About Liberty Ridge Elementary School

Liberty Ridge Elementary School (LRES) serves students in Preschool through fifth grades and is part of SoWashCo Schools. Liberty Ridge has two buildings, one building is for students kindergarten through fifth grade and the other building is for early childhood programs.

- LRES focuses on creating a strong, inclusive foundation built on dedicated staff, high academic expectations, and a supportive community, with parents playing an essential role in student success.
- LRES builds connections through buddy classrooms, all-school family meetings, and the Striker Squad orientation program to ensure every student feels welcomed and valued as part of the school family.
- Equity is prioritized through Conscious Discipline, empowering students with meaningful classroom roles, fostering empathy and creating a safe, inclusive environment where all students feel seen and heard.
- Structured Professional Learning Communities help identify and address individual student academic needs, providing both additional practice and enrichment as needed.
- Educational innovation is encouraged with in-house field trips, extracurricular programs like science fairs and choir, and creative use of personal devices in STEM and other projects.
