

NORTH THURSTON

RAMBLER

Reminiscence

How time flies
when you're having fun
the old cliché
when high schools done.

Desolate halls
once walked in the years
fade quietly unseen
with memories and tears.

The gym is empty
with dimness around remnants of games
the spirit lived sound.

North Thurston has stood
the years of abuse
but years of emotion
and years of good use.

Remember that school
the one that once could hold many fond memories
and still it withstood.

Students to school
is like rain is to water,
remember your spirit
and your old alma mater.

Donna Bogden

Its a Friday, the Rams are out for a victory. The cheerleaders are full of pep. The day is going great. Its now 1:45p.m. and a wave of students head for the old North Thurston Gym. Inside is the echoing sounds of pride as we Ramble on ... for a victory.

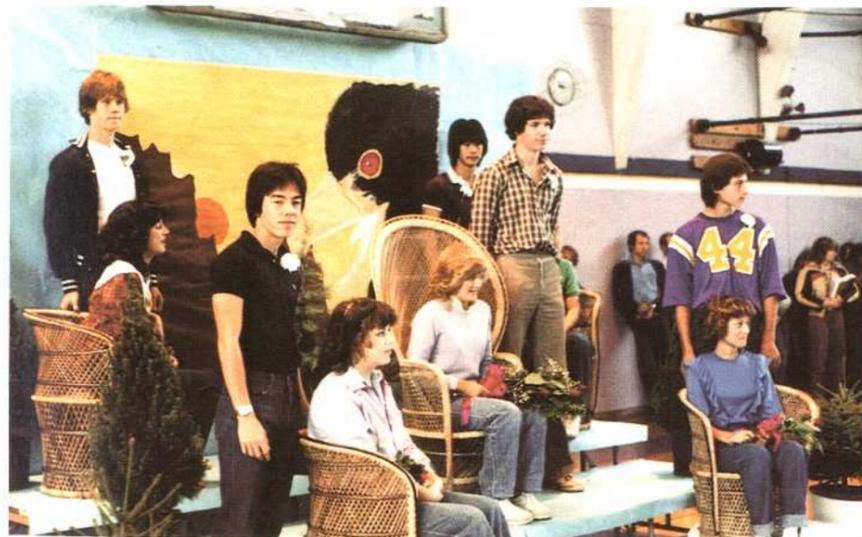

Have you ever had one of those days when you flunked your Algebra Quiz, got turned in for a Truancy, and forgot your lunch money? It happens to everybody. Just a smile from a friend can keep your day Ramblin' on ...

The Student Lounge, or as some older people call it: "The multi-purpose room." This is the mid-day hang-out for many students who don't care for the ordinary "Cafeteria" atmosphere. The student store has a radio that is eternally blasting out either KISW or KBRD, depending on the mood (or whether Mr. Ray is in the room.) Just a small part of our Ramblin' school ...

These are our Wonderful Masters of Cuisine, the Cooks. They dressed up for National School Lunch Day and served Oriental Chicken, Stir Fried Vegetables, Steamed rice, Fruit Fantasy, and Chinese Almond Cookies. Our cooks have a great deal of spirit just like the students. We're lucky to have the cheerful Ramblin' cooks ...

Cheerleaders. Let's admit it, are a little bit hard to understand. Think, you always see them practicing after school and stuff, but does it really take that much practice to jump around and scream? Maybe they organize their jumping and screaming. Then again, Maybe not ... Nevertheless, they keep this school Ramblin' ...

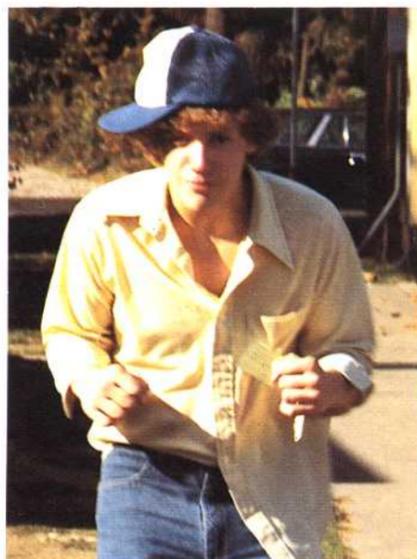

Homecoming — the most physically and emotionally traumatic time of the year. There are hundreds of things to think about — assembly sign painting, float meetings (where you change the idea for your float twelve times before you even do any work on it), the annual garbage can "borrowing", not to mention "Who am I gonna ask?/Who's gonna ask me?". Then-Homecoming night-a night of glamour, sophistication, locking your keys in the car at the restaurant, forgetting the corsage, getting Dad's car stuck in the ditch, and not knowing which of the 200 forks to use for the salad. So why do people even go to Homecoming? That's a question to keep your mind Ramblin' ...

Look closely - is there any resemblance between this picture and the halls at NTHS between classes? It doesn't take much imagination to relate to this. Let's face it, isn't it just a tad bit crowded in our halls? And teachers wonder why we are occasionally late to class? Apparently they don't notice the torn clothes, bruises, battered books, etc. as the typical student staggers into class. Well, they're working on it, so in the meantime, the only thing to do is keep pushing, shoving, and Ramblin' on ...

"What?" ... "He said that?" ... "When was this?" ... "You've got to be kidding!" ... "I told her everything." ... "I heard she's suspended." ... "Shhhhhh, the teacher's looking." ... "I don't even care!" ... "No, Mrs. Fudd, we weren't talking." ... "I see him all the time." ... "I swear!" "WHO?" ... "What is his problem?" "I'm in LOVE, sigh" ... "Where's the game Friday?" ... "Who's the new guy?" ... "Ramblin'" ...

What is the most scary sound heard during the school hours (besides Mr. Koval's voice calling your name over the P.A.???) What sound do you subconsciously dread and try to avoid? THE BELL. Yes, not only is that sound painfully shrill to your ears at 5:00 in the morning Monday through Friday, but 5 minutes later, after every dismissal bell sounds THE TARDY BELL. After six tardies, boy, you might as well be Ramblin' on ...

Many students feel that pledging allegiance to the flag every morning is somewhat of a drag, but it's really a small act of appreciation considering what the flag stands for. Everyone has heard the lecture at least 100 times, but by now one should realize the truth behind it. So, next time that voice comes over the P.A. at 7:42 and tells you to stand, don't grimace and groan, just smile and Ramble out the words, "I pledge allegiance ..."

Although some of these things seem "every-day", in a few years when you look back, the seemingly unbearable day today will become a memory to be cherished forever. Sure, this sounds a little schmaltzy now, but when the time comes for reminiscing High School days, the corny feeling will disappear and be replaced by a sense of sadness and a longing to go back. As of now, no way has been devised to enable us to go back, but in our minds we can re-live good times and be proud of our Ramblin' High School Days ...

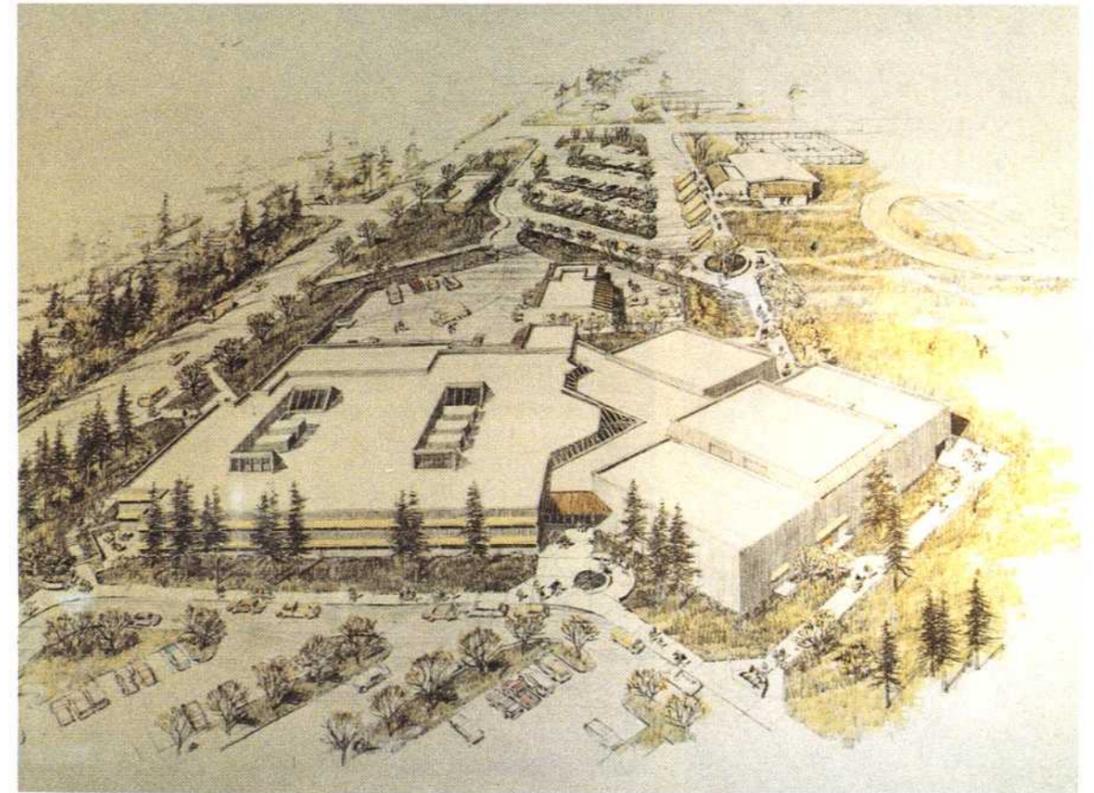

DEDICATION

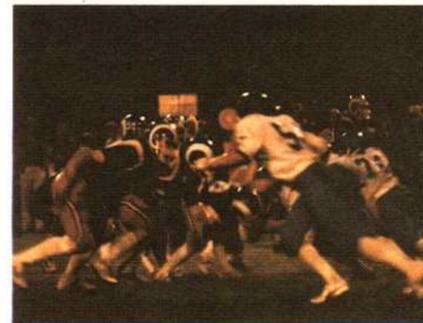

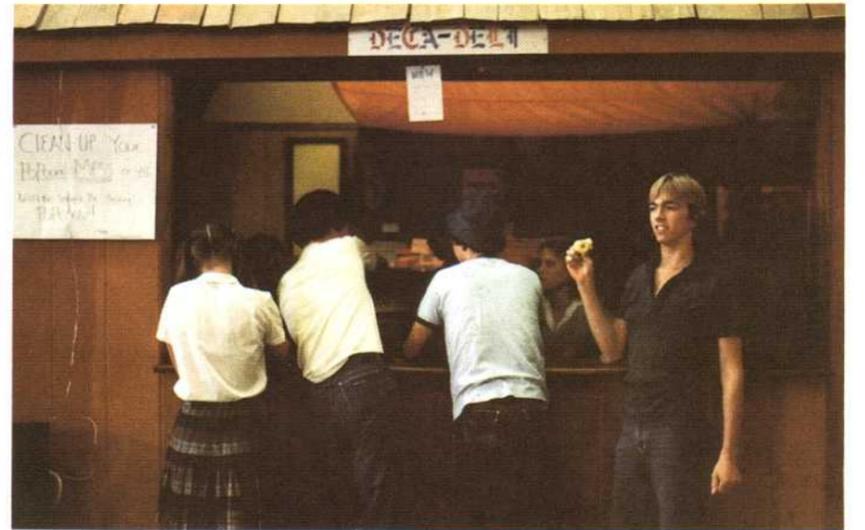

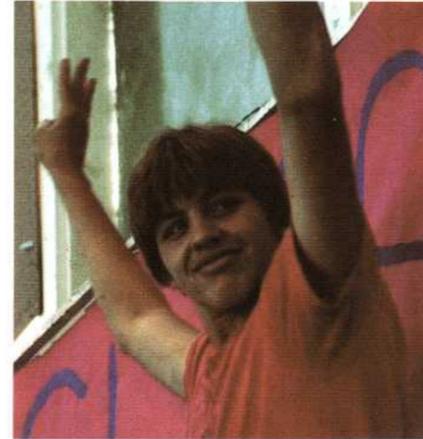

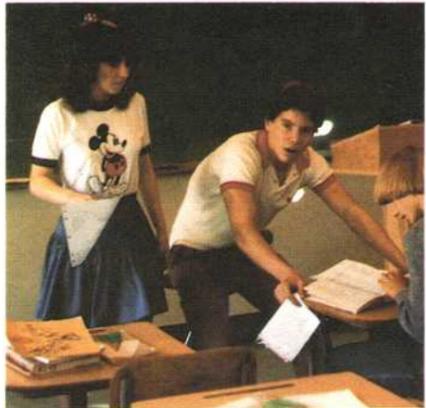

Each year, the dedicatee we choose is a person who has done his or her regular job at North Thurston, and at the same time, doing extra things for the school, going "above and beyond the call of duty." This year's dedicatee is a perfect example of this. Don Mahlum came to North Thurston in 1973 starting out as a Distributive Education teacher. Then, in 1976 he volunteered to become the Rambler Advisor. Very few people realize what a hassling, time-consuming job this is. Besides getting a 100-plus page annual done in six months and doing it to the administrations', the parents' and the students' satisfaction, Mr. Mahlum also advises (during the same period yet!) our North Thurston newspaper, the Rampage. It takes a tremendous amount of courage, wisdom and inner strength to attempt either of these jobs, much less do them magnificently, as Mr. Mahlum has. All of us at North Thurston owe him a great deal, and we are very proud and honored to dedicate our 1983 Rambler to Don Mahlum.

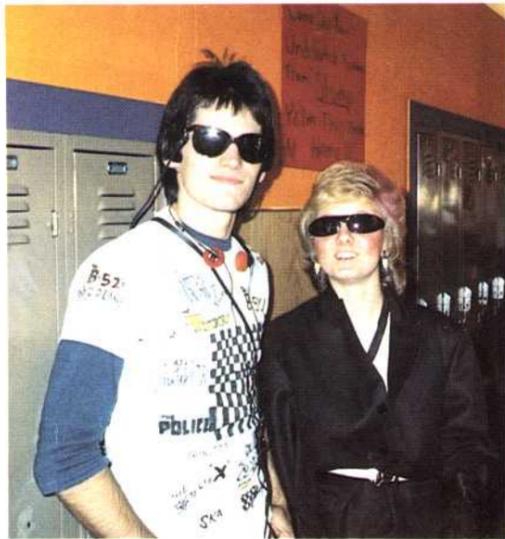

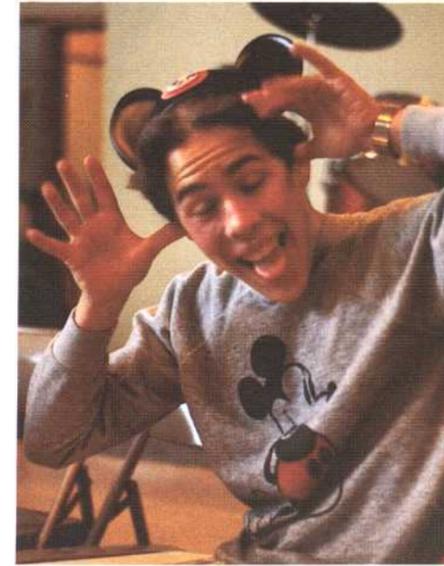

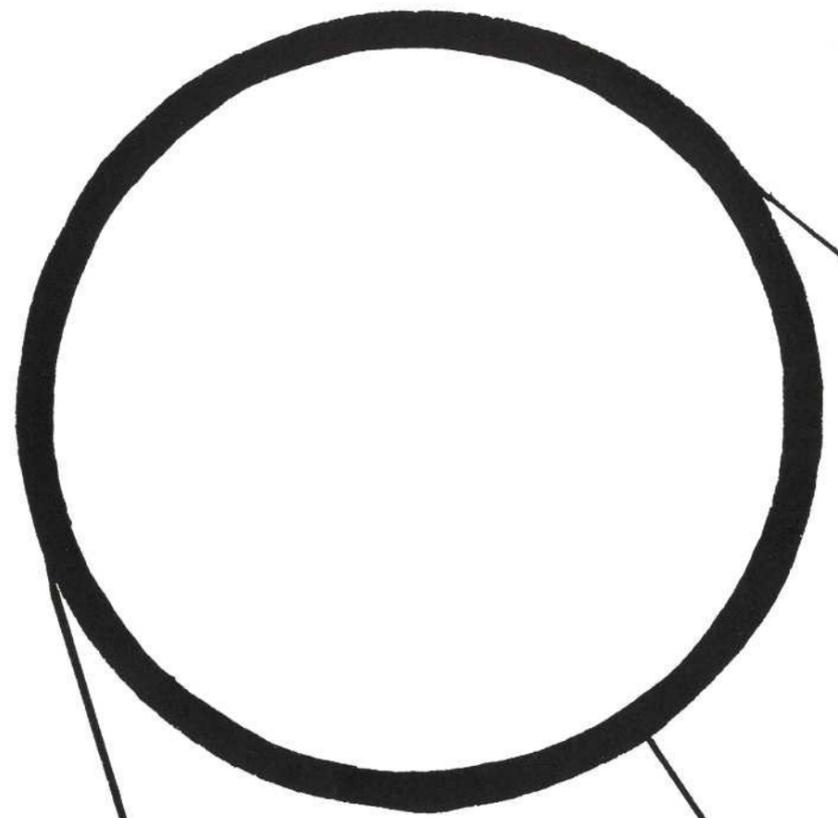

As you probably noticed, there's a beautiful new school right at NT's back door. Hopefully, when this publication comes out, we'll all be enjoying the beauty and space that the new building has to offer. It's so surprising to see an entire building spring up so quickly. Early this year, many of North Thurston's students were given a chance to tour the unfinished new school. Here is a glimpse of what we're in store for. We're sure that the new school will be just as Ramblin' as the old one ...

Who has said that time heals all wounds?
But one who knows no pain?
For one with cuts that burn and fester
Would contemplate again.

Who has said that love will weaken
But one who has no mate?
For only love, the one true serum,
Conquers deepest hate.

Who has said there is no hope,
But one who has no faith?
For faith in new and bright tomorrows
Wields the path of fate.

Who has said that time will age thee,
But one who's old and gray?
For time is a man-made figment
To regulate the day.

Who has said there is no trust,
But one who knows no truth?
For trusting what you know is real,
Will bring eternal youth.

Gretchen Henderson

The secret cove A place that only I know.
The sun-bleached driftwood scattered upon the land. The surging waves pound on the sand
You can be alone
and never hear people around you far or near. This is the place I sometimes like to be

This place is inside of me.

Christina Olson

*I wonder if the world is round,
If silence is the lack of sound.*

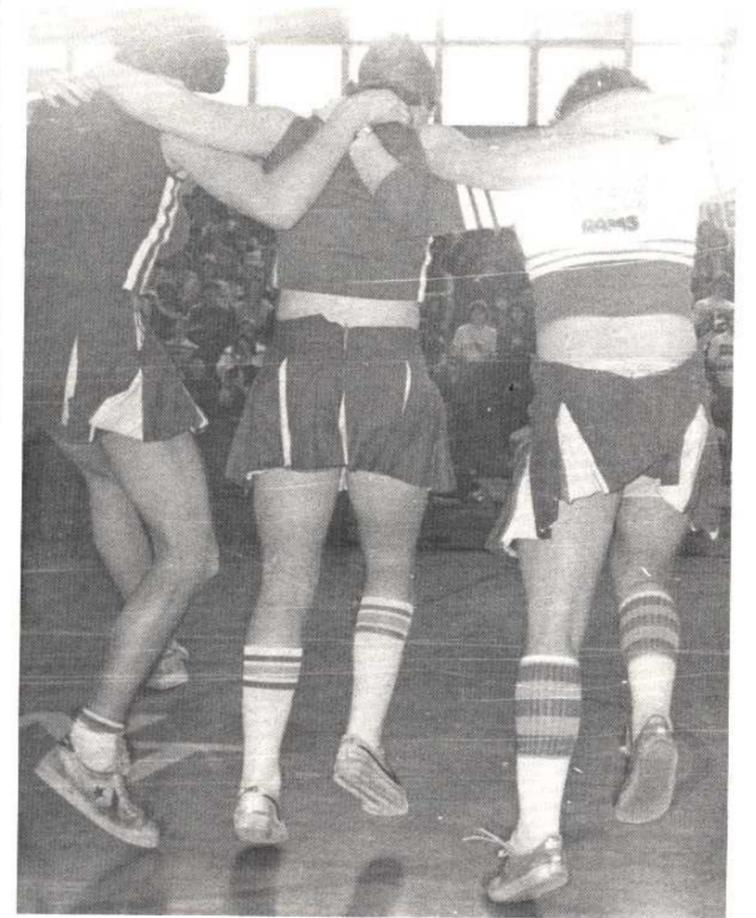

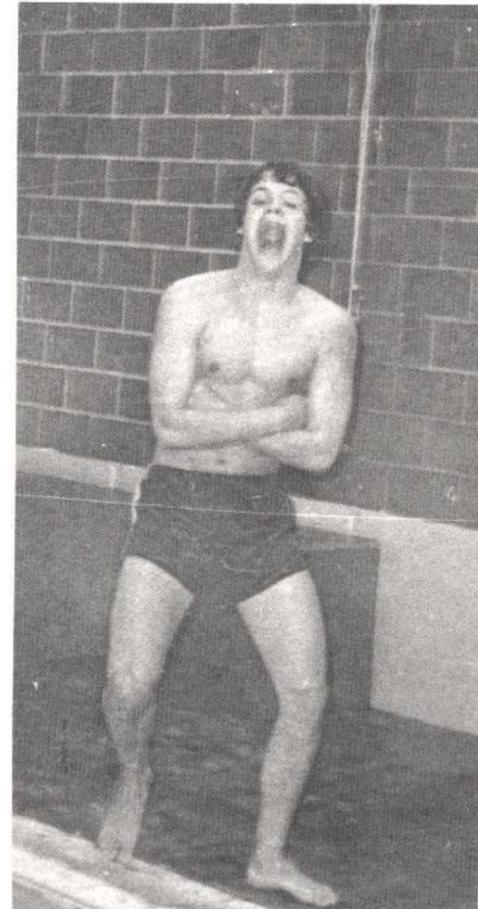

*I wonder if the sky is blue,
If starting has a finish too.*

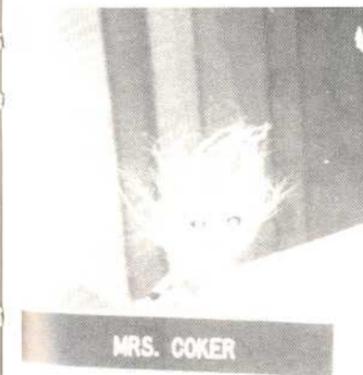

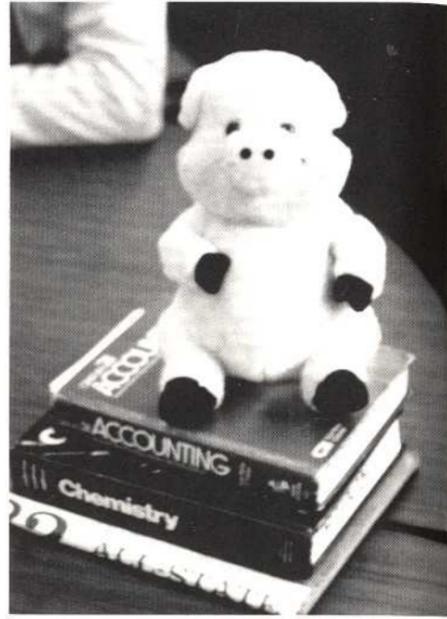

*I wonder if the sea is green,
If cleansing makes the dirty clean.*

*I wonder if the road is long,
If right can heal whatever's wrong.*

Gretchen Henderson

I wonder if dreams come true, and If they did, would I have you?

Varsity Cheerstaff: Jane Van Camp-Queen, Shelly Robertson, Lori Gaffney, Kim Attridge, Tammie Brown, Chris Monnet, Yolanda Mercado-mascot.

The Varsity Cheerleaders' season starts way before football or basketball. It starts as soon as the elections in the spring when they are responsible for assisting Mr. McDonald in the Heptathlon/Decathlon, running freshman tryouts and preparing themselves for summer camp.

This year cheerleading camp was held at Central Washington University, and was sponsored by the World Cheerleading Council. During their stay the NTHS Cheerstaff received all superior ratings for both leadership and technique. After returning from camp, the award winning cheers and routines were performed at the Capital Mall cheerleading exhibition.

At the beginning of the school year, the cheerleaders are off and planning many activities besides the games at which they perform. These activities include assemblies, fundraisers, team favors, and many others.

The girls cheer the team on, rain or shine, and deserve much credit for their work.

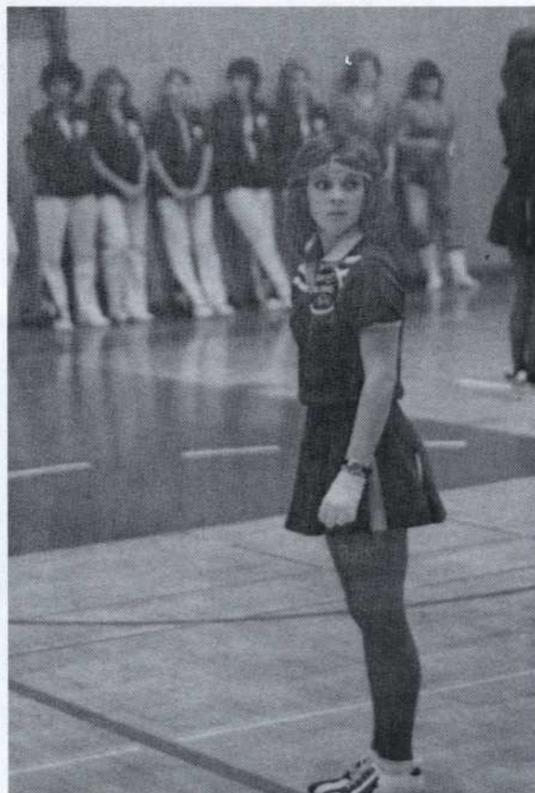

Junior Varsity Cheerstaff

The J.V. cheerstaff worked very hard promoting spirit during the junior varsity football and basketball seasons. They handled many different fundraisers which brought in a great deal of money for uniforms and other little things needed throughout the year. They work closely with the varsity planning assemblies and developing routines. They deserve congratulations for a job well done!

Freshman Cheerstaff

This year the freshman cheerleaders had two excellent seasons. With the help of Roma Smith, the cheerleading advisor, these four girls became outstanding little cheerleaders. Throughout the year they painted signs for the teams, put on their own fund raisers, encouraged more Ram fans to come watch the freshman games. Good job cheerleaders!

Freshmen Cheerleaders: Tiffanie Robison, Tanya Baller, Jennifer Kinkela, and Sally Howes; Queen.

There comes a time
during our youth
When we must grow up
and face the truth

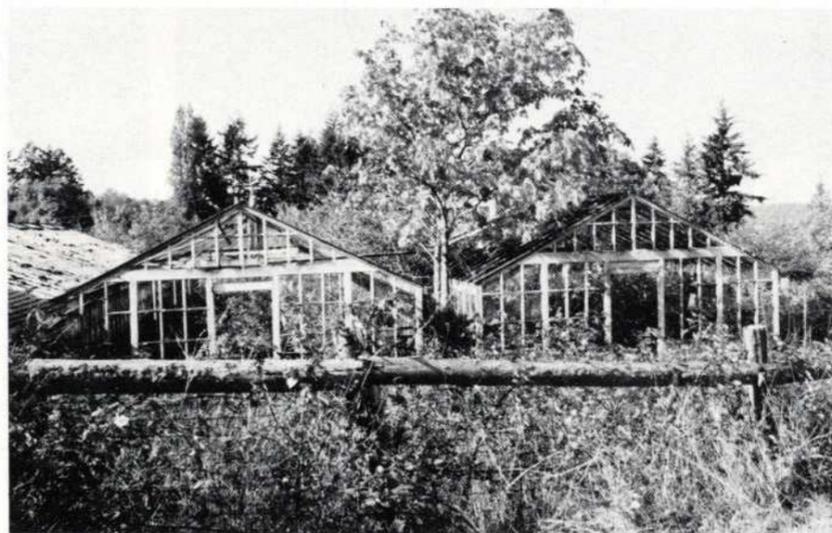

No more hiding
behind high school walls
We all must walk
and take our falls
But somewhere
back inside our minds
Memories of laughter
and tears entwine

And then we realize that we
Are scared to face
Reality.
Congratulations and Farewell

TIME

*This boundless Universe
We turn to reflect.
Scientists wonder and probe at time,
but can only dissect it.
When will they know?
Time stands still to pause
and reflect.
But if we take what life itself gives
into constant creation,
Then we will understand.
Each moment of actualization
And that is what this symbol called time really means after all.*
