Asbestos Abatement Completed This Summer

At the beginning of July, certified contractors from Major Abatement & Demolition removed asbestos-containing flooring from three classrooms along the Blue Boulevard hallway at Holden High School. The project lasted 12 days and included careful demolition and treatment of the area, including ventilation as shown in photos to the left. These were the only classrooms in the district with that type of flooring, so no other rooms were affected.

Asbestos was once a common building material but is no longer used because it can be harmful if its fibers are released into the air and breathed in. Previously, these tiles had been sealed to remove the risk, but with replacement of the flooring due, asbestos abatement was necessary. Replacing the flooring in these classrooms ensures a safer environment for students and staff, as well as a fresh look.
