EPIPHANY CHORAL CONCERT BY FOUR GARDENS WOMEN'S CHOIR

All are invited to attend "Carols for the Journey" on Sunday, January 11 at 2:30 pm. This choral concert is presented by the Four Gardens Women's Choir, led by Dr. Kathleen DeJardin. There will be Christmas carols for all to sing, as well as seasonal Women's Choir anthems. This concert will be followed by a hot cider and cookie reception in the Narthex.

DIOCESAN MINISTRY FORMATION WORKSHOPS FOR EMHCs

Each year, the Diocese of Arlington hosts in-person Ministry Formation Workshops for Eucharistic Ministers. Your attendance at one of these workshops is required if you are a:

1. New candidate for EMHC;
2. Recently-trained EMHC who has not yet attended a workshop; or
3. "Seasoned" EMHC for whom it's been ten (10) or more years since having attended a workshop.

Attendance at a workshop does not take the place of Eucharistic Minister training at your home parish but rather, provides additional church doctrine information that enhances and compliments your ministry.

Follow the link to register: <https://www.arlingtondiocese.org/divine-worship/liturgy-workshops/>

Upon completing a workshop, please email Charles Fulghum (minschedule@olgcv.org) and Cheryl Jones (cjones@olgcv.org) to let us know which workshop you attended so we can maintain accurate records. Thank you.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS YOUNG MAN & YOUNG WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Recognize our youth who exemplify the values of our community and the Catholic Church. We look for outstanding youth who have made positive contributions to family life, community life, or parish life. Students in 9th through 12th grades are eligible, no matter where they go to school. We will consider academic achievements, sports and extracurricular activities, civic and religious activities, and family support activities. Nominations are due January 31. Nominate by using the QR code or the following link: <https://www.knightsvienna.org/nominations/young-manyoung-woman-of-the-year>.

LA FIESTA DE LA SANTISIMA FAMILIA

Énfasis Sugerido:
 "Honrad a tu madre y a tu padre."

Perspectiva Salesiana:
 La selección del día de hoy del Libro de Sirach hace eco al Mandamiento que dice: "Honrad a tu padre y a tu madre." Lo que la lectura nos está diciendo es que la verdadera religión implica obligaciones morales para con los demás, las cuales a su vez evolucionan de nuestras propias obligaciones morales para con nuestros padres. Nuestras relaciones con los demás, especialmente con aquellos con quienes compartimos tanto tiempo, con quienes estamos en contacto a diario, son la expresión primaria de la disposición de nuestros corazones, nuestras mentes, nuestros afectos y nuestras actitudes.

La selección de la Carta de los Colosos nos habla del regalo – y del reto- de crear ese "espacio" al que llamamos "familia," un espacio en el que principalmente aprendamos algo de lo que significa ser los hijos y las hijas de Dios. Como los escogidos de Dios, santo y amado, debemos revestirnos con compasión, con bondad, con humildad, con docilidad y con paciencia. En la medida en que una vida santa no es lo mismo que una vida libre de estrés ni de problemas (sino observen por ejemplo la vida, especialmente los primeros años de vida, de Jesús, María y José), todos nosotros debemos practicar estas virtudes todo el tiempo y con la esperanza de que podamos establecer, mantener y fortalecer a la familia, especialmente – Dios no lo quiera- cuando reñimos, nos distraemos o nos decepcionamos los unos a los otros.

Francisco de Sales nos invita a vivir una vida llena de devoción de formas que encajen con las demandas y las responsabilidades acordes con el estado y etapa actual de nuestras vidas. ¿Qué es una vida devota? Es una vida no más difícil (pero si mucho más exigente) que hacer lo que es correcto a los ojos de Dios, y en relación con los demás, cuidadosa, frecuente y diligentemente. Es precisamente en la vocación en la que nos encontramos con nosotros mismos, especialmente en esos roles básicos como el de ser madre, padre, hermano, hermana, esposa, esposo, hijo o hija, que debemos practicar la vida devota.

Francisco de Sales nos dice que: "Las virtudes pequeñas, poco llamativas, aquellas en las cuales casi nunca nos fijamos, que son requeridas de nosotros en nuestras casas, en nuestros trabajos, con nuestros amigos, con extraños, en todo momento y en todos los momentos, esas son las virtudes para nosotros." (Introducción, Parte III, Capítulo 2). Por supuesto que lo más importante es la práctica del amor, ya que este no solo contribuye a la reconciliación, sino que también a la purificación, y, me atrevo a decir, que contribuye a la glorificación de las relaciones humanas. Es solo cuando nos relacionamos entre nosotros que debemos practicar esas pequeñas virtudes, esas virtudes cotidianas, para así ayudar a crear una vida mejor aquí en la tierra, y también para proveernos una muestra de la vida eterna que nos ha sido prometida en el cielo.

Ahora que celebramos la festividad de la Sagrada Familia nos damos cuenta de que realmente es muy poco lo que sabemos sobre las interacciones cotidianas entre Jesús, María y José: la vida en familia es en cierta forma un talento. Pero si consideramos a fondo la fidelidad y la consistencia de Jesús en su lucha por la justicia, la paz, la reconciliación y la libertad, verdaderamente podemos llegar a intuir dónde fue que él adquirió, siendo un niño, muchos de los talentos que su ministerio le requirió al convertirse en adulto.

Después de todo, la caridad, la paz, la justicia, el perdón – como muchas otras cosas- comienzan en casa.

SENIOR MOMENTS – Marge Van Leirde (gitkagirl@gmail.com 571.831.3951)

WE'RE ALMOST THERE! -

The transition from the busyness of Christmas to the start of the New Year is a time for reflection and resolutions. In the weeks of Advent, we're filled with anticipation of Christmas as we prepare to celebrate the birth of Jesus by putting up the crèche and doing lots of decorating, baking, shopping, and festive gatherings. But as the year rushes to a close and the New Year is in sight, we find ourselves getting a little nostalgic. Those for whom the year was difficult are happy to see it go and hope the next one will be kinder to them. Those for whom things went well hope for more of the same. For all of us, the start of the New Year marks a time to consider changes we want to make in our lives.... for endings and for new beginnings, an opportunity to start afresh.

For me, the New Year will mark one of those changes. After almost 27 years, I'm stepping away from writing Senior Moments; this is my last column. I'm filled with gratitude for being able to continue what began as a short-term feature during my time as the Senior Representative on the Pastoral Council. It morphed into something much more, something that's been described as a "creative ministry." As I often say, I got more than I gave in this win-win endeavor. The commitment to submit a weekly column gave me purpose and carried me through when life became difficult. It required many hours of research, from which I learned so much. It allowed me to share stories about my own aging experiences and to provide information and resources I hoped would be helpful on your journey.

None of this would have been possible without the support and encouragement of the late Fr. John O'Neill, OSFS, our pastor at the time, who suggested the column, along with Merle Senyk and Al Reichelt, former staff members at OLGC. I'm so grateful for my late husband, Frank, who was my biggest cheerleader, and my daughter, Susan, who wielded her magic as she edited the occasional essays I wrote.

There's a time for everything, and my time for stepping aside is now. Perhaps someone will volunteer to continue supporting our parish's seniors with a similar column. I hope so! And I hope you'll continue to live in the moment as we're encouraged to do by St. Francis de Sales, to dig deep to find the good in something that is not, to be empowered by courage to begin each day anew, to live in gratitude, and to find joy in purpose.

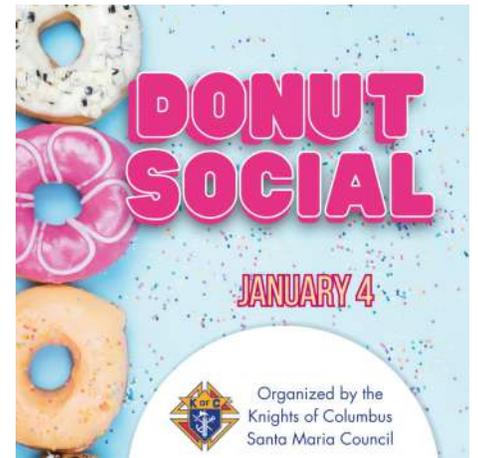

As I close my final column, I'd like to share a New Year's prayer with you, the author unknown:

Dear Lord, please give me a few friends who understand me and remain my friends; a work to do which has real value, without which the world would be the poorer; a mind unafraid to travel, even though the trail be not blazed; an understanding heart; a sense of humor; time for quiet, silent meditation; a feeling of the presence of God, and the patience to wait for the coming of these things, with the wisdom to recognize them when they arrive. Amen.

In the spirit of the season, I wish you a happy 2026, a year filled with an abundance of happiness, good health, and, most of all, a peaceful heart!
