Policy

Harassment is a form of unlawful discrimination which will not be tolerated. Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal written or physical conduct, constituting harassment as defined herein and by state and federal law violates this policy. Retaliation against any person raising good faith allegations of unlawful harassment or against any witness cooperating in an investigation by the District pursuant to this policy is prohibited.

Definitions

1. Employee: For purposes of this policy, employee means any person who may be permitted, required or directed by the school District, in consideration of direct or indirect gain or profit, to perform services for the District.
2. Unlawful Harassment: Unlawful harassment is a form of discrimination. It is Verbal, written, or physical conduct based on an employee's race, religion creed, color, national origin, marital status, sex (including pregnancy), sexual orientation, gender identity, age, political affiliation, ancestry, place of birth, genetic information or disability which has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an employee's work or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment.
3. Sexual Harassment: Is a form of sex discrimination and means Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:
 - a) Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment; or
 - b) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as a component of the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or
 - c) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.
4. Retaliation: Retaliation is adverse action taken against a person for making a complaint of unlawful harassment or for participating in or cooperating with an investigation.

Examples

Unlawful harassment can include any unwelcome verbal, written or physical conduct which offends, denigrates, or belittles an employee because of the employee's race, religion, color, national origin, marital status, sex (including pregnancy), sexual orientation, gender identity, age, ancestry, place of birth, genetic information, or disability. Such conduct includes, but is not limited to, unsolicited derogatory remarks, jokes, demeaning comments or behavior, slurs, mimicking, name calling, graffiti, innuendo, gestures, physical contact, stalking, threatening, bullying, extorting or the display or circulation of written materials or pictures.

1. Sex

Sexual harassment may include unwelcome touching, crude jokes or pictures, discussions of sexual experiences, teasing related to sexual characteristics, pressure for sexual activity, display or sending of pornographic pictures or objects, obscene graffiti, and spreading rumors related to a person's alleged sexual activities.

2. Race and Color

Racial or color harassment may include unwelcome verbal, written or physical conduct directed at the characteristics of a person's race or color such as nicknames emphasizing stereotypes, racial slurs, and negative references to racial customs.

3. Religion

Harassment on the basis of religion includes unwelcome verbal, written or physical conduct directed at the characteristics of a person's religion or creed such as derogatory comments regarding surnames, religious tradition, or religious clothing, or religious slurs.

4. National Origin and Place of Birth

Harassment on the basis of national origin includes unwelcome verbal, written or physical conduct directed at the characteristics of a person's national origin such as negative comments regarding surnames, manner of speaking, customs, language or ethnic slurs.

5. Age

Age harassment includes unwelcome verbal, written or physical conduct directed at someone (an applicant or employee) age 40 or older, such as offensive remarks about a person's ability to perform certain tasks because of his or her age.

6. Marital Status Harassment

Harassment on the basis of marital status includes unwelcome verbal, written or physical conduct directed at the characteristics of a person's marital status, such as comments regarding pregnancy or being an unwed parent.

7. Sexual Orientation

Sexual orientation includes unwelcome verbal, written or physical conduct directed at the characteristics of a person's sexual orientation.

8. Gender Identity

9. Disability

Disability harassment includes any unwelcome verbal, written or physical conduct directed at the characteristics of a person's disabling mental or physical condition such as imitating manner of speech or movement, or interference with necessary equipment.

10. Genetic Information

Genetic information harassment can include, for example, making offensive or derogatory remarks about an applicant or employee's genetic information, or about the genetic information of a relative of the applicant or employee. Genetic information includes information about an individual's genetic tests and the genetic tests of an individual's family members, as well as information about family medical history.

Procedure

1. Duty to Investigate

In the event the District receives a complaint of unlawful harassment of an employee, or otherwise has reason to believe that unlawful harassment is occurring, it will take all necessary steps to ensure that the matter is promptly investigated and addressed. The District is committed to take action if it learns of potential unlawful harassment, even if the aggrieved employee does not wish to file a formal complaint.

2. Designated Persons

Every employee is encouraged to report any complaint of or suspected acts of unlawful harassment. Unlawful harassment should be reported to the Non-Discrimination Coordinators or to the Superintendent at the following address and telephone number:

Non-Discrimination Coordinator: Director of Student Services
Address: 49 Charles Avenue, Middlebury, Vermont 05753
Telephone number: 802-382-1274

Superintendent
Address: 49 Charles Avenue, Middlebury, Vermont 05753
Telephone number: 802-382-1274

3. Investigation

Allegations of unlawful harassment will be promptly investigated by a Non-Discrimination Coordinator or his/her designee. At the outset of the investigation, the complainant shall be provided with a copy of this policy. If the allegations are found to have been substantiated by the investigator, the District will take appropriate disciplinary and/or corrective action. The Non-Discrimination Coordinator or his/her designee will inform the complainant(s) and the accused(s) whether the allegations were substantiated. The accused(s) and the complainant(s) shall be warned against any retaliation. If, after investigation, the allegation is found not to have been substantiated, the complainant(s) shall be informed of the right to contact any of the state or federal agencies identified in this policy.

4. Filing a Complaint

Employees are encouraged to report the alleged unlawful harassment as soon as possible to the Non-Discrimination Coordinators or the Principal. The complainant will be asked to provide copies of any relevant documents or notes of events and the names of people who witnessed or were told of the unlawful harassment.

5. Alternative Complaint Processes

Employees may file complaints with both the District and with state and federal agencies. If employees are dissatisfied with the results of an investigation, they may file a complaint with state and federal agencies. The agencies are:

a. Vermont Attorney General's Office, Civil Rights Unit, 109 State Street, Montpelier, VT 05602, Telephone number: (802) 828-3171. <http://www.atg.state.vt.us/issues/employment-law/Harassment.php> Complaints should be filed within 300 days of any unlawful harassment.

b. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 1 Congress Street, Boston, MA 02114, Telephone number: (617)565-3200 (voice), (617)565-3204 (TDD).

<http://www.eeoc.gov/field/boston/charge.cfm> Complaints should be filed within 300 days of any unlawful harassment.

6. Confidentiality

The confidentiality of the complainant, the accused individual, and the witnesses shall be maintained consistent with the District's obligations to investigate, to take appropriate action, and to comply with laws governing the disclosure of personnel records or other applicable discovery or disclosure obligations.
