

Nathan Burns West Bend West Class of 2017

The second part of the father-son duo who have made their mark on West Bend West baseball is Nathan Burns, West Bend West class of 2017.

This four-year letterwinner in baseball had 23 career pitching wins and three losses. In the 2016 season, he achieved 88 strikeouts and only nine walks. Also in 2016, he was the conference player of the year. Nathan was the captain of the 2017 team that won the WIAA State Championship.

After being rated the number two Wisconsin state baseball prospect by Perfect Game and Prep Baseball Report, Nathan went on to play for Oregon State University, where he was not only a four-year letterwinner, but part of the 2018 NCAA National Championship team. He was drafted in 2021 by the Los Angeles Angels and received an invite to the Arizona Fall League for the 2021 season. He finished his professional pitching career at the AA level.