A Note From Your CIS Site Coordinator…

January 2026 – Reset for the New Year

Welcome to 2026! January is a fresh start. This is a time to reset routines and build positive momentum for the rest of the year. Small changes like setting a consistent bedtime, morning routines, or using a visual calendar can support better attendance.

Attendance trend:
Research shows that when students improve attendance mid-year, they can still recover academically and emotionally. It's not too late to get back on track.

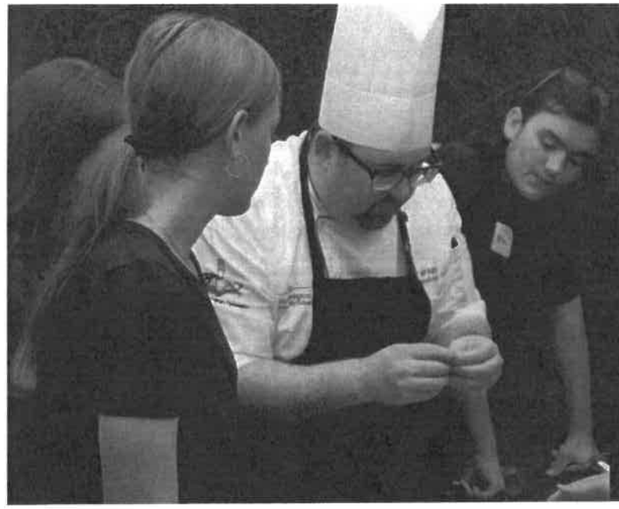

Need support building new routines or overcoming attendance barriers? I'm just a phone call or email away!
