

PARENT-TEACHER CONFERENCES

The home and school have joint responsibility for a child's development. What happens to him/her in either place affects his/her total behavior. Individual parent-teacher conferences are one of the most satisfactory means of making this cooperative planning possible. Parents will be reminded well in advance of scheduled conferences. The school will take every effort to insure that conferences are scheduled at a time convenient to parents.

---

Waterville Central School District

Adopted: 04/07/98

Revised: 06/14/11, 03/27/18