F. REPORTS

1. MOT Director, John Campbell - John Campbell shared an update on the summer projects. He mentioned how proud he's been of Tommy Noble for really stepping up and getting things done. John also talked about resolving the lawn mower issue, getting all the sprinklers dialed in, and fixing the floor in the modular classroom that was moved over last year. He added that the doors on campus were repainted and look great.
2. Superintendent, Bryan Easter
  - a. 2025/2026 Enrollment Update - Mr. Easter reported that our enrollment is staying around 287. He mentioned that a special board meeting may be scheduled before the start of school for IDT applications
  - b. 2025/2026 School Year Theme - Mr. Easter shared that this year's theme is Kicking It Old School, "Keeping It Rural,"
  - c. 2025/2026 CA Budget Update - Mr. Easter gave the board a brief update on the projections and ratios that have an impact on Maple's budget. The good news is that one time, block grant funds increased to 1.7 billion.
  - d. Facility Update - Mr. Easter shared that the Kindergarten playground has been painted, adding some additional painted games for our students.
  - e. Transportation Discussion - Mr. Easter updated the board on the cost of the new bus purchase and the additional seating warranty. He also shared photos of the bus and mentioned that he and John plan to take a look at it in person tomorrow.
