Juan Diego Academy
Catholic Regional High School

Dear Prospective Students and Parents,

We are pleased that you are considering joining the Juan Diego Academy community. The application process to our school is done primarily online. The following guide is provided as an aid in assisting you to navigate the various steps in the process:

Step One: Schedule an interview with the Principal and bring the most current report card and complete scholastic records. A possible entrance exam may be required.

Step Two: Complete and submit the Financial Aid Form. Directions for the online completion of this application may be found under "Financial Aid."

Step Three: Upon acceptance to Juan Diego Academy, pay the non-refundable registration fee and other optional fees (bus, lunches, sports fees).

The entire faculty and staff at Juan Diego Academy will be providing your child with the highest quality Catholic educational experience. Juan Diego Academy provides each student with the tools necessary to become successful college students and leaders called to seek Justice, foster Devotion, and be Active participants in the Church and our world.

Blessings,
Principal Patricia Masso
