GRADES K-4

Maintenance of individual student folders containing samples of student writing products is required of each teacher.

- In Kindergarten, one product per pupil per month will be required in January. Products should consist of samples of dictation taken by the teacher.
- In the First Grade, two writing products per month will be required beginning in January. Products should range from copied work to rough draft.
- In Grades Two through Four, one writing product will be required in September and two writing products during each subsequent month for the remainder of the school year. Only one of the two must reflect the entire Nederland ISD writing process; the other may be placed in the student folder in draft form.

GRADES 5-8

All Language Arts teachers will be required to keep samples of student writing products for each student. Two writing products will be required each month. Samples of student writing products should reflect the entire process.

GRADES 9-12

English teachers should keep samples of student writing products in individual student folders. A Minimum of two writing products per month is required of all students in Grades Nine through Twelve. No writing products will be required of seniors during the time they are working on research papers. Samples of student writing products should reflect the entire writing process.

Samples of student writing products districtwide will be monitored by building principals, assistant principals, and Central Office Support Personnel.
