Hello parents/guardians,

Michigan Construction Career Days (MICCD) is a unique event that lets students see how they can get started with building their futures. MICCD features opportunities to learn from real construction professionals, learn about apprenticeships and college opportunities, get hands-on experience at booths featuring a variety of trades, including heavy equipment operation.

This event depends on the safe behavior of every participant to ensure the day is safe and fun. Please read through the bullet points below with your students so they are prepared for the event.

SAFETY

- Required Dress Code: closed-toed shoes or boots only, no shorts or skirts, no excessively baggy clothing, hardhat (provided).
- Chaperones must stay with their students at all times.
- There are no warnings at MICCD. Improper clothing and unsafe behavior will not be tolerated. Instructions provided by event staff and volunteers must be followed. Schools not following guidelines or putting themselves or others at risk may be asked to leave the event.
- Emergency medical personnel will be available on-site.

EVENT DETAILS

- This event takes place rain or shine. Make sure to dress for the weather.
- As with a standard construction job site, there are no designated areas for lunch, nor are there designated lunch times, if you choose to bring a meal with you. Please note that lunch is not provided. Port-a-johns are the available restroom facilities.

Safety is first and foremost. Due to the popularity of this event, pre-registration is required.
