

Maintaining Reassignment Guidelines

These guidelines reflect the district's commitment to effective governance, academic excellence, and supported accountability, as outlined in Policy BAB and the Board's key priorities.

Student/Parent Accountability	Maintaining Reassignment Guidelines
Attendance	Minimum Attendance: Students must maintain at least 95% attendance. Unexcused Tardies: A student who accumulates unexcused tardies totaling 10% or more of their enrolled instructional time- school arrival or individual classes will be subject to review by the Principal and the Attendance Review Team (ART). Truancy Threshold: A student accumulating 5 or more unexcused absences or 10 cumulative absences in a school year will be subject to review by the Principal and the ART. The reassignment may be revoked. Failure to Adhere to Attendance Contracts: Students placed on an attendance contract due to excessive absences or tardiness who continue to violate the agreement will be subject to review by the Principal and the ART. The reassignment may be revoked.
Behavior	Disciplinary Referrals: Students who receive multiple disciplinary referrals for disruptive or inappropriate behavior are subject to review and may result in revocation. Suspensions: Any student who is suspended for a serious offense or receives multiple suspensions within a semester will be subject to review and may result in revocation. Expulsion-Level Offenses: Any offense that results in a recommendation for expulsion will result in immediate reassignment revocation.
Grades	Minimum Academic Performance: Students must maintain passing grades and/or participate in remediation in all core subjects. Failure to Complete Work: Consistent failure to complete assignments or participate in coursework are subject to review and may result in revocation.
Parent Partnership	Communication: Parents/guardians must maintain open communication with school staff, attend required meetings, and respond to school correspondence in a timely manner. Support of School Policies: Parents must support school policies, including discipline, attendance, and academic expectations. Resolution of Issues: If ongoing conflicts between parents and school staff disrupt the educational environment or remain unresolved despite intervention, reassignment may be revoked.

All reassignments may be reviewed annually in accordance with the above expectations. Schools are responsible for recommending revocations to the Office of School Leadership and Operations. Final determination of revocation is made by the Chief of School Leadership and Operations.