County Board Policy 6141.2: Recognition Of Religious Beliefs And Customs

Status: DRAFT

Original Adopted Date: Pending

The County Board of Education recognizes that students' education would be incomplete without an understanding of the role of religion in society. As appropriate for a particular course, teachers may objectively discuss the influences of various religions, using religious works and symbols to illustrate their relationship with culture, literature, or the arts. The County Board expects that such instruction will identify principles common to all religions and foster respect for the diversity of religions and customs in the world and be consistent with the adopted instructional materials and state standards, as applicable.

In order to respect each student's individual right to freedom of religious practice, religious indoctrination is forbidden in public schools. Instruction about religion may not promote or denigrate the beliefs or customs of any particular religion or sect, show a preference for one religious viewpoint over another, or interfere with the religious development of any student in whatever tradition the student embraces. Additionally, instruction about religion shall treat all religions and religious convictions, including nonbelief, with fairness and respect.

There shall be no endorsement, encouragement, or solicitation of religious or anti-religious expression or activities among students during class time.

There shall be no coercion of students in prayer or other religious activities as part of official duties. However, there is no prohibition, when acting in a private capacity, against encouraging students' participation in personal prayer or other religious activity. Additionally, there shall be no prohibition against or discouragement of any student from praying or otherwise expressing the student's religious belief so long as this does not disrupt the classroom or other county office of education (COE)-sponsored activity.

Students may express their beliefs about religion in their homework, artwork, and other class work if the expression is germane to the assignment. Such work shall be judged by ordinary academic standards, relevance, and other legitimate pedagogical objectives.

While teaching about religious holidays is a permissible part of the educational program, celebrating religious holidays is not allowed. COE-sponsored programs shall not be, nor have the effect of being, religiously oriented or a religious celebration. School and classroom decorations may express seasonal themes that are not religious in nature. The use of religious symbols that are part of a religious holiday is permitted as a teaching aid or resource provided that such symbols are displayed as an example of cultural and religious heritage of the holiday and temporary in nature.

Classroom methods in instruction about religion shall not include religious role-playing activities or simulated religious devotional acts.

Music, art, literature or drama programs having religious themes are permitted as part of the curriculum for COE-sponsored activities and programs if presented in an objective manner and as a traditional part of cultural and religious heritage.

COE schools shall not prohibit religious activities if the same or similar non-religious activities are permitted.

When required by law, parents/guardians shall be notified that they may, via written request, opt their students out of instruction on the basis of their religious beliefs as specified in the accompanying administrative regulation. Students whose parents/guardians opt them out of such instruction may be offered an alternative activity of similar educational value. Additionally, a student shall not be subject to disciplinary action, academic penalty, or other sanction on the grounds that the student was opted out of such instruction.

County Board Policy 6142.1: Sexual Health And HIV/AIDS Prevention Instruction

Status: DRAFT

Original Adopted Date: 09/15/2021

The County Board of Education desires a well-planned, integrated sequence of medically accurate and inclusive instruction in comprehensive sexual health and human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) prevention.

The county office of education (COE) shall respect the rights of parents/guardians to supervise their students' education on these subjects and to impart values to their children regarding human sexuality.

As specified in the accompanying administrative regulation, the COE shall strive to provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary to protect them from risks presented by sexually transmitted infections, unintended pregnancy, sexual harassment, sexual assault, sexual abuse, and human trafficking; to have healthy, positive, and safe relationships and behaviors; to understand sexuality as a normal part of human development; and to develop healthy attitudes and behaviors concerning adolescent growth and development, body image, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, relationships, marriage, and family. (Education Code 51930-51939)

Each student in grades 7-12 shall receive comprehensive sexual health and HIV prevention education at least once in junior high or middle school and at least once in high school unless the student's parent(s)/guardian(s) opt the student out of such instruction as specified in "Parent/Guardian Notification and Opt-Out" in the accompanying administrative regulation. (Education Code 51934)

General Criteria for Instruction and Materials

The COE's comprehensive sexual health and HIV prevention education and the associated materials shall: (Education Code 51930, 51933)

1. Be age appropriate
2. Be medically accurate and objective
3. Be aligned with and support the following purposes:
 - a. To provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary to protect their sexual and reproductive health from HIV and other sexually transmitted infections and from unintended pregnancy
 - b. To provide students with the knowledge and skills they need to develop healthy attitudes concerning adolescent growth and development, body image, gender, sexual orientation, relationships, marriage, and family
 - c. To promote understanding of sexuality as a normal part of human development
 - d. To ensure students receive integrated, comprehensive, accurate, and unbiased sexual health and HIV prevention education and provide educators with clear tools and guidance to accomplish that end
 - e. To provide students with the knowledge and skills necessary to have healthy, positive, and safe relationships and behaviors
4. Be appropriate for use with English learners, students with disabilities, and students of all races, genders, sexual orientations, and ethnic and cultural backgrounds
5. Be available on an equal basis to a student who is an English learner, consistent with the existing curriculum and alternative options for an English learner as otherwise provided in the Education Code
6. Be accessible to students with disabilities, including, but not limited to, the provision of a modified curriculum, materials, and instruction in alternative formats and auxiliary aids
7. Not reflect or promote bias against any person in protected categories of discrimination pursuant to Education Code 220

8. Affirmatively recognize that people have different sexual orientations and, when discussing or providing examples of relationships and couples, shall be inclusive of same-sex relationships
9. 9. Teach students about gender, gender expression, and gender identity, and explore the harm of negative gender stereotypes
10. Encourage students to communicate with their parents/guardians and other trusted adults about human sexuality and provide the knowledge and skills necessary to do so
11. Teach the value of and prepare students to have and maintain committed relationships such as marriage
12. Provide students with the knowledge and skills they need to form healthy relationships that are based on mutual respect and affection and are free from violence, coercion, harassment, and intimidation
13. Provide students with the knowledge and skills for making and implementing healthy decisions about sexuality, including communication and refusal skills to assist students in overcoming peer pressure and using effective decision-making skills to avoid high-risk activities
14. Not teach or promote religious doctrine

Additionally, the COE's comprehensive sexual health education program shall include information on the affirmative consent standard. Affirmative consent is defined as affirmative, conscious, and voluntary agreement to engage in sexual activity.

Parent/Guardian Notification and Opt-Out

At the beginning of each school year or at the time of a student's enrollment, parents/guardians shall be notified, in the manner specified in the accompanying administrative regulation, that they may request in writing to opt their students out of participating in comprehensive sexual health and HIV prevention education. Students so excused shall be given an alternative educational activity. Additionally, a student shall not be subject to disciplinary action, academic penalty, or other sanction if the student's parent/guardian opts the student out of such instruction. (Education Code 51240, 51938, 51939)

County Board Policy 6142.8: Comprehensive Health Education

Status: DRAFT

Original Adopted Date: Pending

The County Board of Education believes that health education should foster the knowledge, skills, and attitudes that students need in order to lead healthy lives and avoid high-risk behaviors, and that creating a safe, supportive, inclusive, and nonjudgmental environment is crucial to promoting healthy development for all students. The County Office of Education's (COE) health education program shall be part of a coordinated approach to student health which recognizes that mental health and social connection are critical to overall health, well-being, and academic success; supports the physical, mental, and social well-being of students; reflects the importance of digital and media literacy; and is linked to COE and community services and resources.

Goals for the COE's health education program shall be designed to promote student wellness and shall include, but not be limited to, goals for nutrition promotion and education, physical activity, and other COE-based activities that promote student well-being.

Any health education course offered to middle or high school students shall include instruction in mental health that meets the requirements of Education Code 51925-51926.

A planned, sequential, research-based, and developmentally appropriate health education curriculum shall be provided for students in grades kindergarten-12 that is aligned with the state's content standards and curriculum framework and integrated with other content areas of the COE's curriculum.

Health and safety professionals may be invited to provide related instruction in the classroom, school assemblies, and other instructional settings.

Professional development shall be provided as needed to ensure that health education teachers are knowledgeable about academic content standards, the state curriculum framework, and effective instructional methodologies.

Parent/Guardian Notification and Opt-Out

Parents/guardians shall be notified that they may request in writing to opt their students out of participating in instruction and assessments, including anonymous and confidential tests, questionnaires, and surveys, as specified in the accompanying administrative regulation. Students so excused shall be given an alternative educational activity. Additionally, a student shall not be subject to disciplinary action, academic penalty, or other sanction if the student's parent/guardian opts the student out of such instruction. (Education Code 51240, 51900.6, 51938, 51939)

County Board Policy 5113: Absences And Excuses

Status: ADOPTED

Original Adopted Date: 03/01/2022 | Last Revised Date: 09/01/2025 | Last Reviewed Date: 09/01/2025

CSBA NOTE: The following optional policy may be revised to reflect local practice. Pursuant to Education Code 48200, children ages 6-18 years are subject to compulsory, full-time education, except when otherwise exempted.

Verification of absences is necessary for purposes of enforcement of compulsory education laws and for the determination of whether a student is truant. Pursuant to Education Code 48260, students with a valid excused absence are not truant.

For strategies to reduce chronic absences, see CSBA's governance brief, "Seize the Data: Using Chronic Absence Data to Drive Student Engagement," the U.S. Department of Education's, "Action Planner for Reengaging Students to Support Everyday Attendance," and the Institute of Education Sciences', "Resources for Supporting Student Engagement and Attendance."

The County Board of Education believes that regular attendance plays an important role in student achievement. The County Office of Education shall work with parents/guardians and students to ensure compliance with all state attendance laws and to correct problems of chronic absence or truancy.

In accordance with law and any policies, procedures, or measures implemented by the County Superintendent of Schools to promote student attendance and/or minimize student absence, absence from school shall be excused only for health reasons, family emergencies, and justifiable personal reasons as specified in Education Code 48205, and work in the entertainment or allied industry as permitted pursuant to Education Code 48225.5.

CSBA NOTE: When a student has an excused absence pursuant to Education Code 48205 or 48225.5, teachers are required to provide equivalent assignments and tests, as described below. While teachers are not required to do so for other excused absences, the following language extends this requirement to all excused absences for fairness, and to maintain student engagement in the educational program. County offices of education (COE) may modify the following paragraph to reflect that it only applies to excused absences pursuant to Education Code 48205 and 48225.5.

When a student's absence from school is excused, the student shall be permitted to complete for full credit within a reasonable amount of time identical or reasonably equivalent assignments and tests to those missed during the absence, as determined by the teacher. (Education Code 48205, 48225.5)

CSBA NOTE: The following paragraph is optional. Pursuant to Education Code 46014, COEs, with the written consent of the student's parent/guardian, may excuse a student from school in order to participate in religious exercises or instruction. For the COE to receive average daily attendance funding for such absences, the County Board of Education is required to first adopt a resolution permitting an excused absence for this purpose. The County Board is also mandated to adopt regulations governing students' attendance at such exercises or instruction and the reporting of these absences; see the accompanying administrative regulation.

Student absence for religious instruction or participation in religious exercises away from school property may be considered excused in accordance with Education Code 46014.

Because school attendance and class participation are integral to students' learning experiences, parents/guardians and students shall be encouraged to schedule medical and other appointments during non-school hours.

CSBA NOTE: Pursuant to Education Code 46010.1 and the California Supreme Court in American Academy of Pediatrics et al v. Lungren et al., minor students do not need parent/guardian consent to obtain confidential medical services, and schools are authorized to excuse a student from school to obtain such services.

Students shall not be absent from school without their parents/guardians' knowledge or consent, except in cases of medical emergency or, as authorized pursuant to Education Code 46010.1, for a confidential medical appointment.

CSBA NOTE: 5 CCR 421 requires the County Board to approve reasonable methods for verifying student absences due to illness or quarantine. See the accompanying administrative regulation for examples of methods of verification.

The County Board shall, by resolution entered into its minutes, approve reasonable methods that may be used to verify student absences due to illness or quarantine, based on the recommendation of the County Superintendent. (5 CCR 421)

Parent/guardian and/or student notifications related to student absences shall be provided in accordance with law and as specified by the County Superintendent or designee.

Board Bylaw 9005: Governance Standards

Status: ADOPTED

Original Adopted Date: 01/01/2016 | Last Revised Date: 09/01/2025 | Last Reviewed Date: 09/01/2025

CSBA NOTE: The following optional County Board of Education bylaw is based on CSBA's Professional Governance Standards and may be modified to reflect local practice.

The County Board of Education expects itself to act in the best interests of every student in every school or program operated by the county office of education (COE) within the legal confines established by law and the fiscal confines established by the budget. The County Board shall govern responsibly and uphold the highest standards of ethical conduct.

In order to provide a high-quality education to all students in COE schools and programs, ensure proper accountability and oversight, and offer community leadership on behalf of the COE, the County Board expects itself to have a unity of purpose and to:

1. Keep focused on learning and achievement for all students, as well as the role of the COE in providing services to school districts within the jurisdiction of the COE and the community
2. Work collaboratively with the County Superintendent of Schools
3. Communicate a common vision
4. Operate openly, with trust and integrity
5. Govern in a dignified and professional manner, treating everyone with civility and respect
6. Govern within County Board-adopted policies and procedures
7. Take collective responsibility for the County Board's performance
8. Periodically evaluate its own effectiveness
9. Ensure opportunities for the diverse range of views in the community to inform County Board deliberations

In fulfilling its role, the County Board is responsible for:

1. Involving the community, parents/guardians, students, and staff in regularly developing or updating a common vision focused on learning and achievement and responsive to the needs of all students
2. Adopting and updating policies consistent with law and the COE's vision and goals
3. Adopting a fiscally responsible budget based on the COE's vision and goals, and regularly monitoring the fiscal health of the COE
4. Ensuring that a safe and appropriate educational environment is provided to all students
5. Providing community leadership on educational issues and advocating on behalf of students and public education at the local, state, and federal levels

In addition, each individual County Board member is expected to:

1. Keep learning and achievement for all students as the primary focus
2. Value, support, and advocate for public education
3. Recognize and respect differences of perspective and style on the County Board and among staff, students, parents/guardians, and the community
4. Act with dignity and understand the implications of demeanor and behavior
5. Keep confidential matters confidential

6. Participate in professional development and commit the time and energy necessary to be an informed and effective leader
7. Understand the distinctions of authority between the County Board and the County Superintendent, and refrain from performing management functions that are the responsibility of the County Superintendent and staff
8. Understand that authority rests with the County Board as a whole and not with individual County Board member
