

Markert Strong Scholarship

In honor of Jackson Markert

Scholarship Information:

The Markert Strong Scholarship was started in honor of Jackson Markert. Jackson bravely battled cancer twice throughout his 14 years of life and passed away on April 12th, 2022. This scholarship is a way for his family and loved ones to keep Jackson's legacy alive by doing what Jackson loved; giving back to others. Jackson was a student athlete, a percussionist in band, and excelled in academics at WISD. He was most known for his kindness, integrity, and ability to remain positive through adversity. The goal of the Markert Strong Scholarship selection committee is to award this scholarship to the applicant that most closely exhibits these same qualities.
