Jordan Young scored 13 points and Crockett County Middle School's Cavaliers overcame a 22-point performance by Kylan Wells to post a 46-43 victory over Trenton Thursday night, completing a homecoming sweep for the host teams.

In the night's opener, Addie Whitby netted 15 points as the Lady Cavaliers downed Trenton 50-39, jumping a 27-16 halftime lead and maintaining the margin in second-half play.

Coach Tyler Gadlen's Cavs knocked down four three-pointers in the nightcap, providing the margin of victory after holding Trenton without one. Young and Brendan Green each tallied four points in the final quarter to maintain Crockett's slim margin of victory. Green had nine points for the game, with Kamden Lewis adding seven and Easten Stephens contributing six.

Coach Jamar Turner's Lady Cavs evened their season record at 9-9 with their triumph despite missing 10 of the 16 free throws they received. But an otherwise balanced offensive attack prevailed, with Whitby's 15-point effort being supported by Till Holyfield with 10, Khylee Cobb with nine, and Addison Ward with seven.

Both CCMS teams are next in action on January 5 in a home doubleheader with Dyersburg.
