Language Arts

Domain:

This week we will read the following stories: "Old King Cole," "Sing a Song of Six Pence," and The Princess and the Pea. The Kings and Queens Project Paper went home today!

Skills:

This week we will finish this unit. We will review all the digraph sounds and will take the assessments on Thursday Jan. 15th. We will also read stories in our "Seth" reader.

Math

This week we start a new unit in math. This unit focuses on numbers to 10 and more shapes.

This week we will work on numbers 6-10. We will count, draw and write these numbers.

We will also continue with Puppy Dog Math Tests. Practice your facts nightly, time your student for 2

Welcome Back, we hope you worked hard on the sight words over the break. We will have a new list for January. They are listed below!

Please make flash cards at home to help practice these words. They cannot be sounded out, so they just need to be memorized.

That, them, then, than, these, this, with, each, from, one, two, word, number, how, now, day. May, way, you, your Kings and Queen Project Coming!!

We love this unit and the Kings and Queen Project. This project is a family at home project. Please see the additional flyer sent home today.
