

Swift Dress Code

A uniform dress code is required of all Swift School students.

Lands' End Website: www.landsend.com/shop/school

- Students are required to wear Swift School polo shirts (long and short-sleeved) with the official Swift logo embroidered on the garment. Polos may be white, gray, navy blue, or sky blue.
- Jumpers, skirts, and skorts must be worn no shorter than two inches above the knee. A school-approved polo shirt should be worn under the jumper.
- Slacks, shorts, and skorts can be purchased from any store and must be khaki or navy. Cargo, capris, and form-fitting bottoms are not permitted.
- Solid-color leggings (white, blue, navy) may only be worn under skirts and jumpers.
- Clothing is not permitted to be undersized or oversized.
- All hoodies and sweatshirts worn indoors must be purchased through Lands' End or The Lab with a uniform shirt underneath.
- Any type of coat or sweatshirt is acceptable when outside.
- Athletic shoes must be worn every day. Sneakers with wheels, lights, etc., are prohibited.
- Hats are not permitted to be worn in school during the academic day.
