E. BOARD WORKSHOP

Moved _____

Seconded _____

The Board of Education will conduct a governance workshop focused on providing them with an overview of school district finance and a detailed examination of the District's specific budget. The purpose is to support the Board in gaining a better understanding of key revenue sources, expenditure patterns, budget development processes, and long-term fiscal considerations, in order to strengthen informed decision-making and effective governance. This will support the Board in moving forward with taking necessary steps toward eliminating the District's structural deficit and ensuring the District's fiscal solvency while continuing to support the academic learning of the District's students.
