New Dimensions

New Dimensions is a rigorous interdisciplinary Humanities course that consists of Psychology, Philosophy, Anthropology, and Sociology. This highly selective program, team-taught by Social Studies and English faculty, is composed of seniors chosen through application and interview. The coursework stresses critical thinking and debate, primary research, study trips, and the attendance of cultural events. Students complete a 50-60 page research paper through both primary and secondary research.

Service Learning

Service Learning was recognized by the Ohio Department of Education as a “model program” in 2009 as a highly selective interdisciplinary approach to American Government, Contemporary Issues, and British Literature with an emphasis on learning through service. Each student completes approximately 200 service hours per year and participates in the USA Freedom Corps. The Service Learning program logs an average of an impressive 18,000 total hours of community service each year.

H2BE

This co-taught Honors Biology and Honors English 9 is a research-based course focused on critical thinking and application. The course integrates biological concepts with literature that complements these topics and meets state standards. An outdoor component of the class utilizes Hudson High’s land lab and nearby parks, and includes an overnight trip in the fall and a backpacking trip in the spring.

Geometric Design

This course is a project-driven curriculum combining Geometry and Industrial Design. Students will use various types of software, in conjunction with construction techniques to design, create and appreciate graphic and visual art projects while developing and applying Geometric concepts in accordance with state standards. This course can also be taken as an Honors Geometry credit.

Career Programs

26 Six District Compact career programs include work experience in skilled and technical occupations through cooperation with five other area school districts.

Peer Collaboration

The role of a Peer Collaborator is to support fellow students in the classroom as an advocate and role model, as well as to develop a better understanding of students’ academic diversity of needs. Peer Collaborators earn .5 credit per semester.
