Depew Senior Excels in New Visions Education Pathways Academy Program

Depew High School senior Taytum Shields is making the most of her year in the New Visions Education Pathways Academy program at Buffalo State University, a one-year hands-on learning experience for students interested in careers in education.

Program instructor Anthony Lleras praised Taytum for her drive and character, saying, "Taytum stands out for her passion, maturity, and openness to learning. She is deeply reflective about her future and embraces new experiences that help her grow personally and professionally. She exemplifies what it means to be a future-ready professional: thoughtful, open-minded, and committed to making a difference in the lives of others."

For Taytum, the program has been both eye-opening and inspiring. "I joined my CTE program with the hope of stepping foot into my future education and learning about what I would like to do," she said. "I love learning new things and seeing different perspectives, and I truly believe this is the perfect program for that."

Originally planning to study early childhood education, Taytum is now also considering a career in social work, recognizing "the ongoing desperate need of school social workers." She's currently researching both career paths to find the best fit for her passion for helping others.

"This program has opened the door to college and my future," Taytum shared. "There was a time I didn't think I would ever go to college, but now I know I want to pursue a career that will help people."

Thanks to new legislation, school districts will see increased state reimbursement for BOCES career and technical education teacher salaries, making it more affordable and accessible.

From Classroom to Career: Jonathan's Journey

Jonathan Shattuck, a 12th grader at Maryvale Academy, has been an active and engaged member of the school community throughout his high school years. Teachers praise his diligence in completing assignments, helping peers, and contributing positively in class. Jonathan enjoys social opportunities and has built strong relationships with his classmates. His favorite part of the day is attending the Potter Career and Technical Education Center, where he says, "I get to weld. I enjoy learning about how welding is applied in the world and get the opportunity to practice before entering this field." He thrives in hands-on learning, completing tasks successfully and collaborating with peers. Academically, Jonathan has explored topics like ancient philosophers in Participation in Government, deepening his understanding of history and civic impact. With his achievements in both academics and technical skills, Jonathan was inducted into the National Technical Honor Society and is on track to earn his CDOS Commencement Credential alongside his Regents diploma.

What is BOCES?

Erie 1 Board of Cooperative Educational Services (BOCES) supports school districts with comprehensive services to enhance the region's educational environment. We offer diverse instructional programming to K-12 students, provide career training to adult learners, and optimize school district performance through administrative services and technology integration.

We continuously look to the future to develop and evolve programs that align with the needs of our students, school districts, and region. At Erie 1 BOCES, we strive for excellence while bolstering the success of learners and our community.

Mission

Erie 1 BOCES understands, anticipates, and responds to those we serve: our students, staff, and community.

- Enrollment data is from 2025-26
- Projected State Aid payment based on 2024-25 participation
- Duplication of student counts may occur due to dual enrollment
