Dear Lagway Families,

As we begin the second semester, we are excited to refocus on routines and expectations that help all students have a successful and productive school day. Over the next few weeks, our staff will be reviewing expectations and procedures with students in the classroom, cafeteria, and playground to ensure a strong start to the semester. We appreciate your partnership at home as well. Helpful reminders include:

- Supporting punctuality and daily attendance—school doors open at 7:20 AM, and instruction begins promptly at 7:45 AM
- Checking backpacks and folders daily
- Reading newsletters and teacher communications
- Monitoring the parent portal regularly
- Ensuring lunch accounts are funded
- Writing names on new hoodies, jackets, lunch boxes, water bottles, and other personal items

When school and home work together to reinforce routines, students are better prepared to learn and succeed.

Thank you for your continued support and for helping us make the second semester a great one!
