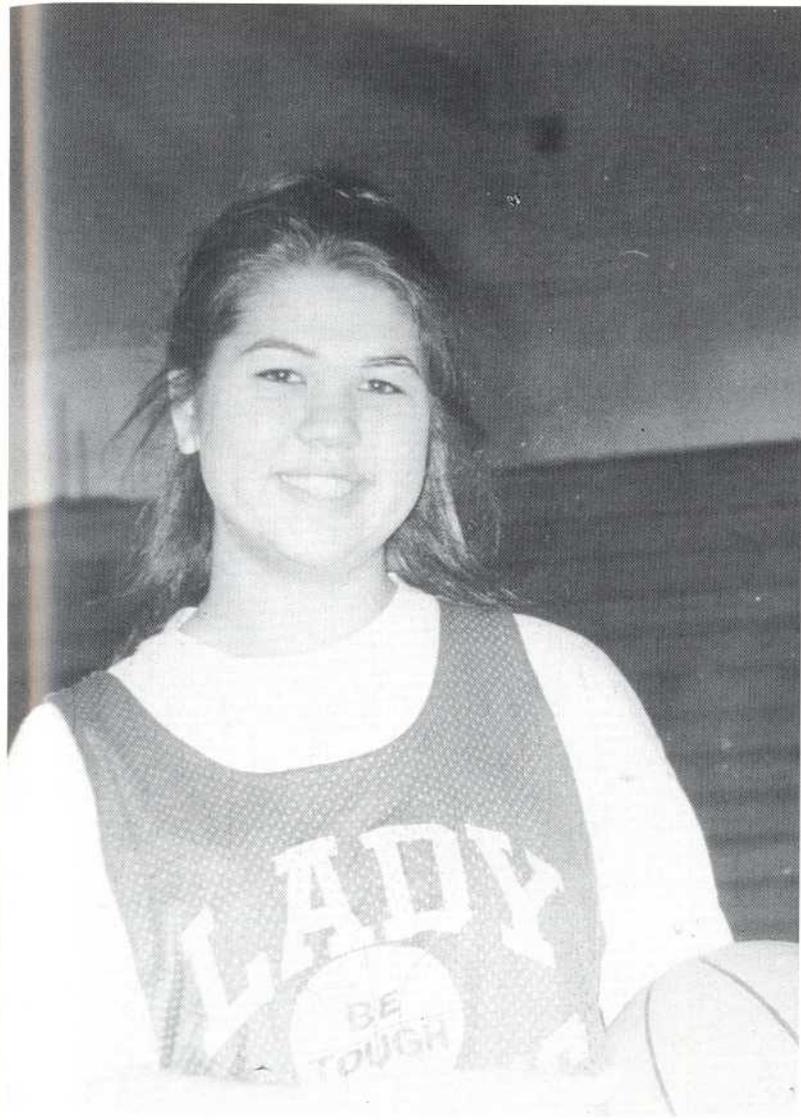

No way out: Ms. Madjdi stops a potential escape from the library. There were many escape attempts this year, none of which were successful. Kyle Kennemore prepares his pizza just the way he likes it in the cafeteria. Lunchtime was everyone's chance to relax and kick back. Chad Carpenter is amused in the Blazer Broadcast room as he goes over some scripts with a few buddies.

Faculty and Staff

ADMINISTRATION

Ann Allen is always willing to take time out of her busy schedule to listen to students and steer them in the right direction.

Tony Hawkins spends a good part of his day making important phone calls, but his whole day is not spent in the office. Mr. Hawkins frequently takes time to interact with students.

Dave Lehnis returns to Timberline after two years at River Ridge to fill Ms. Lenke's role as assistant principle. He has been a great asset to the school.

ACTIVITY COORDINATORS

Kathy Johnson and John Birbeck make up T.H.S.'s activities department. They work very hard scheduling and organizing all of Timberline's assemblies and events.

Where's Hoonan?

Timberline's busy main office...

Teachers aren't the only ones who develop special relationships with students. Working in the main office the secretaries interact with several students on a daily basis. This is evident by the board in the background plastered with pictures.

LIBRARY STAFF

Marianne Hunter, Jeff Peltier, Cindy Madjdi

This year Timberline's faculty have set out to achieve three goals for this year. In these goals they incorporated the attitudes and policies that began anew with the start of this year at T.H.S. These goals dealt with a range of topics from dealing with new teaching methods to the attitudes of students towards achieving their best. The goals presented were; 1) Every teacher will have they opportunity to learn from another in order to incorporate new strategies to reach a broader range of students. 2) To get everyone involved as a participant and/or spectator in school or community and 3) To help students develop "I can/ I care attitude," thus raising student achievement. The faculty hopes that these goals will help to make Timberline a better environment for students.

*In Loving Memory of
Robert Taylor
1979-1997*

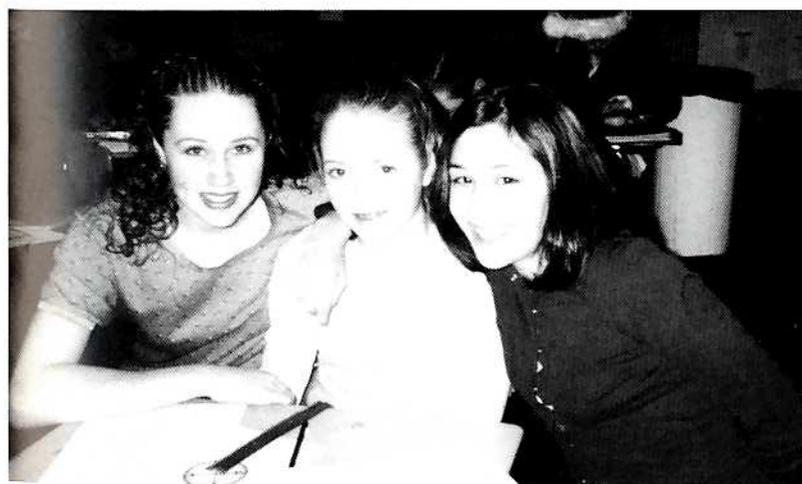

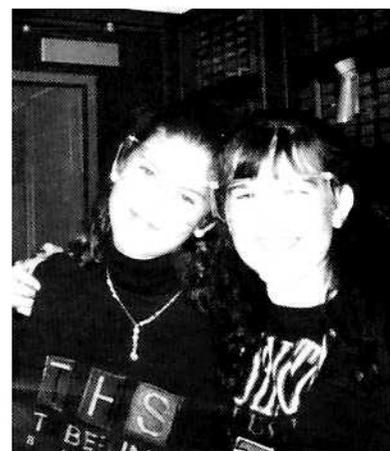

A Day in the Life of a THS Student

Am I crazy or what?!

Mike Kuculyn is in the muck pretty thick here. He's probably wondering why for the love of science he's doing this!

Chemistry between friends...

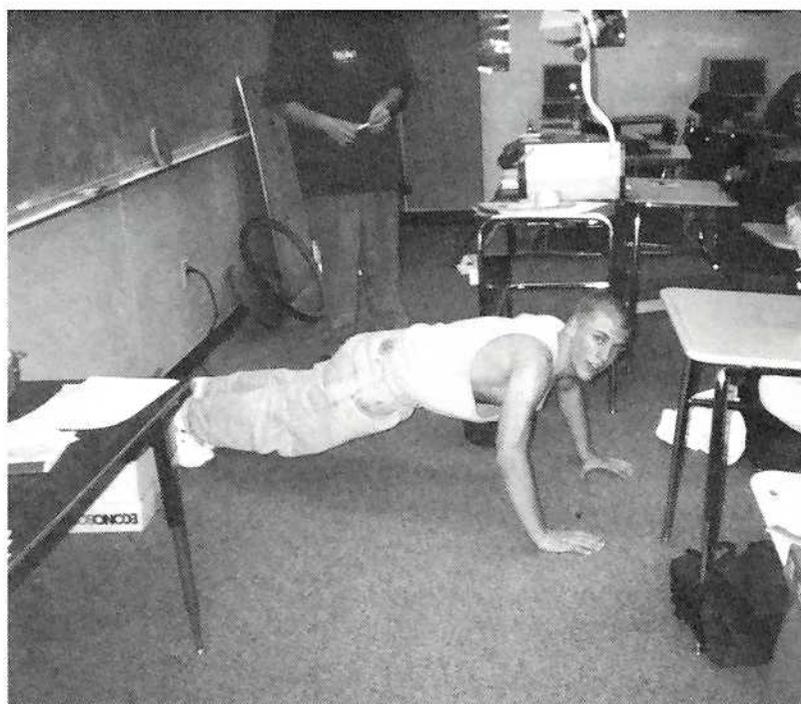

From the look on their faces, lab partners Shannon Stone and Julie Litten have definitely bonded.

Who needs homework, anyway?! Colleen Brown, Taylor Kinley, and Kimberly Bridson would rather pose for a picture anytime than work on a math assignment.

I wonder if I could get a P.E. credit for Algebra?

Cody Hircock is just finishing his last push up for being tardy in Mr. Wilson's math class. Hey, at least you can work out while learning Algebra!

BLAZERS IN ACTION

Working Together...

Lauren Bacon and Sara Spain finish the final touches on a spirit hat for DECA.

Fun with math!

Mr. Anderson, Mr. Christophersen, Ms. Sturdivant, and Mr. Wilson busily work on a project together.

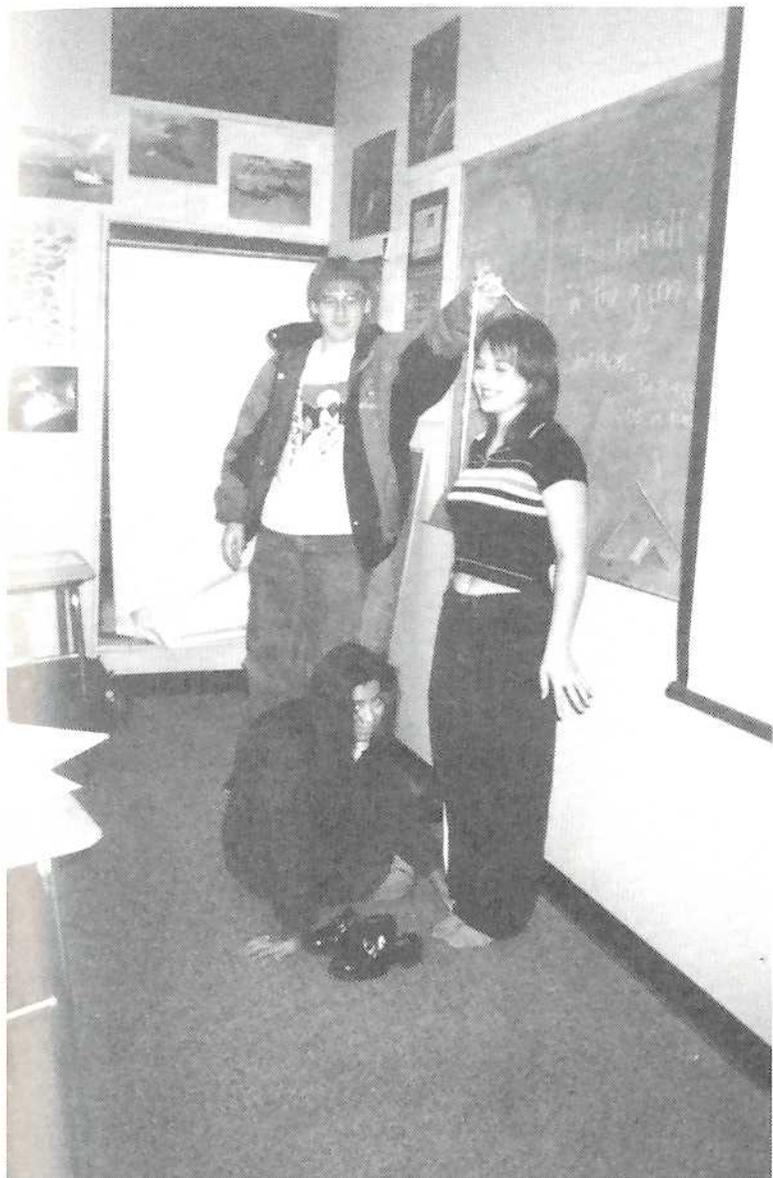

Things that make you go hmmm... Christina Cooling contemplates the importance of the lab data while her partner, Monica Tuesta, adjusts her glasses.

Careers in the making... Future auto mechanics, Jeff Parsley and Steve Trapp, give us that familiar mechanic's stare.

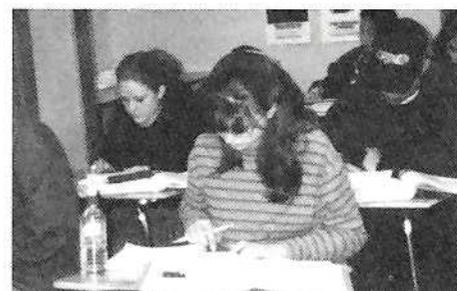

Boy you're short, Stephanie!
 Josh Jones checks Stephanie Mould's height, while Monica Aguinaga makes sure she's standing straight.

Care for a sip?
 Jodie Broman holds up a bottle of chemical used in a science experiment. Evidently there aren't any takers on her offer.

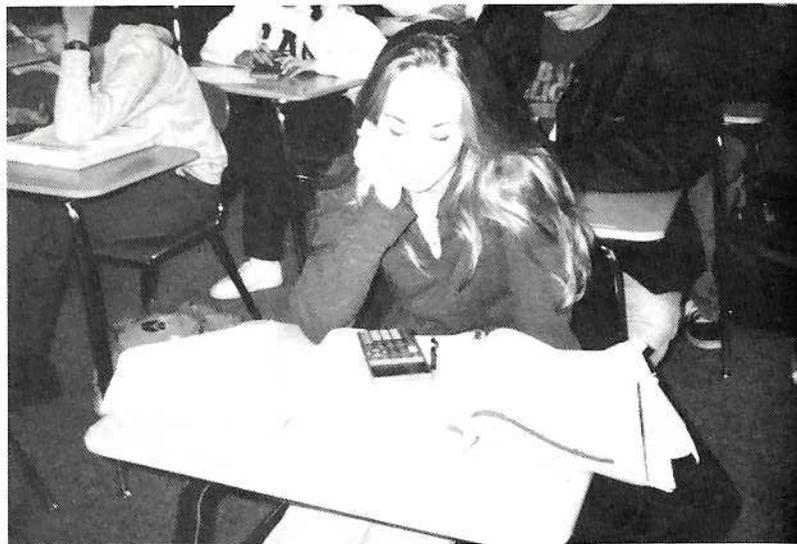

Wow, it worked!
 Chad Carpenter points at the screen where Lucia Ahrens demonstrates what to type into the graphing calculator.

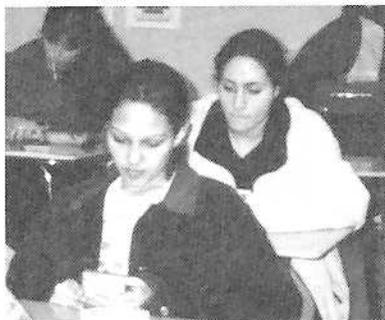

Hard at Work...
 Marta Swanson is working hard on her assignment. All that effort will pay off when the test comes!

Look what happens when I pull this string!
 Zach Childress explores the wonders of Physics as John Cooley looks on in amazement.

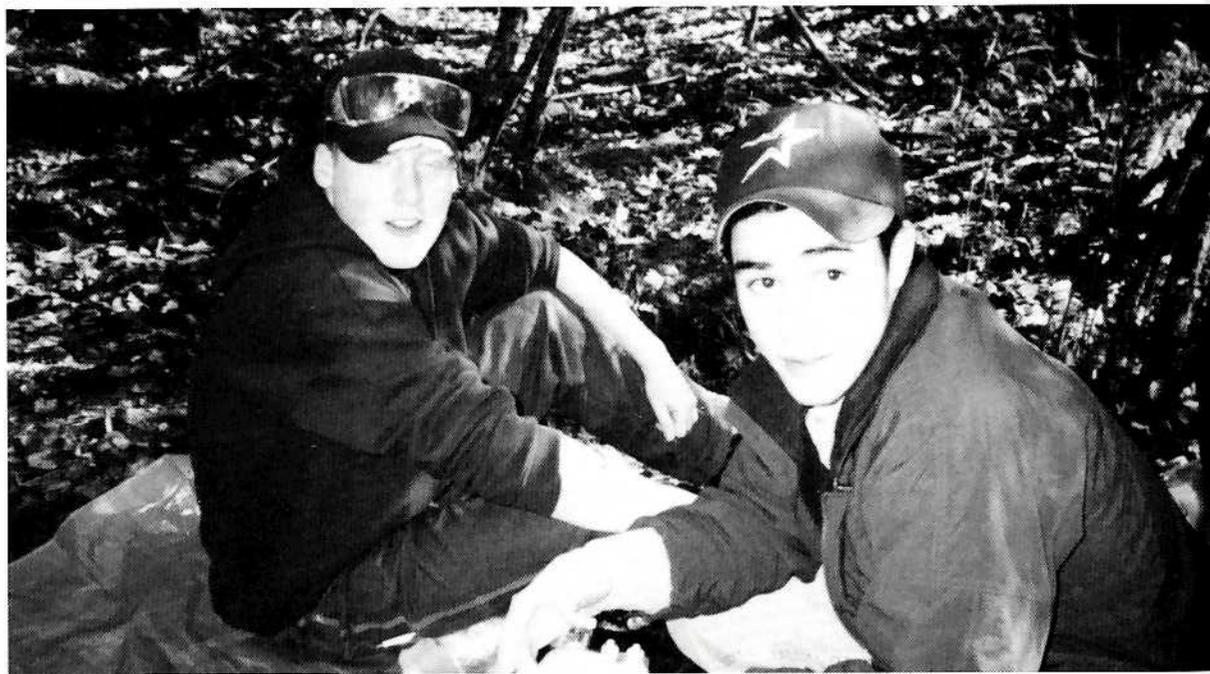

Senioritis strikes again!
Amie Wardenburg doesn't look too interested in completing her math assignment.

Trial and Error...
Alice Avery stares at her calculator in confusion wondering how to come up with the answer.

Scientists at work...
Kyle Bracken and David Oas take a break from the gruelling work of experimentation.

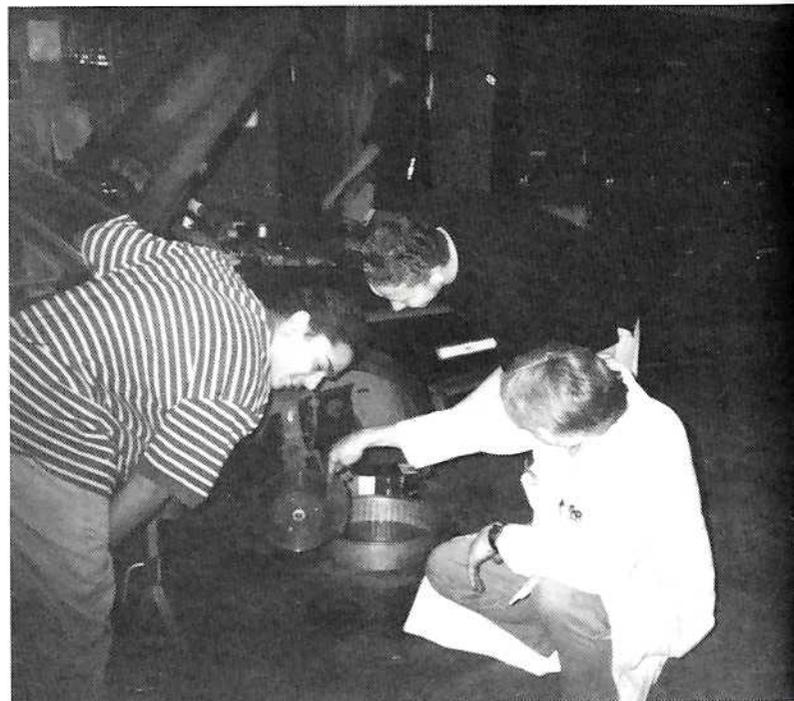

Stealing the show...
During a science experiment Jodie Broman notices our camera and joins in the picture behind Tim Bradt. Mark Inich seems to be amused by her antics while Dane McCray is a little confused as to what's going on.

Racing against the clock...
Bevin Oneill calculates like mad as she attempts to finish her homework before class ends.
Will she make it?

Ah...That seems to be the problem!
Mr. Livesay points out what needs to be done in autoshop to his young apprentices.

Cards: After they planned out their schedules for next semester, students began to play cards. As you can see their hearts were really into the planning of their future.

In the Lights: He instructs the class on the finer points of music. The students try to give them his full attention.

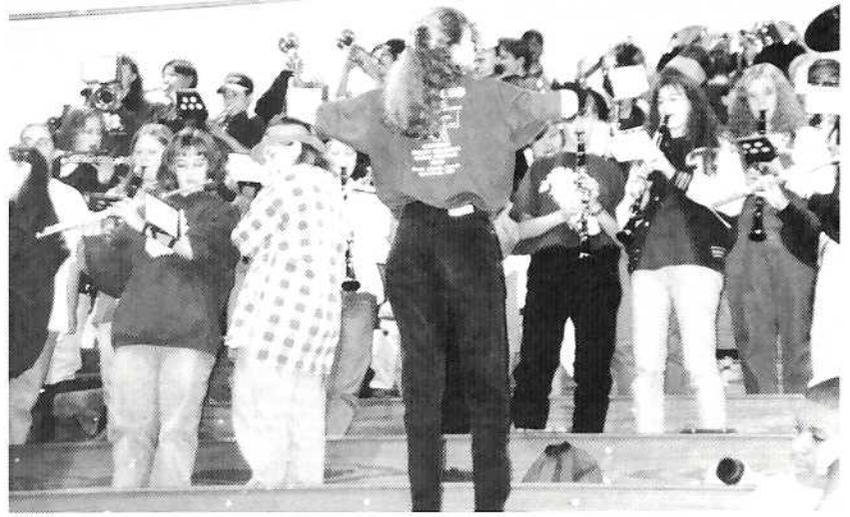

Time out: Mr. Stone watches as Mr. Atwell talks to the band about registration.

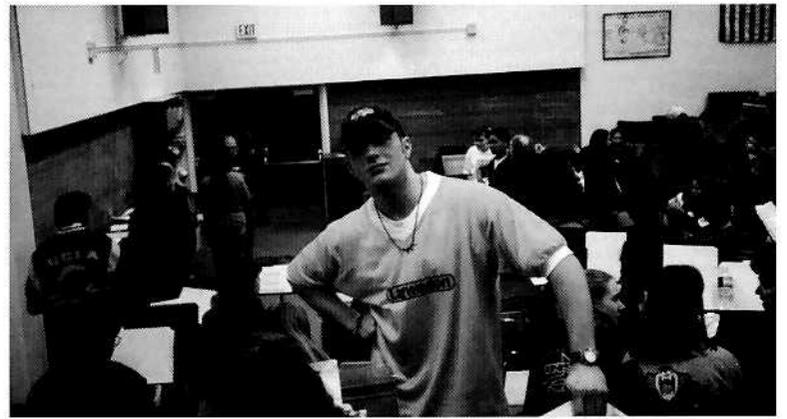

Class: Senior Emily Mould practices on the timpani drums.

Assembly: Shannon Stone leads the band in the fight song as the crowd of students sing along.

WINTER CONCERT

Band students have a great time as they play for their family and friends. At the concert the band played Christmas songs that warmed the hearts of the listeners.

IN CLASS

Mike Hancock looks at the camera as he waits for Mr. Stone to continue on conducting the class.

TALENT, TALENT, TALENT

Many band members can play more than one instrument and that is one of the reasons why the band plays so well. Their talent is expressed with every note that they play.

JUST PLAYING AROUND

Many of our band members are not only classmates, but good friends as well. The closeness that they feel for one another helps to unify the band.

GREEN AND GOLD

This year's orchestra was actively involved in making this year the best ever. These talented musicians made every concert a wonderful experience. Mr. Courter was very proud of his students in both the green and the gold orchestra. They worked hard on every piece.

If you have ever been to one of their concerts, you would know that a variety of music is played and all the pieces are played with great accuracy. They played Concerto VIII by Arcangelo Corelli, Gone with the Wind Suite arranged by Max Steiner, Prayer by Bartok and Psalm and Fugue by Alan Hovhanness, all pieces were played to the orchestra's best ability.

In the first half of the year both orchestras participated in the Mercer Island Festival. They also played many quartet concerts. The gold orchestra played Christmas songs in the office before school let out for winter break. Songs that were played included

Hark the Herald Angels Sing, Joy to the World, Frosty the Snow Man, Silent Night, O Come All Ye Faithful, Steve Nelson and Jack Rollins arranged by Bruce Chase, The Christmas song and Christmas Suite For Strings arranged by Matteo Glammario.

Gold Orchestra: In alphabetical order, Mark Albersold, Melissa Allen, David Anderson, Rebecca Baria, Monica Boros, Matthew Boston, Neva Chemel, Elizabeth Cheney, Michael Easterday, Vanessa Edwards, Glen Ekstrom, Pieter Jensen, Elizabeth Kang, Donald Orton, Lon Perplies, Erik Porter, Jessica Richardson, Quinn Roberts, Amy Robinson, James Sherry, Lexa Waterman and Brittny Zych.

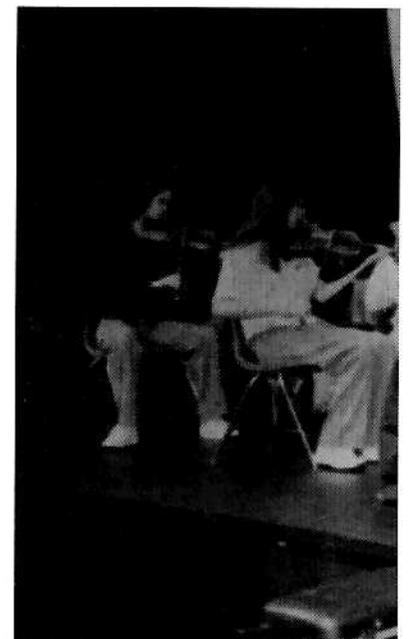

Gold orchestra members play for the audience at a mid-year concert.

Green orchestra members practice for their next concert. They not only begin to learn new pieces, but they also perfect those that they have already learned.

Green Orchestra: Lisa Burman, Candice Campbell, Erin Christophersen, Cunthia Coulson, Patricia Evans, Krista Friend, Tara Gilchrist, Summer Goff, Jane Huh, Heather Johnston, Miranda Jolley, Grace Lee, Jennifer Lobe, Melissa Mendiola, Bianca Navarrete, Janilee Richardson, Joshua Schrock, Anna Seig, Amande Sherry, Rebecca Skelly, Michelle Stevens, Shelley Stevens, Robert Sutton, and Ha Tran.

Playing. Green orchestra students play the music while following the lead of Mr. Courter.

Class: Mr. Courter instructs his class on the piece that he has just presented to them. The students give him all their attention, so they can play the piece to perfection.

Stage: The green orchestra practices during second period.

Foreign Language Clubs

This years foreign language clubs included the French Club, the Spanish Club, and the German Club, each set out to make this years activities better than ever. Activities included: taking trips, planning class time, as well as participating in fund raisers such as Adopt-a-Family, to make the community a better place. This year the French Club and Spanish Club took journeys to far off places. The Spanish Club traveled to Spain in April of 1997 and within the same month, the French Club visited Victoria, British Columbia. All the foreign language clubs planned on making this year one that none of their members will ever forget and so far they have succeeded.

Preparation! Britannia Kerschner, Ms. Hills, Kim Small, Kelly Walsh, and Sarah Meagher prepare Galette des Rois for the French Club.

Honor Society member Becky Clevinger shows her volunteer spirit by donating her services to the Salvation Army.

Honor Society

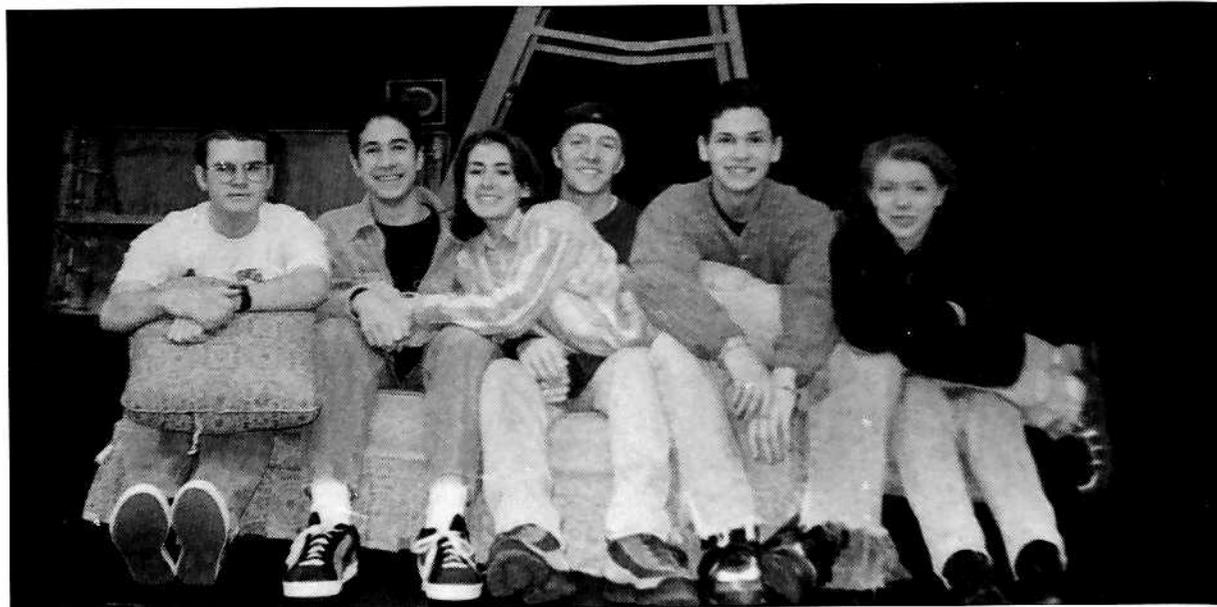

The Honor Society led the way with its gallant efforts to help the community. With Kim Hanson at the lead, it seems that this year's Honor Society was the best it had ever been. They participated activities such as the Giving Tree, which provided gifts to underprivileged children. They also rang bells for the Salvation Army. This year the Honor Society made it a responsibility of each member to accomplish at least two community service projects. Members did a variety of tasks, from volunteering at a nursing home to serving meals. This year members certainly brought honor to the community and THS.

Drama club officers.. Chad Carpenter, Ian Eisendrath, Natalie Backman, Ryan Truax, Nick Oldright, and Kelly Walsh. Not Pictured: Joy Burton.

The 1996-97 drama club had a large enrollment of students this year. Many of the students were active in the fall production of "The Fantastiks," the traditional winter production of "Jacob Marley's Christmas Carol" and the spring all city production of "West Side Story." Jeff Kingsberry was the new drama teacher for the year, and a new face around campus. He was taking the place of Ms. Kirkpatrick who was on sabbatical in England. The participation of so many students in the drama department resulted in a large variety of one act plays and productions.

Chit chat time... Students gather in groups for discussion.

Plan A... Club members Lawrence Hellwig, Emily Mould, Ben Miller, Bill Greeley, and Chad Carpenter discuss strategies for the upcoming production.

Drama Club

Whatever... Jason Gilbertson looks on in disbelief, as VICA welding advisor Mr. McCracken explains the technical side to welding.

No, this is not a doughnut maker... Mr. Livesay shows his VICA auto students how a brake disc works.

As Mr. Ripley looks on... VICA Graphics members working together to get the job done.

Academic Decathlon

Many students have a hard enough time completing their regular homework assignments, let alone study for topics out of the regular school curriculum. Yet, Academic Decathlon members find themselves achieving above and beyond every week while preparing for academic competitions in the spring. As a member of Academic Decathlon, students become more well rounded individuals. These students have an opportunity to explore subjects such as, musical composition and the fine arts. Not to mention, being invited to Mr. Kistler's house for dinner. The annual staff asked a few dedicated AD members just what is it that they like about Academic Decathlon:

"It's a fun way to learn and win medals for being smart."

REGGIE STANDIFER, SENIOR

"It's Exciting to explore new worlds of thought."

BECCA BARIA, JUNIOR

"It gives you an opportunity to show your academic process in competitions with other schools."

JASON HOWELL, SENIOR

Scholarly Minds...

Back Row: Mr. Kistler (Advisor), Brett Jennings, Jason Howell, Reggie Standifer, and Geoffrey Zimmerman. Front Row: Vanessa Edwards, Michele Neely, Rebecca Baria, Kerri Watt, and Micheal Lee.

Political Science Club

The goal of the Political Science Club is to get students involved in a real project to improve their community and to educate them about our local government.

The Breeding Grounds...
This is the Deschutes River, where Timberline's Political Science Club gets their Chinook Salmon.

The Political Science "Men"..
These guys really let us know who's in charge! Political Science Club members Zac Childress, Shane Chappelow, Reggie Standifer, and Jason Howell have really got it together.

1996 Candidate Campaign Forum

The Political Science Club together with Mr. Heino's government classes hosted Campaign '96 on Monday, October 28. The speakers invited to the occasion were the candidates for the 22nd Legislative District. These prestigious individuals included candidates for State Senator; Karen Fraser (democrat) and Judy A. Bainto (republican), State Representative; Position One: Sandra Romero (democrat) and Thelma Jackson (republican) and Position Two: Cathy Wolfe (democrat) and Bob Wright (republican). This event gave T.H.S. students the opportunity to engage in conversation with actual political leaders and discuss current issues. A panel of seven Timberline students also presented questions to both parties, who were given two minutes to address each one.

Political Science Club Members Who Are Not Pictured:

Patrick Cooper, Nick Oldright, Chae Woo, Justin Secrist, Matthew O'Hare, Scott Peterson, Cheri Reams, and Josh Eveland.

Blazer Broadcasting System

B.B.S. is really much more than a bunch of students wandering around the school. The sole purpose of B.B.S. is to let the community know what is going on at Timberline, it is also to let the other schools know what's up.

The Pontificator... Mr. Peltier expresses his excitement in being one of the two B.B.S. teachers.

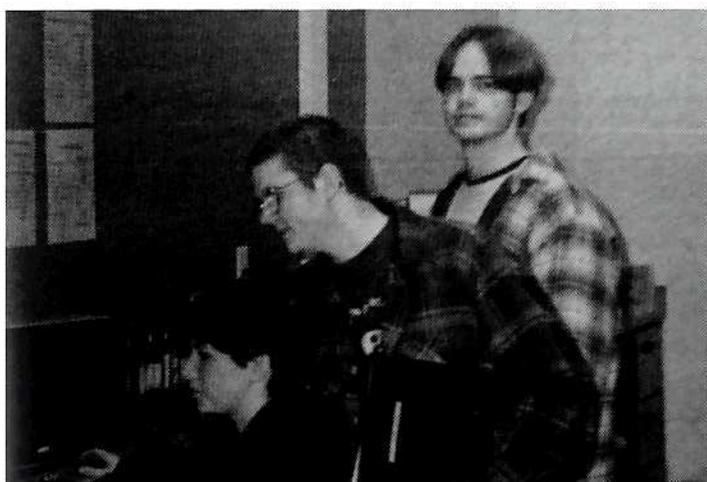

Funkadelic Senior... Matt Beus and advisor Jeff Peltier are hard at work in the A.V. room.

B.B.S. lets students know how movies are produced and shot. It also teaches them broadcasting skills such as: video taping, interviewing, logging tapes, editing and also planning for future stories.

Gadgets Galore...

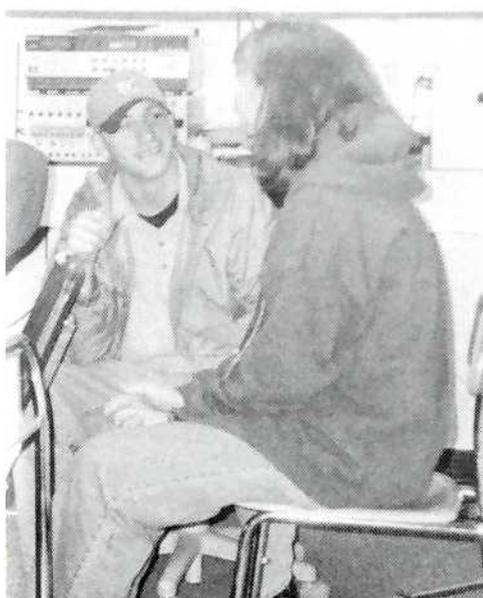

Mr. Peltier is continually fine tuning the BBS toys.

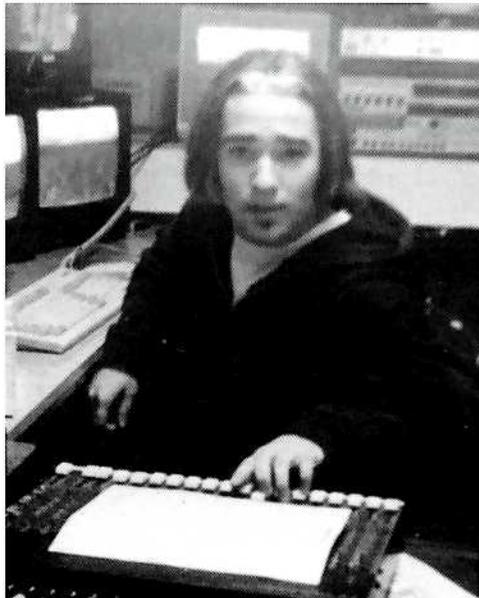

You do it like this... Chad Carpenter, somewhat famous for his take charge disposition, gives direction to Emily Mould. Ben Miller looks a little bored with the situation.

Hard at Work, Or... Seth Wagner, Sara Christensen, Miles Malone and Jared Lindberg are saving their energy waiting for the next big news story to happen at THS.

Mackin' in BBS... Mike Strup finds a little to charm Tabitha Wilson as they wait for the editing station.

Remember...Up is louder!!! Matt Burdick reflects on the knowledge learned from a Peltier story.

I think it's this one... Matt Burdick, Cameron Neuman, Bryn Kelleher and Mike Strup use the combined knowledge to figure out which button to push.

Renaissance

Out of the Ashes

This year's Cairn Staff fits in with the theme of Renaissance. With a new staff and new advisor the Cairn Staff had to begin again, not only in teaching us how to produce a yearbook but, also instilling in the staff essentials needed to create an annual that really mattered to the students and faculty. Although it has not been easy they have made it through temperamental computers, as well as printers, missing photographs, and our first deadline! We are truly breaking forth out of the ashes. A lot of extra hours went in to accomplishing the goals in which the Cairn Staff set for themselves. The Cairn Staff hopes that the yearbook has become something that the graduating class of 1997 as well as the graduating classes in the future can look back on fondly.

Talk About Unity?!
From the looks of things the Cairn Staff is pretty tight. The only thing that is missing is Miss Smith. But, her presence can still be felt through her Doc.

The Computer's Working!!!
Mug Editor, Evan Olsen, jumps at the chance to get on a working computer.

Busy, Busy! Cassandra Arellano and Amber Wise put their layouts onto the computer in the mad rush to make the deadline!

Knowledge Bowl

This year's Knowledge Bowl is a relatively young team with the average age of its participants being 9th and 10th graders. Even though, they have pulled through the challenge of inexperience and gotten better with every competition and practice they attended. There were three open competitions this year and a regional competition in Spokane to decide if they would go to the state competition in Wenatchee in March. The Knowledge Bowl members have done quite well this year and made it to the regionals. They have achieved quite a lot and should be proud of the efforts they put into making the Knowledge Bowl better.

Blazers Against Drinking and Driving was a service club. They did numerous things this year to inform students on driving safely. They did such things as handing out pencils, pamphlets, and litter bags. Students were also sent out to go to various elementary schools and talk to the kids about drinking and driving. They also had a mock crash in the spring to show the effects of a real crash caused by drinking.

INTERACT

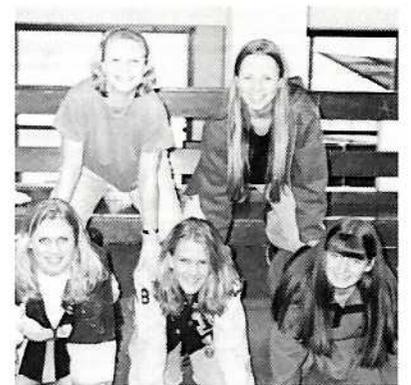

Interact was a Rotary sponsored club whose goal was to provide service for either the community or school. On Make a Difference Day, the club combined forces with the North Thurston club, and took time out of their busy schedules to clean up a local park. The Rotary club provides guidance for the Interact club. Through the club, people develop initiative, leadership skills, and lasting friendships.

The 97 Interact club was one of the largest clubs on campus. Their number helped them to accomplish many of their community service goals.

Cultural Awareness

The Cultural Awareness Club is always one of the largest clubs at THS. This club is an outlet for students to display pride in their own culture and to learn about other cultures. In a world which is still struggling against racism, the Cultural Awareness Club honors diversity and works to make THS a place where intolerance is not tolerated.

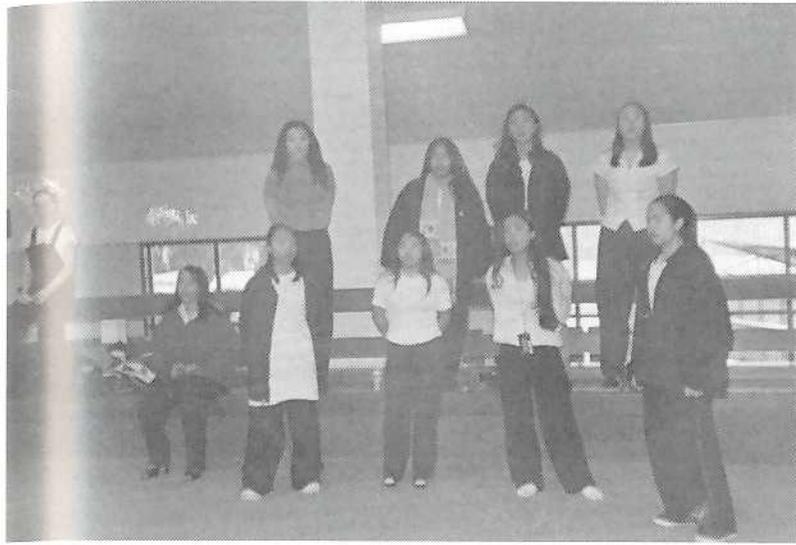

Not only is this club one of the largest clubs on campus, it is also one of the busiest. With activities throughout the year, club members are kept busy organizing and pulling off large events. In the fall, the club sponsored a 5 on 5 Basketball Tournament, which drew a large number of teams made up of THS students. Another annual event for the Cultural Awareness Club is the Martin Luther King Jr. Assembly. This assembly honors the late Civil Rights leader with guest speakers, songs and dancing. Other events this club participated in were the Cultural Awareness Fair and Assembly in the Spring and the BOLD Conference in Pullman.

Cultural Awareness Martin Luther King Jr. Assembly

This assembly was put on by the Cultural Awareness Club at Timberline. The assembly was held to remind us about diversity and living together, and everything Martin Luther King did in his life that effects the way we live today.

First there was a group of people that sang the Black National Anthem "Lift Every Voice and Sing". Ben Dew then gave a short speech. Next, a dance choreographed by Jodona Prigden was performed to the song "112", by Only You. After this, there was a movie on Martin Luther King and black oppression in the 1950's that was done by Marc Farior. Then, to end the assembly, "Lean on Me" was sung by the club.

DECA was involved in many activities, projects, volunteer work, and trips. They put on dances, skating night, fashion shows, laser tag night, and also ran ONE FOR ALL. DECA students had many projects such as Spirit Hats, Banking Day, Safeway Takeover, Supply Our Students, and Voter Registration. Members participated in Adopt a Family and ran a can food drive at Christmas time. They also went on trips to New York and San Francisco.

FOOTBALL

After the horrendous 1-8 record in the 1994-95 football season, the Blazers sought out a new coach, spirit and attitude. In the off season this new attitude came in three big-hearted packages, the McKay's.

Rallied by head coach, Darrin McKay, brother, Mr. McKay, and "Pa" the McKay father, a real feeling of respect and determination was presented to anxious Blazers.

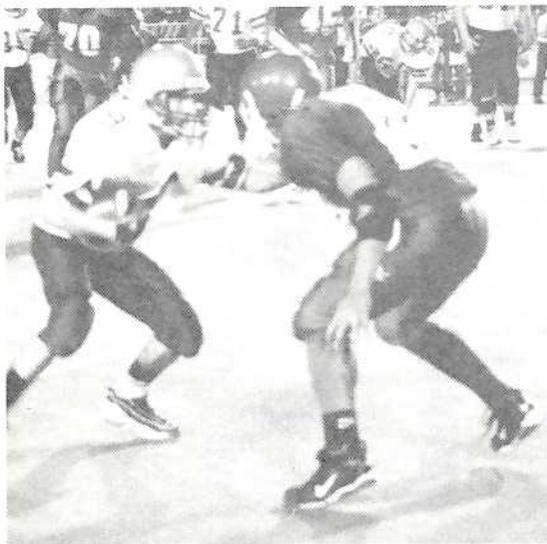

Coach Darrin McKay told us what his main goal was for the 1995-96 season. "Our first year here we want to establish a winning attitude and earn the respect of ourselves and other teams in the Narrows League." The Blazers improved to a 3-6 record and witnessed the emergence of a young quarterback, Steve MacCormac, who would lead the Blazers in the following year through the second phase to build a winning tradition at Timberline.

A positive outlook on the future of Blazer Football was summed up in a few words by Coach McKay: "After we establish the respect, we then have a winning season." That's exactly what the Blazers did this year, improving in every phrase of the game. They finished the 1996-97 football season at a record of 5-4.

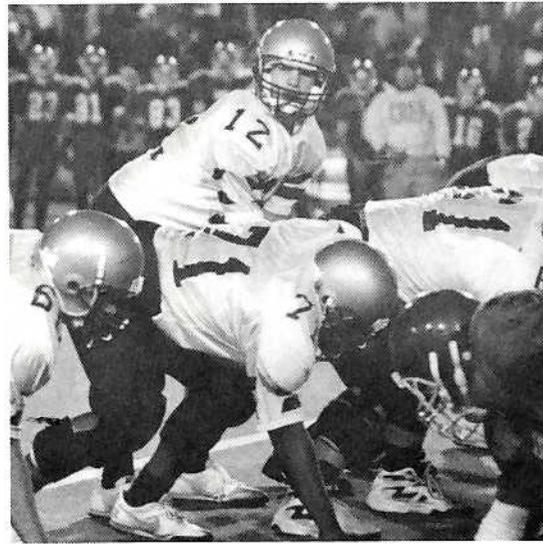

Directed by the strong leadership of senior captains, Justin Worrell, Tony Valerio, Chris Inverso, Shyrod Long, and Matt Jenks, the Blazers took to the field with a "We win together!" attitude. As proof of this new attitude, several players earned post-season all league, area and even all-state honors.

Those who earned all league honors were: Seniors; Justin Worrell (WR), Shyrod Long (OL), Chris Inverso (OLB), and Ryan Truax, who earned an all-league academic award. Honorees from the Junior class were: Steve MacCormac (QB) and Shawn Graham (WR). Also Willy Leiste, sophomore, earned honors as a punter and kicker. Worrell and Leiste also were on the all-area team. Justin Worrell received an all-state honor for his performance at the wide receiver position.

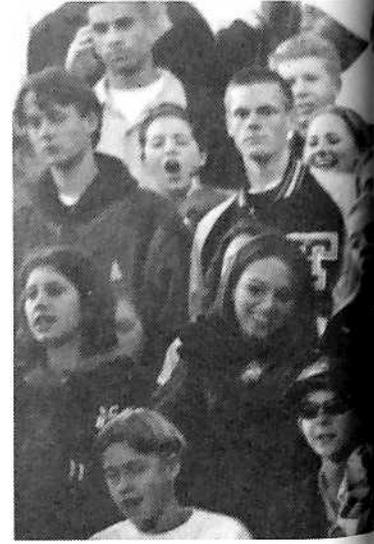

With the passing of this season the Blazer Football Team has a tremendously bright future and could realistically become a perennial power. It must start from the basics and be coupled with the will to work hard and strive to compete against their best selves. In the future, when the captains go out for the coin toss, they will neither call "heads" nor "tails," rather "the edge." It's the edge that makes a great team, working together under strong leadership in order to win.

Powder Puff

Way back when football was just football, the sport here at Timberline started to get a little boring so we found a new way to toss the pig skin. We got some senior and junior girls to come out and rough each other up.

Powder Puff is more than just football, it is a battle between the raging seniors and the undecided juniors. This year the juniors put up a tough fight but the seniors came out with the victory.

Girls Soccer

Soccer is quickly becoming one of this nation's hottest sports. Playing soccer requires stamina, hard work and an attitude. This year the Lady Blazers played in the tradition of all great soccer teams and endured many types of weather. In a season which was unseasonably cold the Lady Blazers set fire to the soccer field. Determination played a large role in the performance of this year's team. To all of the people who were watching on the sidelines, it was evident that this team was ready for anything the Narrows League could kick at them. An example of this determination is the hustle Sarah Martin uses to take the ball from her opponent.

This year's Varsity Girl's soccer team was an unfortunate victim of the rookie annual staff. We would like to express our deepest apologies to those ladies in cleats.

B O Y S T

Tennis is a sport of little words. The sport of tennis requires a big racket per player and one small green fuzzy ball. In the sport of tennis there are either singles or doubles this means one to two people per court side. The object of this game is to hit the ball to your opponent's side of the court and hope he misses it thirty five times or until you reach the score of fourteen love. This year the Blazers played well under the strong leadership of Coach Weston. Like all of THS, the team exhibited a renewed school spirit and desire to win.

Makes a splash

For spending most of their time in a watery environment, these athletes sure had both feet planted solidly on the ground. Even in their chlorinated environment, they remained focused on the task at hand, swimming lap after lap. Their motivator? Coach

CROSS COUNTRY

In a sport that required extreme endurance and dedication, Cross Country runners found time in their busy schedule to race. Despite the size of the team, this "family" of athletes proved that they were not afraid of hard work and discipline by the amount of effort they exhibited.

The underclassmen gained invaluable training advice that prepared them for the fast paced life of a long distance runner. Under the guidance and tutelage of Coach Atwell, and the experience of veteran runners, the team demonstrated their skills this year.

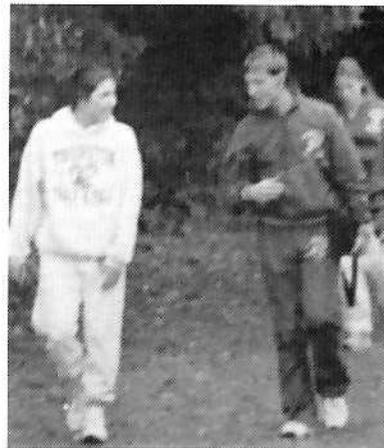

SURVIVAL OF THE QUICKEST...

Narrows League Champions!

Volleyball

The 1996 Lady Blazers volleyball team had a very successful season this year. They had a record of 11-1, winning the Narrows League championship for the first time ever in Timberline history. They accomplished many goals, including beating the cross town rivals, the River Ridge Hawks. They continued by winning the league playoffs, and taking 6th place at districts, only to come one game short of qualifying for state.

This team, small, but successful, was made up by players who each contributed in a different way. The team had players, consisting of three back row specialists, three front row specialist, and three all around players. Along with the hard work and dedication came records and awards. These included: Head coach Phil Ibarra, Narrows League Coach of the Year, Hailey Stevens, Player of the Year, Jolene Stokesberry and Sarah Vagt, first team all league, Alicia Denny, second team all league, Hailey Stevens, career assists record with 1,845, Sarah Vagt, Season record for digs with 303, and Alicia Denny, a record breaking number of blocks with 87.

Girls Basketball

The Lady Blazers have really come a long way this year. With 4 seniors alternating as captians; Meghan Zyggar, Courtney Webb, Kim Hanson, and Kim Eikum. They have been excellent leaders. The Blazers have worked very hard day in and day out and never gave up despite the many tough challenges they were faced with. Many athletes dedicated themselves to the three months of hard work.

The team is young and will grow throughout the upcoming years. The coaching staff consisted of head coach Dena Niles, assistant varsity coach and J.V. coach Don Backman, and C-team coach Valerie Parker. They all teamed up and worked hard to make the program the best that it could be. The Lady Blazer basketball program is up and coming and will be very exciting to watch in the coming years.

Blazer Basketball

This year's basketball teams were stacked with skill and filled with pride. After the tryouts were over we were left with four strong teams who were ready to compete in the Narrows League. All four teams pulled things together and played well.

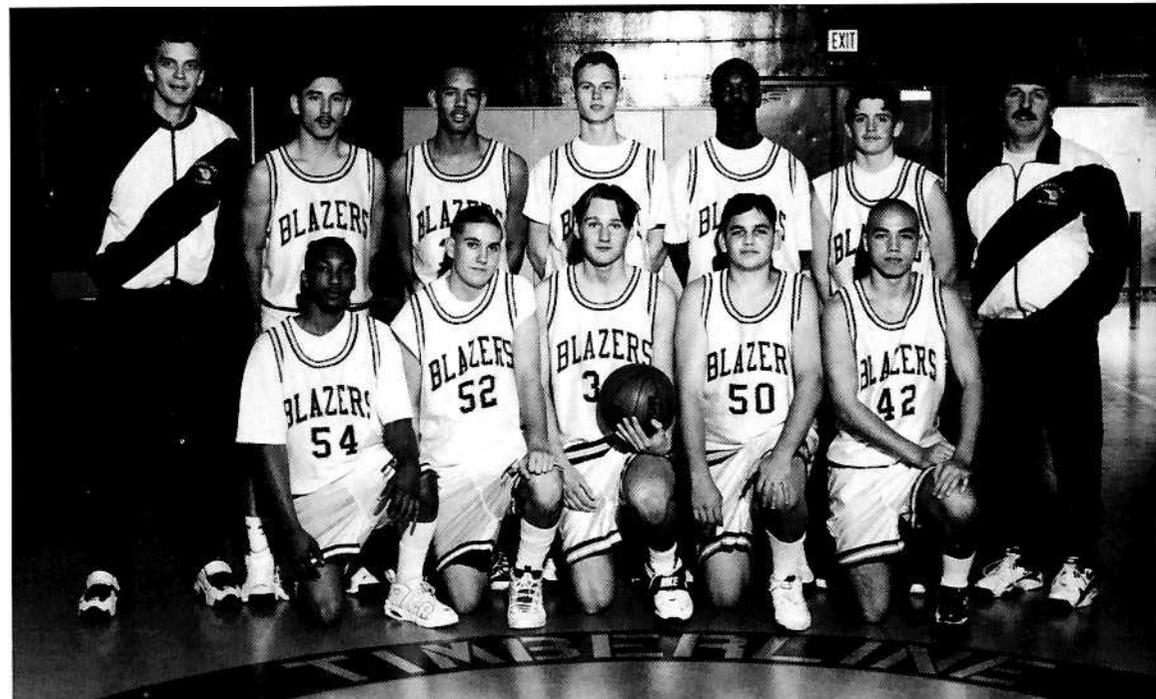

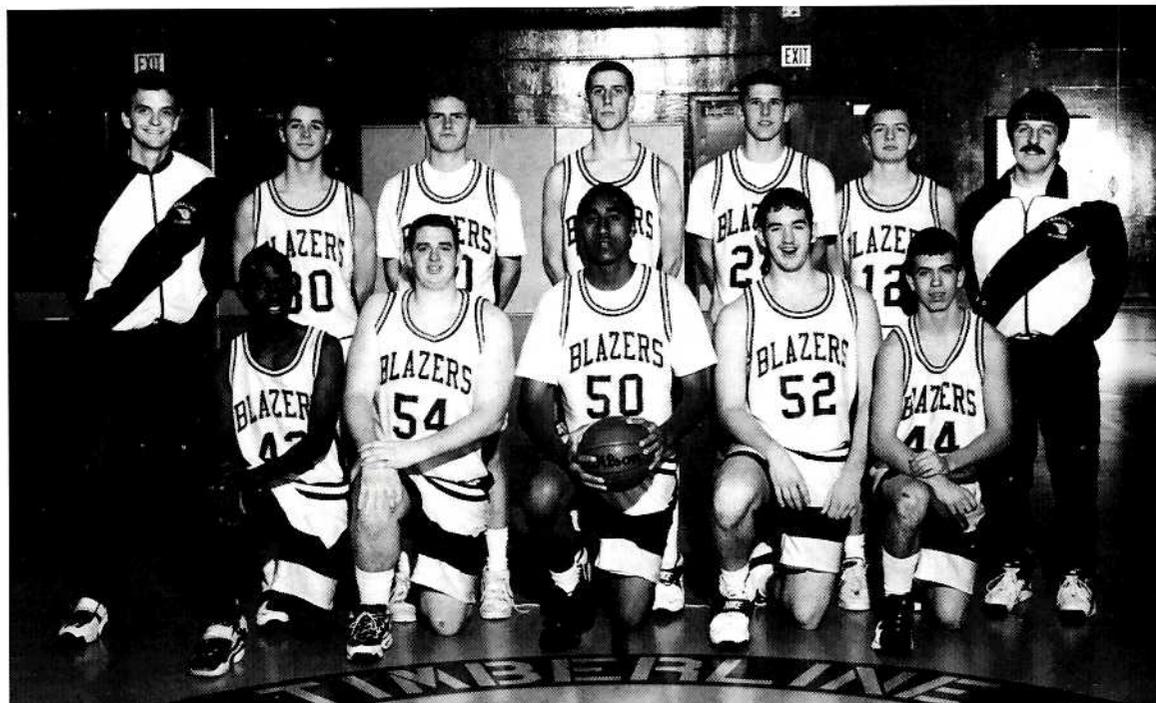

The large turnout of fans and the spirit of the cheerleaders made every game a regular Friday night activity. This year there were more fans than in the previous years.

This year at the half way point of the season the varsity team had already won more games than all of last season combined..

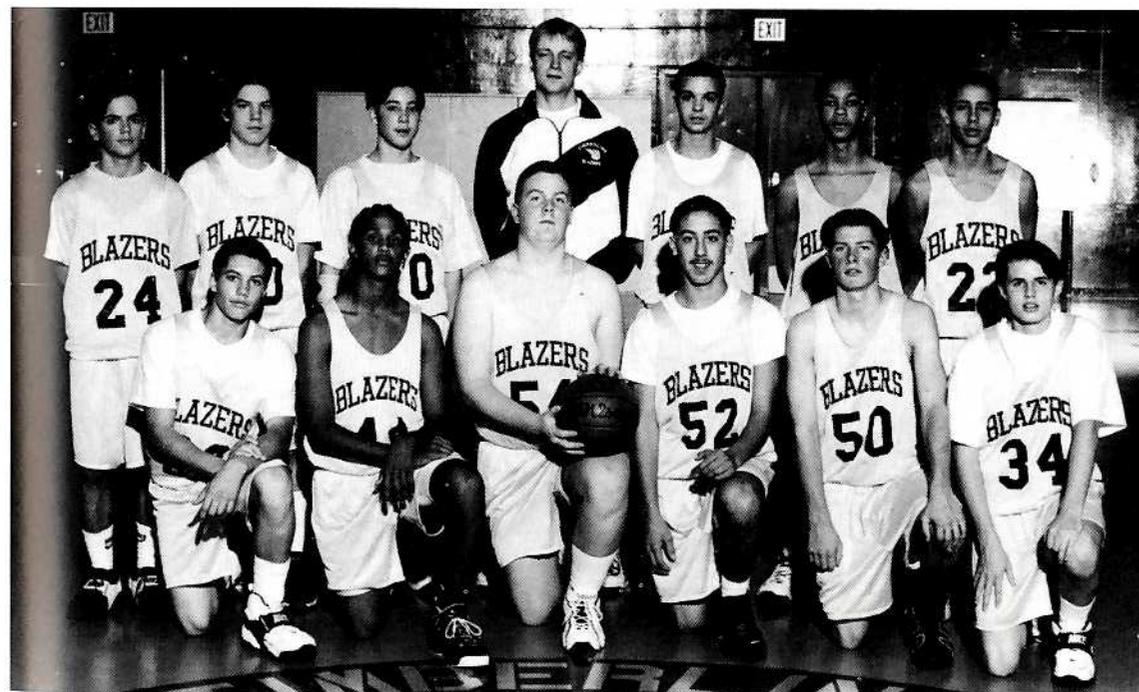

So many people, so few spots... This year there was an excellent turnout for the boys basketball tryouts. The only problem was there wasn't as many spots. Here are just some of the future Blazer b-ball stars.

Wrestling began a new chapter this year at Timberline. There were no seniors on the team and many new faces appeared on varsity. Matt Smith, wrestling at 135, Josh Linder, wrestling at 101, and Cameron Newman, wrestling at 129, had an exceptionally good year, they were big crowd pleasers for every match. The whole team showed talent, achievement, and determination to win.

On junior varsity Toni McComack was the only girl. She practiced with the guys and wrestled against other girls in the league. She proved that strength is a characteristic in both guys and girls.

Jeff Birbeck brought much encouragement to both the new and experienced wrestlers. The coaches pushed the wrestlers in the winning direction.

Kevin Hurley, weighing 141, and Mike Lafors, weighing 190, also brought many crowds and proved to have improved from the years before.

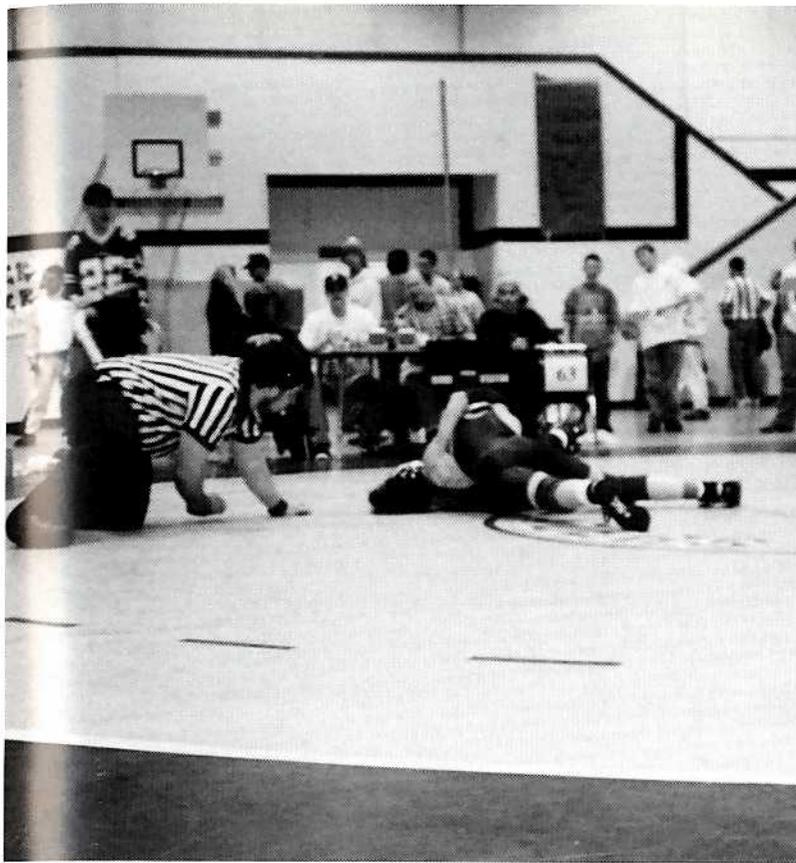

There was a lot of excitement at all the tournaments and matches in which Timberline was involved in.

GIRL'S TENNIS

Over the net and in the

The 1997 Girl's Tennis Team consisted of girls who were dedicated to the team and their own improvement. All the girls were enthusiastic about playing a sport that they so much enjoyed. Each girl made herself a goal to reach before the end of the season. In the end they all succeeded in reaching those goals.

Many new members made up this year's team, as well as their new coach Diane Weston. Old members included Marny Dickson, Amy Turner, Amy Bakotich, Tiffany Bass, Lydia Miller and, Julie Strote. Once again they were a learning team who improved with every match.

BOYS Soccer

Timberline's Soccer team began the season with anticipation and determination. Everyone seemed fired up and ready to start a winning season. BLAZER BASEBALL

Good form...
Matt Lind shows the camera exactly how he is going to hit .400 for the Blazers this year.

Who's this guy...
Scott Rinear and David Oas start to wonder why Kevin Gubbe has been selected as a varsity player.

In the locker...
Matt Lind listens to Bob Fair tell of how he plans to call his shot during a game this year.

This year the Blazer Baseball team entered into the regular season with much confidence. Leading the charge was Timberline's second year coach, Gary Larson. When asked about the season Coach Larson replied, "If we play catch and stay mentally tough, there isn't a team that we can't beat."

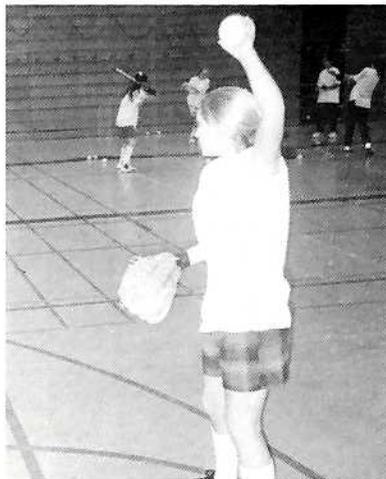

For the Seniors, this was one last year in the sun. A last time to enjoy baseball as a high school student/athlete. And as for the underclassmen, they can be sure that their baseball education is in good hands, with all of the Seniors and coaches at Timberline High School.

Throwin heat...
Mark Turner warming up his arm before the game.

The 1997 fastpitch team had many improvements and new editions. These new young editions made a big difference to the team. This change helped them throughout the season as they challenged South Kitsap and North Thurston for the league title. The coaching staff consisted of Varsity Head Coach Wayne Hardy, J.V. Coach Steve Ripley, and C-team Coach Dena Niles. Though next year many good players will be lost. This team is young and will continue on its tradition of winning seasons.

Playing Catch...

The Fast Pitch...

Pre-Game Gathering...
The Varsity team gets dressed and gathers all of their equipment to get ready for the game.

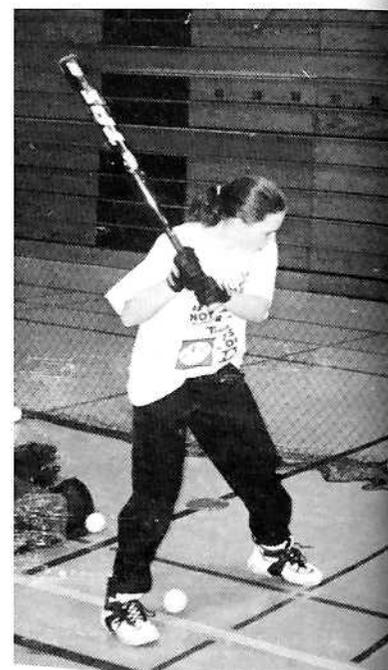

Waiting For The Pitch...
Melissa Smith catches while a pitcher warms up.

Rained Out...
The teams plays catch inside because of soggy fields.

Batting Practice...
Hailey Stevens hits soft tossed balls to practice hitting.

J.V. and C-Team: In Alphabetical Order: Monica Adams, Jenean Bracken, Stephanie Daniell, Kim Eikum, Amanda Johanson, Megan Jones, Stellarae Laughead, Athena McComack, Elena Menardi, Jessica Pagnotta, Sara Pursley, Jenilee Richardson, Jessica Richardson, Ufi Sakaria, Crystal Snyder, Juliana Wattig, Allison Worrel, Julie Wright, Marissa Zygar.

Golf "Hole in One"

The THS golf team just came off a very successful season, and returning players were very optimistic about this year's season.. Last year's freshman standout, Brandon Ray, had some big goals for the upcoming season. "I want the team to have a winning record and I want to win state," Ray said.

The team only lost two seniors from last years team: Bryan Ray and Ben Tichenor, but both were vital parts of the team.

Last years team only dropped two matches, tying for second in the Narrows League. They sent five players to districts: Brandon Ray, Ben Tichenor, Jared Gray, and Bryan Ray, sending Bryan Ray to state.

The girl's golf team was strong this year with returning sophomore Christina Foppiano. The girls team was inexperienced last year, but with lots of off-season practice they were a threat.

This year was Coach Parson's last year as coach and after 26 years of coaching the job will be handed to Mr. Geiger. Timberline would like to thank him for all of his hard work and dedication. Coach Parson would also like to thank Timbeline for all of their support. Thanks Coach Parson.

Top Row: Eric Brave, Zack Beus, Justin Hartwell, Brad Wardenburg, Justin Olson, Camron Jorgensen
Middle Row: Bree Leehan, Mark Grey, Kevin Hurley, Todd Backman

TRACK & FIELD

Timberlines 1997 track team was small in numbers but big in determination. The coaches main emphasis this year was not on just winning the meet, but for every team member to set goals for themselves and by the end of the season for them to meet those goals. These goals help the athletes improve with every race and make the team more successful. This shows that Timberline athletes have more to reach for than just winning.

COLLECTIONS

Everyone's got weird things they collect over the years. Whether it's spoons, stickers, stamps, etc. collections are a part of our lives and they makes us unique. Collections can bring back memories of our childhood or reveal quirky personality traits.

Collection - The accumulation of any one type or style of an artifact.

Ms. Madjdi has a little over fifty nutcrackers. Her collection started when her grandmother gave her a nutcracker right before she died. That particular nutcracker is over fifty 40 years old. Ms. Madjdi has been collecting for about ten years. Her collection ranges anywhere from the actual nutcrackers to singing Christmas tree ornaments.

Celeste McDonald collects Sylvester the cat. Her collection consist of stuffed animals, mugs, slippers, blankets, posters, and a homemade latch hook.

Ms. Hunter collects cows. Her collection consists of mugs, magnets, stuffed animals, salt / peppers shakers, posters scarfs, jewelry, and pictures.

Mr. Atwell has a huge collection of the team Huskies. His collection consists of a 1970 Dawgillac (his Cadillac), over 50 Husky hats, about 15 framed Husky posters, programs from the games, some of their national champion articles, and a number of one of the kind items.

Ms. Pratt has a huge collection of lambs. Her collection consist of posters, pictures, magnets, pencils, toys, knickknacks, ornaments, tissue boxes, wreath, scarfs, napkins, and many flower arrangement.

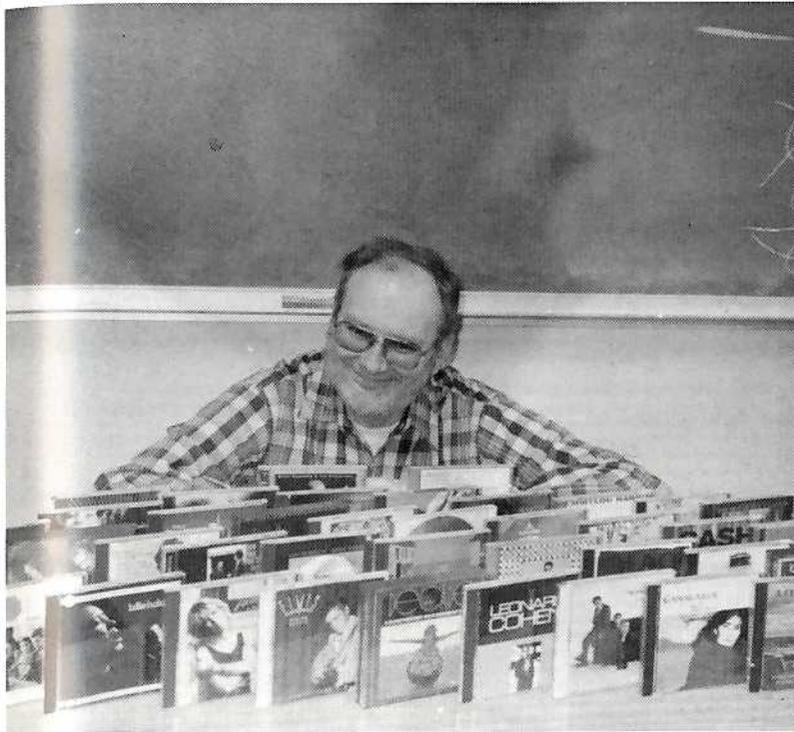

Mr. Peltier has over 4,000 stamps. The stamps dates range anywhere from the 1800's to ther present time.

Marcus McLucus collects anything that has to do with skating. His collection consist of skateboards, Korn picks, and skate videos.

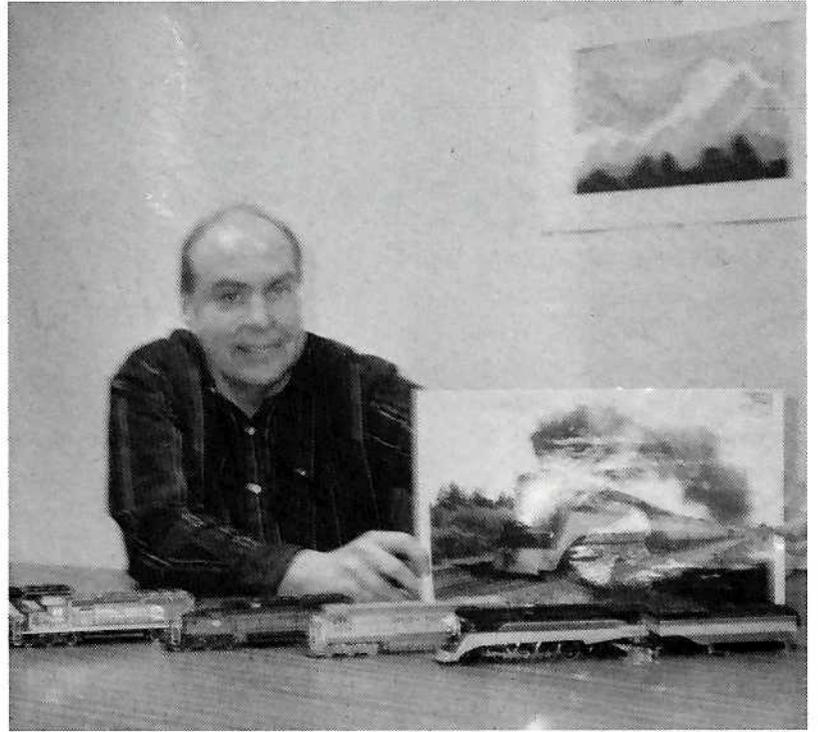

Kemper Vision... Phil Price guards his 200+ Thomas Kemper rootbeer bottle cap collection.

C.D. God... Mr. Compton shows us a glimpse of his vast C.D. collection. Rumor has it that he has about 200 or more at his home.

Kid At Heart...Mr. Humphries shows off his train collection. When not a counselor, he's a train collector for life.

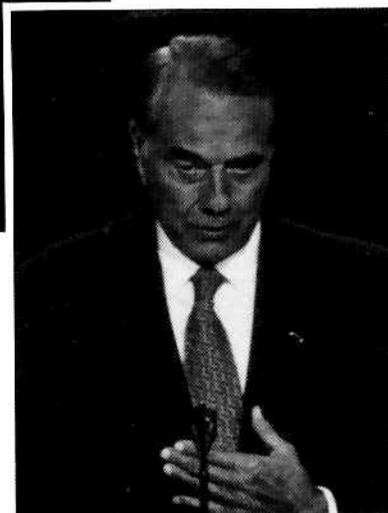

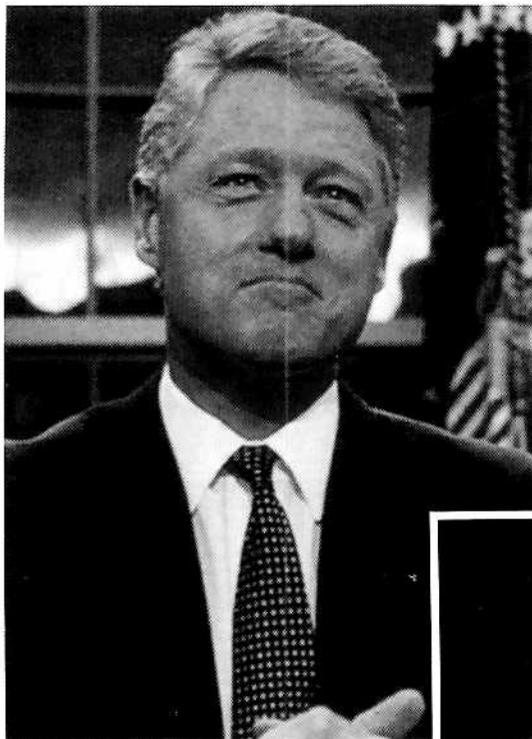

Crazy For Mickey... Marcie Lamboy has been collecting Disney Mickey Mouse forever. She shows us what sort of things she has found to put in her collection.

Whoa, whats that sticking out of her head... Ms. Shigaya shows off some of her hat collection to the Timberline student body.

EVENTS

CURRENT

CAMPAIGN '96

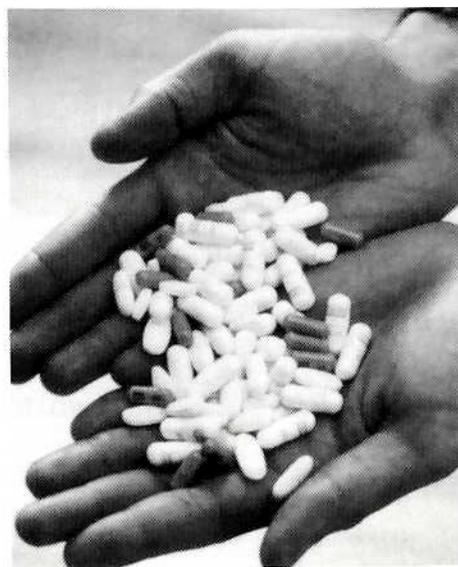

Four more years with Clinton...

Re-elected for his second term, President Clinton is the third Democrat to be re-elected in this century.

The Challenger...

Bob Dole proved to be an interesting opponent for the white house. Only time will tell if we've seen the last of Dole.

The events of our ever changing planet continue to shape and influence the lives of us all. The next two pages give evidence to the fact that the scene of our world is always changing. The key, however, may be to step back and learn from our current events, discovering a piece of our time period to carry on into the future.

Medical Breakthroughs

An end to AIDS in our future?!

Potential new drugs give America new hope. Over the past decade FDA has approved nine drugs to help combat the AIDS virus. Though no drug is very effective by itself, certain three drug combinations have had response for long periods of time. The onset of AIDS is compared to an assembly line. Certain drug combinations can block the assembly line from continuing but within a matter of time the HIV produces billions of genetically varied offspring. The drugs can attack a few, but inevitably some survive and push the assembly line further. Scientists hope to develop a new class of drugs called, integrase inhibitors, which can add more obstacles. The road to ending AIDS is still long and treacherous. The drugs are very expensive and not everyone can take them. The biggest news of all is that the hope of fighting and possibly eliminating the AIDS virus could be a reality.

188 DAYS IN SPACE...

Mission specialist, pilot, and mother of three, Shannon Lucid spent 188 days in space on the Atlantis. Lucid, one of NASA's first female astronauts, graduated from NASA in 1978. She not only broke records for the most time spent in space, she also expressed true grit and determination. The 53-year-old astronaut logged almost 400 hours on the stationary bicycle and treadmill aboard Mir, the Russian space station, attempting to prove there was no reason for this long flight to leave her temporarily crippled.

Mysterious Gulf War Sickness...
Gulf veterans all over the US have been experiencing unexplained health problems. Around 4,000 troops out of the 22,000 who have been studied so far, seem to fit these strange symptoms. The Pentagon has conceded that troops may have been exposed to nerve gas when Iraqi arms were blown up. The search continues to go on to determine what the exact cause of this bizarre ailment is, five years after the war has ended.

Some of the many methods Blazers used to relieve their tensions of school during the weekend, were the ever popular entertainment mediums of film and music. Despite the more productive things students could have been doing, Blazers attended movies in record numbers to avoid doing any kind of school work. For those in search of the intense rush that only a suspense flick can bring, "Ransom" and "Scream" proved to be the ultimate adrenaline high. The fast paced action of "ID4" and "Star Wars Trilogy Special Edition" satisfied the adventurer in everyone, where as those seeking entertainment from movies with the sentimental aspect, watched "Jerry Maguire" or the tragic "Romeo and Juliet".

In the music world, R&B artists, Blackstreet, busted the billboard charts, selling record numbers of albums, and the late Tupac released a new album under the pseudonym Makaveli, much to the delight of west coast rappers. 14 year old LeAnn Rimes, thrilled country fans with her Patsy Cline-style singing, where as Gwen Stefani amazed Alternojunkies as the energetic lead singer for No Doubt by demonstrating their unique blend of music. Reel Big Fish, ska band out of Southern California, debuted late August last year, with their cheerful melodies that make you want to get up and skank. In the true definition of a fad, the Macarena taught us all a very important lesson... not everyone should get on the dance floor and shake their hips.

Meanwhile, in other areas of blissful commerce, $10,000 for a Tickle Me Elmo, showed the absurd lengths people are willing to go to in order to appease their spoiled children. Come on people, it's a toy. Get over it !!! Here's a look back at those things that occupied the time of students while they were supposed to be doing their homework, and made 1996-97, for better or worse, a year to remember.

Student Standouts 1997

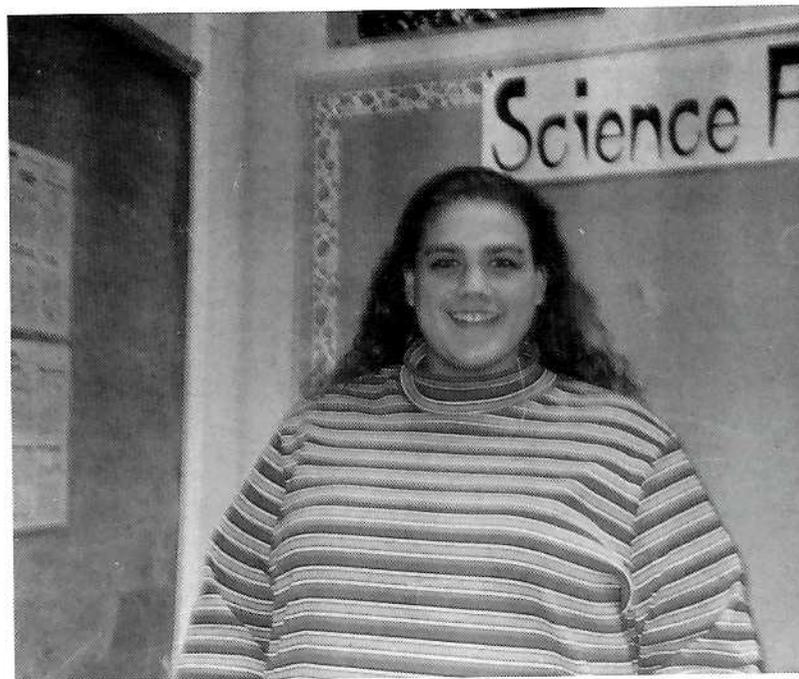

A singing success...

Bree Kramer participates in many of Timberline's theater productions. She played Ms.

Huckle Bee in the "Fantasticks" and the Ghost of Christmas Present and a Bogle in "Jacob Marley's Christmas Carol." She went to all Northwest and State for her outstanding singing ability.

The over achiever...

Chris Inverso is a full time Running Start student, DECA state officer, and Varsity Football captain. He was a nominated for the Narrows League Scholar Athlete Award. He also volunteers for Habitat for Humanity and balances a job!!!

The talented...

Hailey Stevens, was voted Narrows League Player of The Year, and nominated for the Narrows League Student Athlete Award. She was the Volleyball Team captain, and Senior Class Secretary. She also volunteers her time for the Levy committee. She participates in Ski Club, and has a 3.7

"A Few Good Blazers"

The Multi-talented...
Melissa Barkley participates in Track, Soccer, Teen Council, and has a 3.68 G.P.A.. She is the Senior Class President, an H.I.V. Educator, and participates in Leadership activities. CONGRATULATIONS on being excepted to University of Washington!

Ms. 1997 Thurston County...
Lauren Bacon was voted most talented 1997 senior she teaches ballet for Lacey Parks and Recreation, and is a teacher at Debbie's Dance. She participates in student council, and is a T.H.S. representative for First Youth Summit.

Here she comes....
Ms.Olympia, Arianna Franklin is an athlete at T.H.S.. playing basketball and softball. She represents our school well with her outstanding smile.

What do marshmallows, snot, and ambulances have in common?

They are all a part of the new staff's high school horror stories!!!

Well how many people can say they were running lines in P.E. and tripped over one?

That's gross!!!

Thats nothin' I was checking out library books when I sneezed and snotted over everything!

Once I was called down for the class competition and had to play Chubby Bunny.

Hee Hee!

How do you Trip over a line?

In front of the whole school?

That's really embarrassing!

You think thats bad try being a senior asking out a Sophomore and getting turned down.

Talk about embarrassing I was taken away in an ambulance...because I ran into the volleyball net!

Who is Who?

Although they all admit to having some sibling rivalry, for the most part these Blazers are happy to have a brother or a sister to share the triumphs and tribulations of the high school experience.

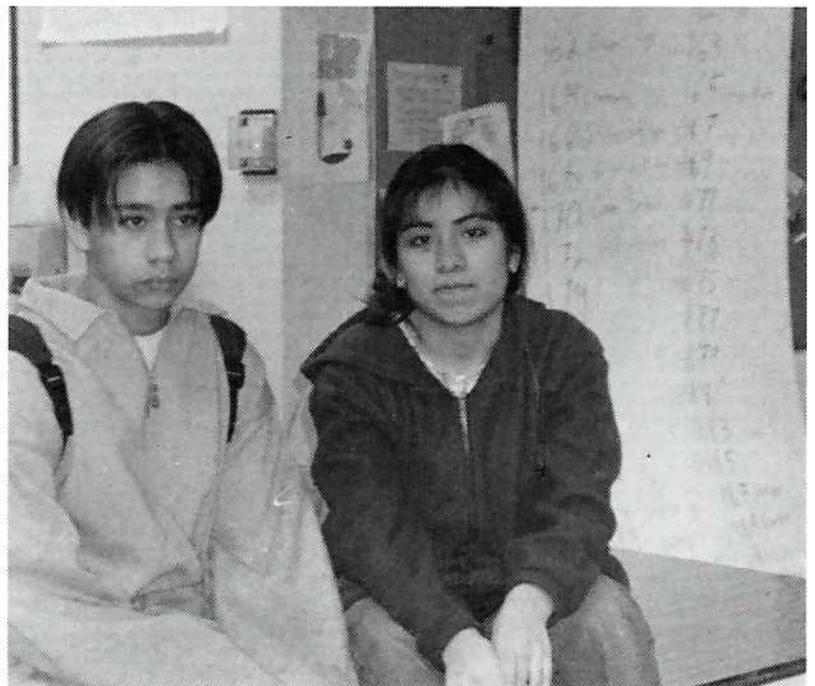

Hold me...
John Fuhrman is holding his older brother Mike.

Smile...
"Clevinger girls" are what we call Becky and Charity on the annual staff.

I've got you now...
Reagan Truax has her brother Ryan in a head lock.

Bored...
Monica and Julio Aguinaga stare mindlessly into the camera.

TIMBERLINE THEATRE

A PROUD TRADITION!

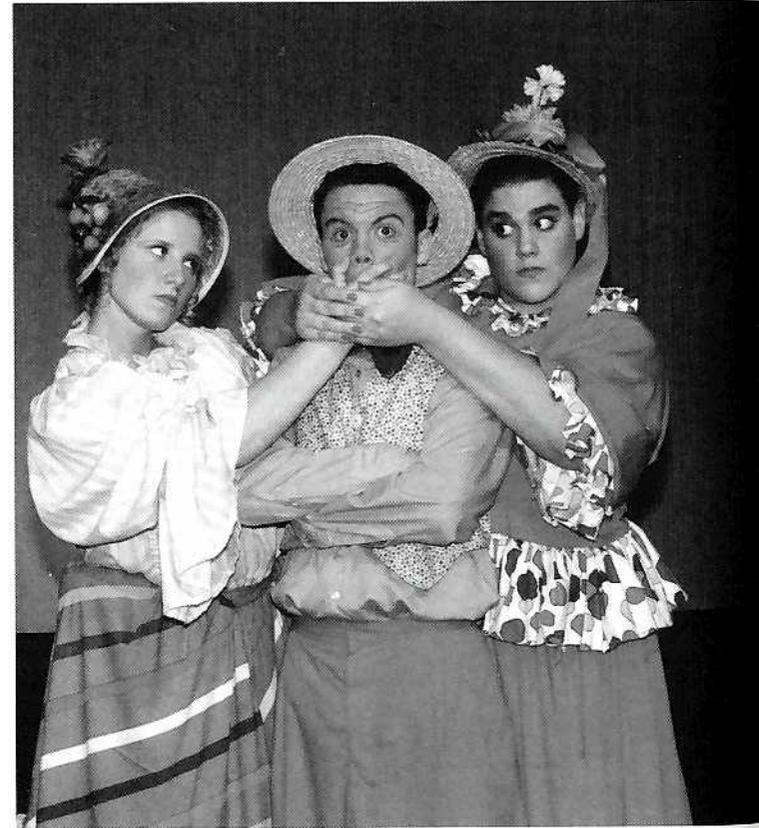

For 21 years, Jeff Kingsbury has appeared on stage. Both as an actor and as a director.

Jeff brings a lively and positive attitude to Timberline this year. Our first taste of Jeff's work was in the Christmas musical, "Jacob Marley's-A Christmas Carol." This year, Jeff put an exciting twist on the production, where Jacob Marley took center stage, and we (the audience) learned why Mr. Marley helps his old business associate, Mr. Scrooge, change his miserly ways.

And how has Jeff's experience at Timberline been? "I love Timberline!" states an enthused scholar of the theatre, Mr. Jeff Kingsbury.

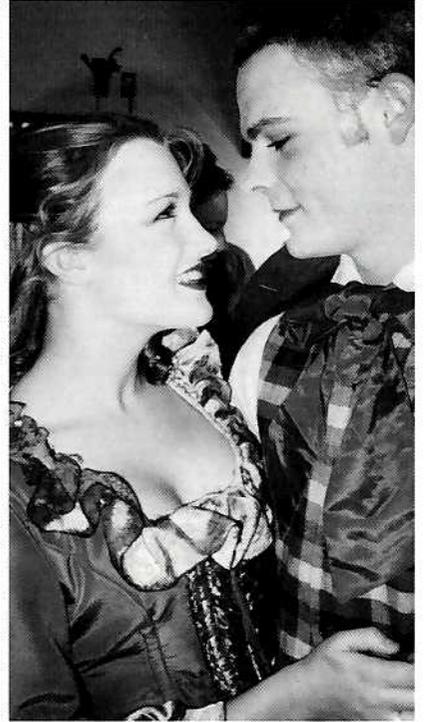

WHEEE!!!...The Ghost of Christmas Past, escorted by the Bogles, shows Mr. Scrooge that it is true, mortals can fly!

SHHHH!... After hitting a sour note, Bree Kramer and Joy Burton put an end to the audience's pain!!!

GOTCHA... Director Jeff Kingsbury jumps out of the scenery and scares Bogle, Josh Taylor.

Touche'!...Our hero saves his true love from the evil clutches of the nasty villian.

Community

The spirit of giving...
Every year Timberline collects canned food and toys for children and families in our area who don't have the means to provide these things for themselves. This montage of toys and games reveals how compassionate Timberline students can be.

THS behind the scenes...
A lot of hard work from ASB officers, faculty, staff, and preparation from dance team and cheerleaders goes into producing a quality assembly. At Timberline we have all of the above. Timberline ASB members, Josh Robischon and Phil Price, disassemble the sound equipment after another exciting assembly.

A devoted faculty...
Timberline is very fortunate to have a faculty and staff so dedicated to their jobs. Mr. Coffing gives his undivided attention to Kelly Walsh, helping her to successfully accomplish her project.

Pride around campus...
Mr. McCracken's students built this quaint wraparound bench. Little things like this are what makes Timberline a great place to be.

A positive influence...
What a clown! Josh Taylor certainly is a great role model for these two trick or treaters at THS's Halloween setup.

Unity & Pride

Someone to lead the way... Shannon Stone conducts the band at a game in South Sound Stadium. You can see the crowd behind her there supporting THS.

Talk about spirit?! Ms. Parker, Mr. Wilson, and Ms. Shigaya show their Blazer pride with their wacky wardrobe.

I LOVE THIS TEAM!

The Lady Blazers certainly have our united support! Mr. Birbeck, Mr. Clark, Mrs. Froelich, and Mrs. Kinley all gather after an assembly to show a little THS pride.

All the way...

The THS dance team gets the crowd all pumped up with their halftime routine. United together the Blazers go all the way!

Student Art

Roaming through the halls of THS may be the next Picasso,
Dali or O'Keefe.

By Marcus McLuras, a sophomore. He calls it "Life is Peachy".

By Fatima Aboutalep, a senior.

By Jim Kapler, a sophomore.

By Raymond DiGiacomo, a junior. He calls it, "Problems"

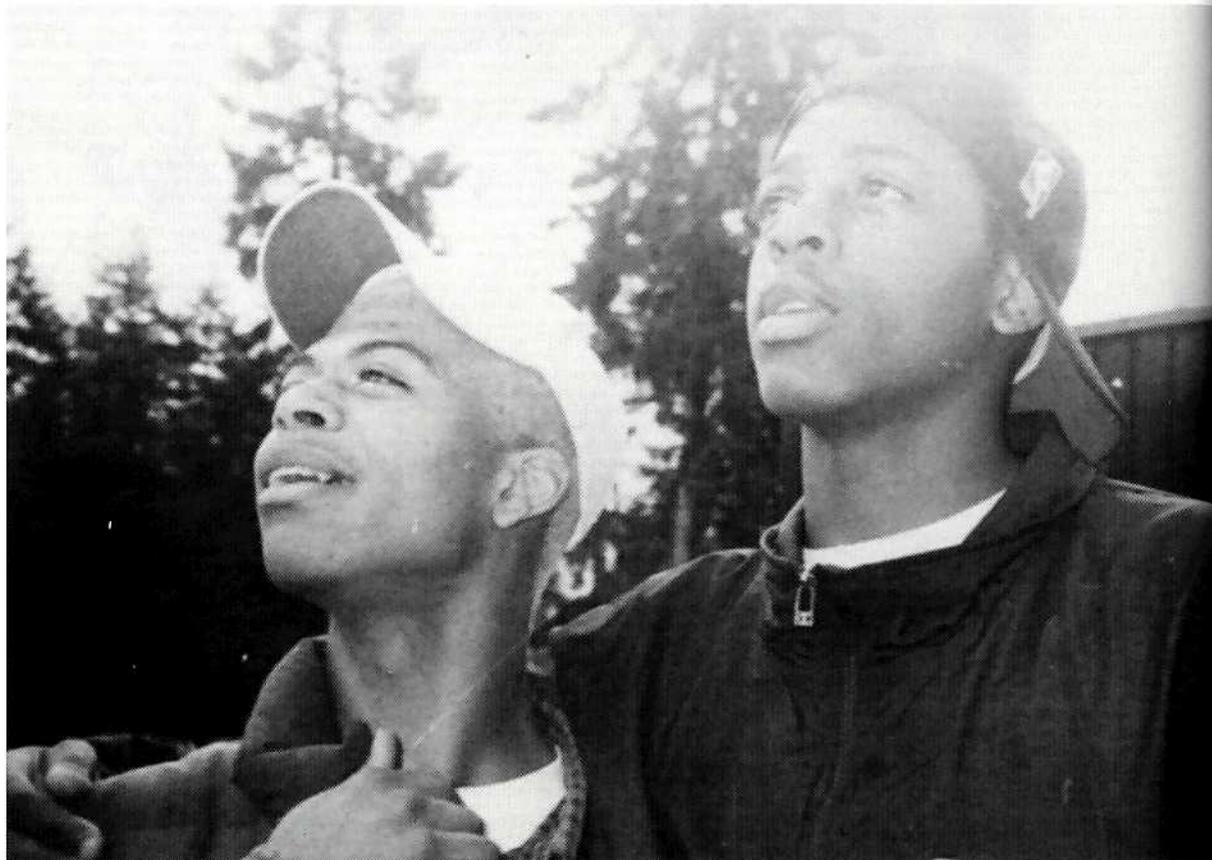

By Carina Merseburger, a junior. She calls this, "Japanese Dancer"

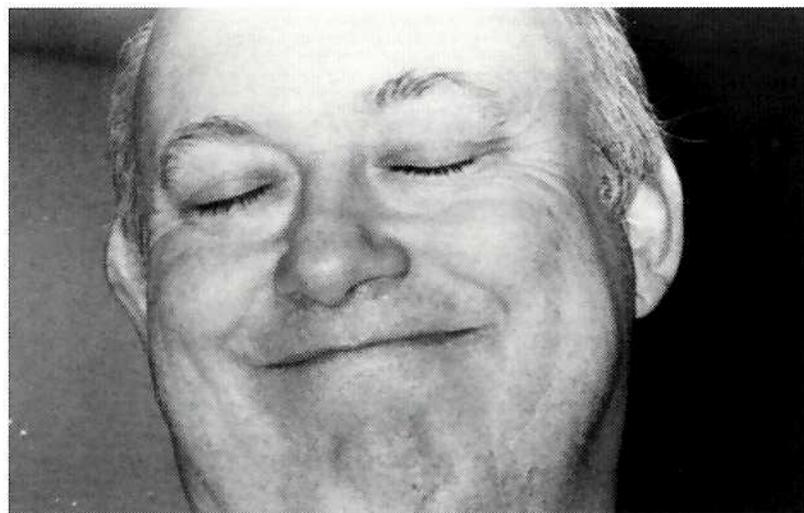

By Michael Spencer, a sophomore. He calls it, "Scream"

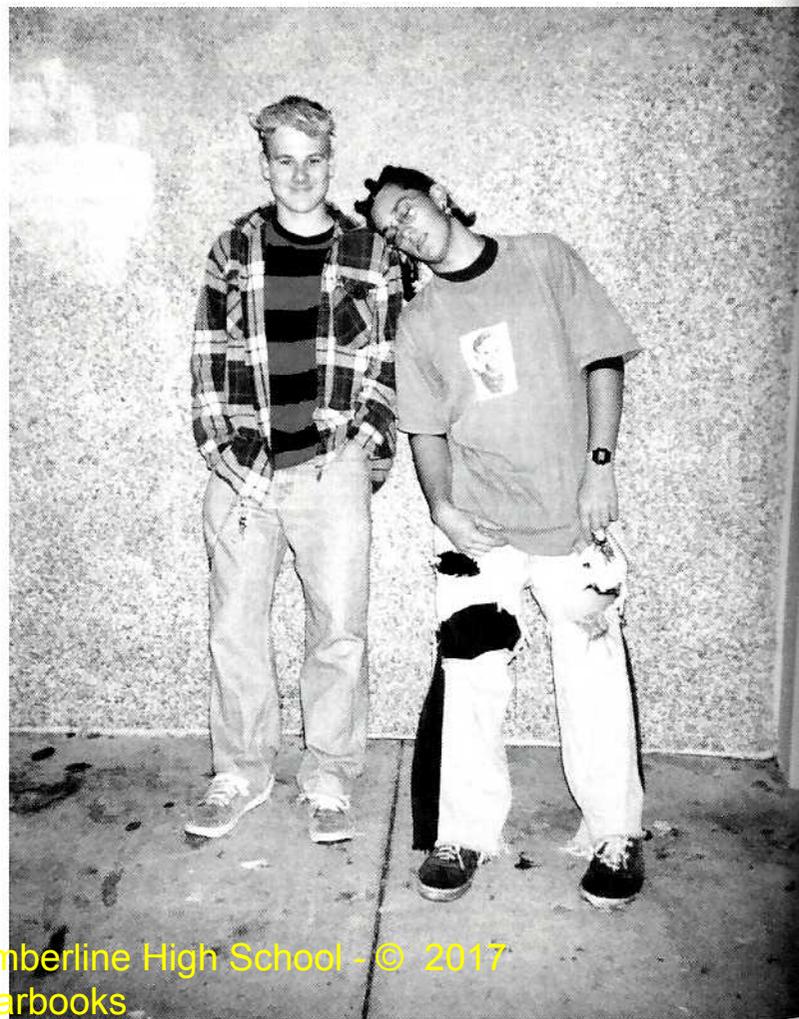

Say Cheese!!!

It's Amazing...
Thinks Mike Rutherford and Mohammed Young as they gaze at the beauty of Timberline on a sunny day!

Smile ...
Mr. MacRoberts you're on Candid Camera!

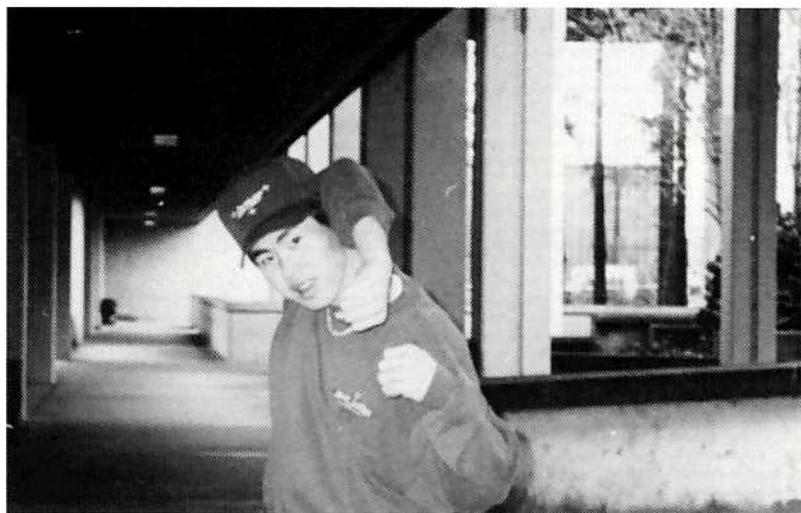

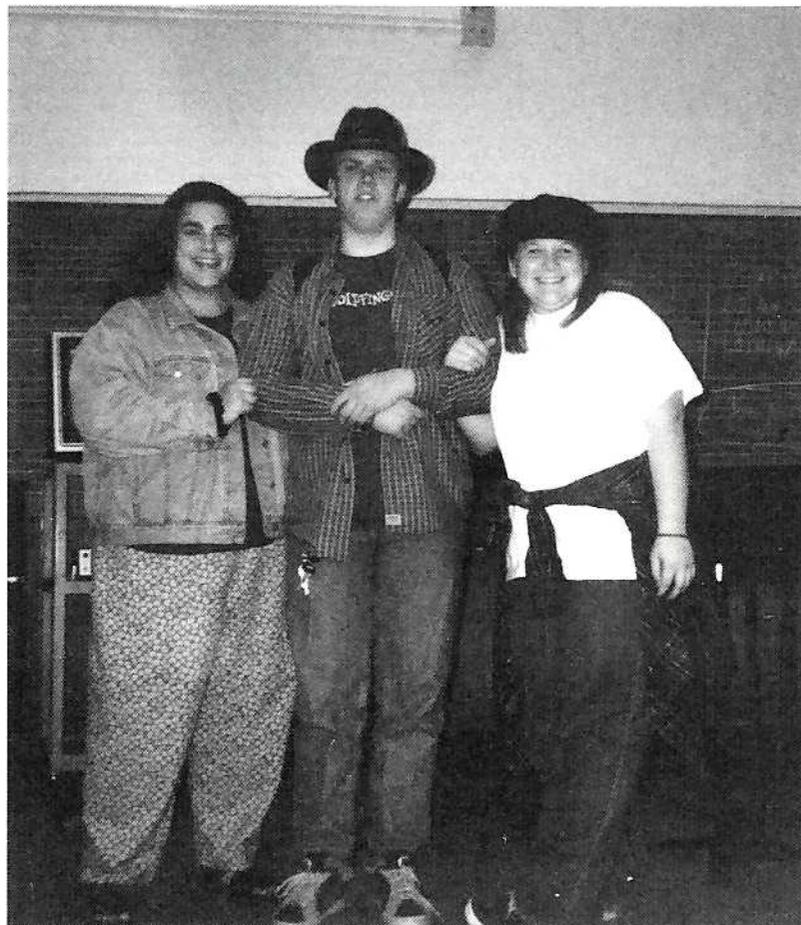

Lean on me...
Tim Lewis lends a shoulder to help Kyle Kennemore catch some Z's!

Where does it go...
Mrs. Madjdi finishes reshelving the reference books the freshmen used in Social Studies.

Friends + Music = ...
FUN!!! Bree Kramer, Jay Sheery, and Julie Redman enjoy expressing their musical talents together!

Chicks dig it...
In an attempt to win the heart of the ladies of Timberline, Bobby Davis performs a stupid pet trick.

Kings for a day...
Dusty Lensing, and Robert Kelly were dressed by the cheerleaders for the Varsity football breakfast at Shari's.

Emily,

*Take another sip my love, and see what you will see.
A fleet of golden galleons on a crystal sea.
Are you sitting comfortably, let Merlin cast his spell.*

*Ride along the winds of time and see where we have been.
The glorious age of Camelot when Guenervere was queen.
Et all unfolds before your eyes as Merlin casts his spell.*

*Seven wonders of the world He'll lay before your feet.
In far off lands, on distant shores, so many friends to meet.
Are you sitting comfortably, let Merlin cast his spell.*

May the dream of Camelot always be in your heart; Truth, justice and all that is good in God's eyes. It is these things that will bring you true joy and peace as you travel life's path.

Marny,

*When you were a little girl, we sheltered you,
 Giving you roots to nourish your strength,
 Teaching you to stand tall, to know right from wrong.
 Holding your hand--yet loosening the grip,

March to your own
 different drummer,
 Look to your own
 shining star,
 Dance to your own
 happy music,
 Know just how special you are.
 Follow the path
 you have chosen,
 Dream
 till your dream
 has come true,
 Climb to the top of your mountain...Keep on believing in you.

BECKY CLEVINGER EVAN OLSEN BREE KRAMER

Congratulations 1997 Cairn Graduates!

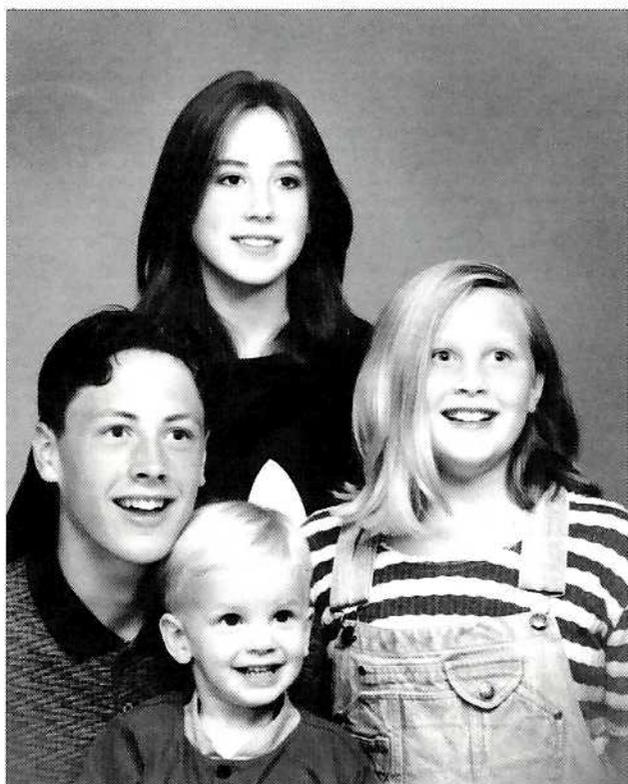

You have made my first year bearable. I thank you for the laughter, the commitment and the patience. You were truly the best guinea pigs a rookie could have had for her first litter.
 You will be missed and praised years after you leave THS.
 Good luck in life. You are all - so cool like that.

David

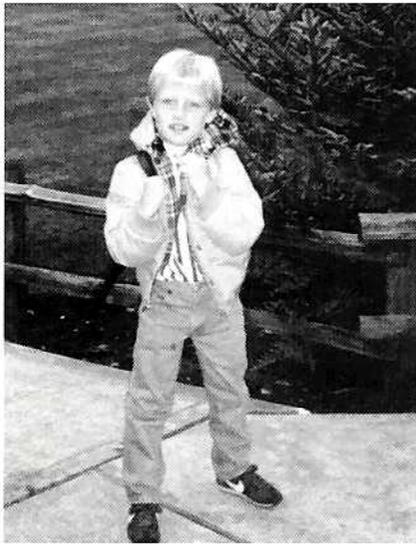

We believe that this quote describes you the best, "Like most self-made men, I am in awe of my creator."

Now it is time for you, David, to go out in the world and finish your "creation". We hope you have a lot of fun. Remember that we will always love and support you.

Love, Mom and Dad

From the day you were born,
to your 1st day of kindergarten,
to your last day of high school.
All your accomplishments in high school,
to all your hard academic achievements.
You have made us extremely proud.
Our bright little boy is a brilliant young man.
We wish you the best! You are a natural leader,
you will succeed in everything you do.

Love you Lots,
Dad and Mom

Reggie Standifer,

For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

Jeremiah 29:11

Next Step: Princeton!!

Congratulations Kim!!

Truly a gift at birth, and even more special at 18.

It's hard to believe that your high school days are already coming to an end. Your thirst for knowledge and drive for perfection is unequalled. We admire and respect you for being the best you could be. You are the best!

We are very proud of you and are truly blessed to have you as our daughter. We love you very much.

Mom & Dad

Becky

Memories bring to mind our little Becky, always full of questions like why your milk goes Algut...Algut when you drink. Now our baby is GRADUATING! We can't express how much joy and happiness you have brought into our lives. We hope you know how very proud we are of you and your accomplishments. Keep reaching out and you will succeed in all you do. Congratulations Becky!

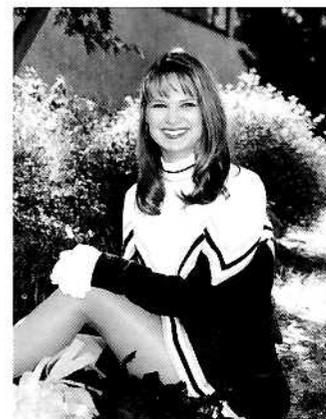

We'll Always Be There For You,
Love Mom and Dad

Lexa,
Who knew when you took your first steps you would want to dance?
Who knew when you started school that you would make the most of it and become the strong beautiful young woman you are today?

You have made us very proud and we know your future will be everything that you want it to be because you have always shown us that "If there's a will, there's a way!"
Love Ya Always,
Dad, Mom & Andy

Beth

Zinny,

Thank you sweetheart for being you, our very own firecracker girl. You will always brighten our days. We are deeply proud of the beautiful young lady you have become. We know you will be successful in life's great endeavor's.

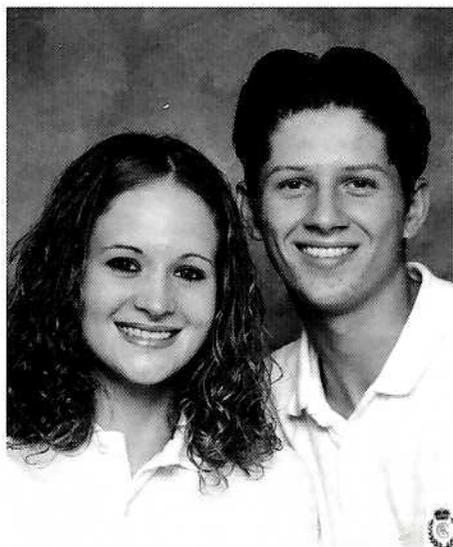

We love you,
Mom, Dad, August, Spence and Craig

A M Y

It seems like just yesterday you were set to leave for your first day of school. You knew just where you were headed... confident, graceful and wise. As you move ahead in your life we know you'll continue to use these wonderful traits to explore, learn, and develop. We love you,
Me-Me!!

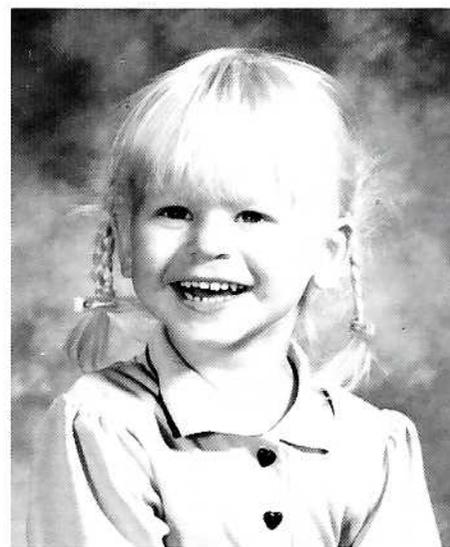

Mom, Dad, Joe & Matt

Mike this is for you, the love of my life.
 You've opened my eyes to so many things. I wouldn't trade it in for the world.
 I love the thought of you and me.
 Again, I just want to say, I love you.
 Let's make more beautiful memories.

Loving you always,
 Celeste

CONCEIVE, BELIEVE, AND ACHIEVE.
 ALWAYS LIVE BY THOSE THREE LITTLE
 WORDS AND IF YOU DO, YOUR DREAMS WILL ALWAYS COME TRUE. YOU ARE
 TRULY A BLESSING IN OUR LIFE. HAPPY
 GRADUATION DIAMOND DAUGHTER!
 LOVE, DAD AND MOM

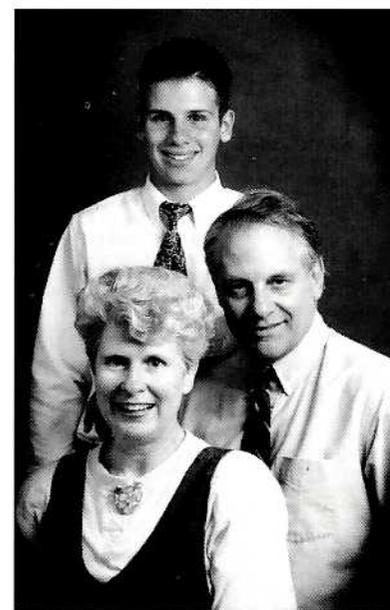

Chris,
 You have been a joy and blessing
 since you were born.

“May the Lord
 bless and protect you.
 May the Lord's face
 shine with joy because of you.
 May He be kind to you.
 May He show you His favor.
 May He give you His peace.”

Numbers 6:24 - 26

We love you as you were, as you are, and as you will be!
 Your proud Mom & Dad

What can I say? You've brought sunshine into my life to brighten my days, no words could describe the warm memories, pride and gratitude that comes from having a daughter like you. You faced everything life handed us with love courage, adaptability and your undauntable spirit. I have no doubt that you will face the rest of your life with the same attitude.

I was blessed when you became a part of my life.
Love and support always, Mom

"Turn around and you're two
Turn around and you're four Turn around and you're a young woman
Going out the door"
So For It, Trish! We love you!!
Mom & Dad

Congratulations.
You made it! I'm proud of you,
Love Josh

Having you for a son has brought immense happiness

Loving you has brought complete joy

But seeing you grow into a man to be proud of is a feeling that no words can describe

Over the years so much has changed...

You're no longer a boy who needs to be watched over and cared for...

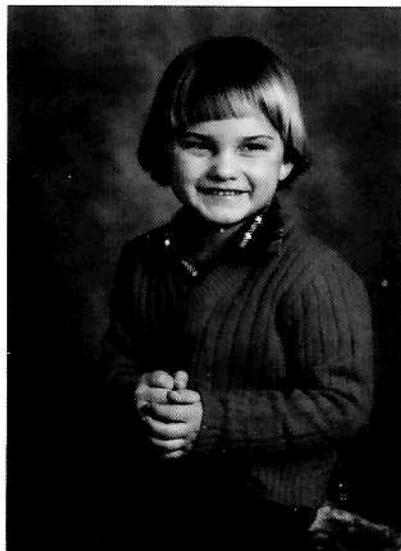

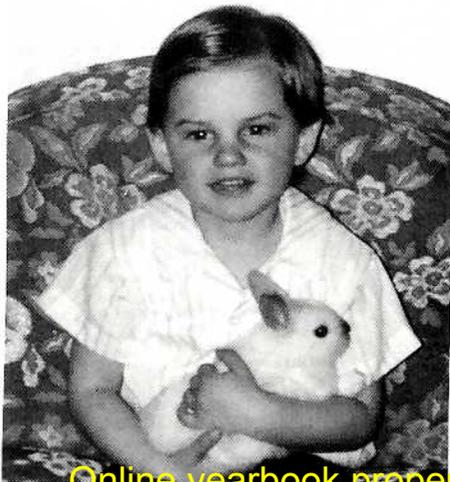

You're an adult now with your own ideas and your own life to live

Always be proud of the decisions you make and be true to yourself

Enjoy this next adventure in your life

Remember no matter what, I'll be there for you

Love Mom

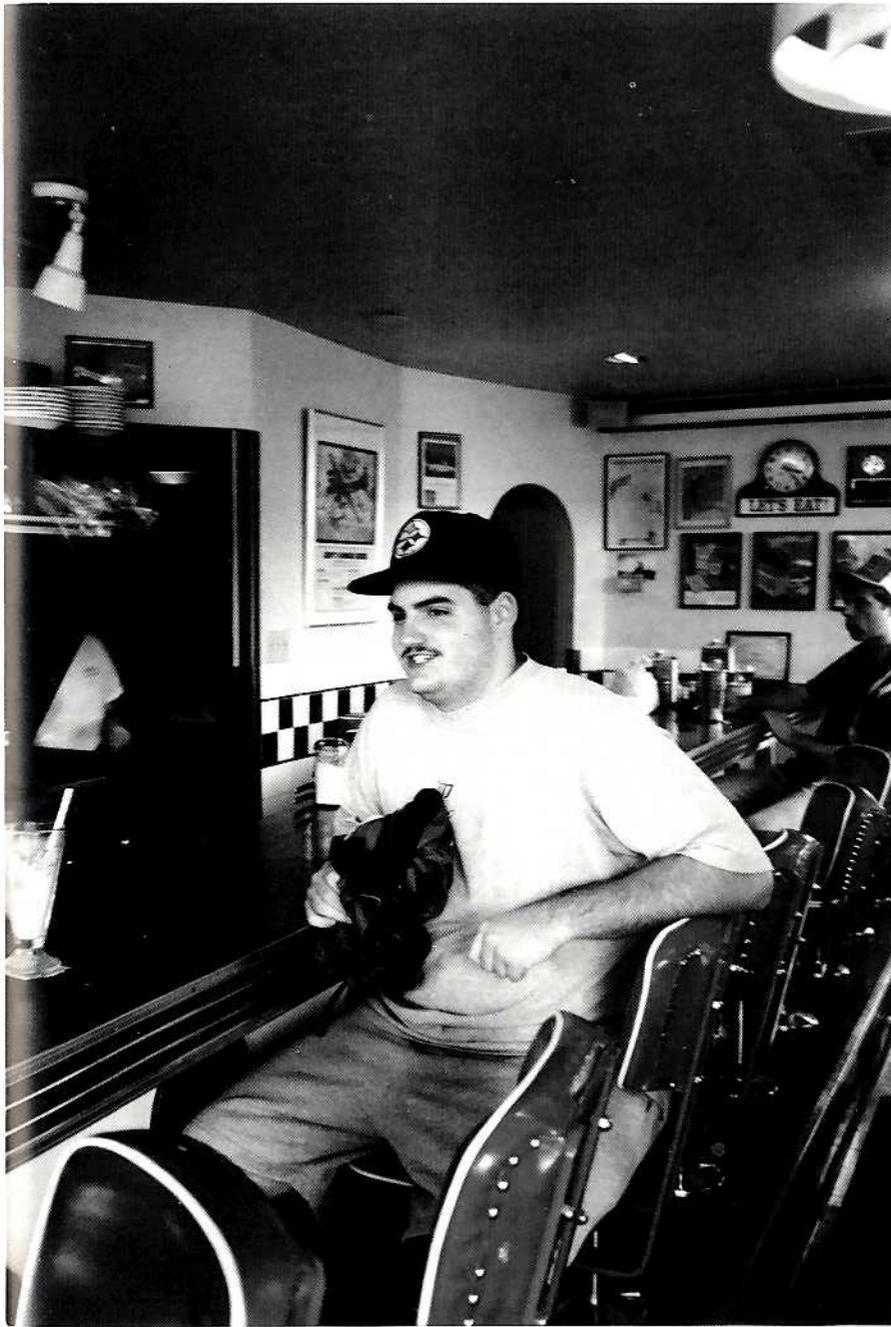

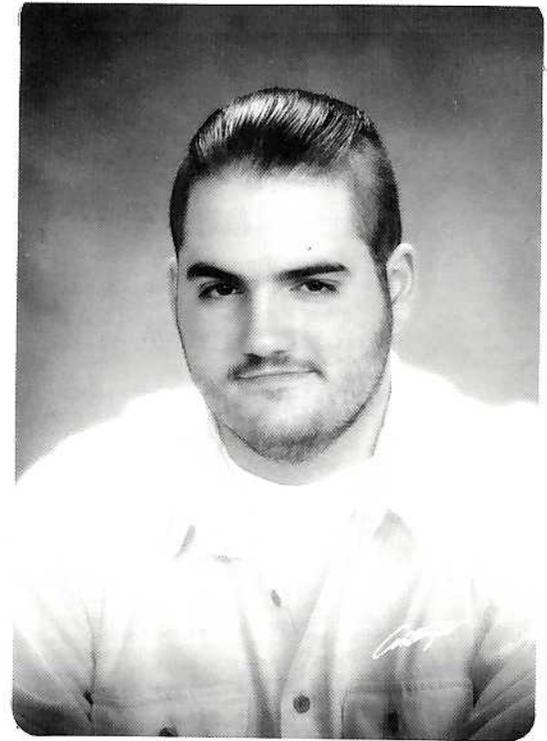

Remember Now Those Years Gone By...

Jared Jacob Zeiler

3 September 1978 - 13 November 1996

Timberline High School
Class of 1997

Lifelong friendships can never be broken. Not one day passes that you don't cross our minds. Jared, you touched many people in your life and your influence will have a great impact on every one of us for a long time to come. We all hope you found your "Paradise City".

Life Must Go On

Grieve for Me, For I would grieve for you,
Then Brush away the sorrow and tears,
Life is not over, but begins anew.
With courage greet the coming years.
To live forever in the past is wrong,
Can only cause you misery and pain,
Dwell not on memories overlong,
With others you must share and care again.
Reach out, comfort those who comfort you.
Recall the years years but only for a while,
Nurse not your loneliness but live again,
Forget not - Remember with a smile.

This picture was then,
graduation is now.
It all went so quickly,
we just don't know how.

But the joy that you gave us,
and still give us today,
has been frozen in time,
though the years slip away.

We are proud of you!
Love,
Mom & Dad, Kristi & Brian

"Congratulations"

Alex A. Garcia

You've come a long way, and the future awaits with open arms.
Go forth and conquer without fear, knowing that your home,
family, and faith will always be your source of strength.
