TIM GROVE

Class of 1985

Author, Historian

Tim Grove is a published author and nationally recognized historian. His career includes positions at the Smithsonian National Portrait Gallery, the Smithsonian National Museum of American History, the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum, the Missouri Historical Society, and the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation. His first book, First Flight Around the World, was a finalist for the 2016 YALSA Excellence in Nonfiction award.

Tim has published a total of six books with another being released this year. He also received the 2008 Smithsonian Education Achievement Award.

DAN MASSEY

Class of 1998

Principal CPA

Dan Massey is a principal CPA with the Walz Group and brings 20 years of CPA experience to his firm's clients. He performs audit services for clients in many industries. Dan also oversees the firm's Assurance Division. Additionally, he oversees the Quality Control function of the firm and administers the ongoing technical education of firm members. In the public space, Dan presently serves as the treasurer of the Community Action Partnership of Lancaster County, treasurer of Grandview Church, on the finance and strategic planning committees of Lancaster Lebanon Habitat for Humanity, and as the treasurer of Conestoga Valley Education Foundation.

JAMES R. MILLER

Class of 1962

Professor

Dr. James R. Miller has been a professor in the Department of Marine and Coastal Sciences at Rutgers University since the 1970s. He teaches and does research in the fields of oceanography and climate, and he has served as department chair. His research uses global climate models to study how the planetary hydrologic cycle might change under a warming climate. His work has implications for dealing with a future of more extreme weather events including droughts, floods, wildfires, and severe storms.

RANDY PATTERSON

Class of 1972

Director of Economic Development/City Planner

Randy Patterson was the former deputy executive director – and later executive director – of the Lancaster County Redevelopment and Housing Authorities. Randy later retired as Lancaster's Director of Economic Development and Neighborhood Revitalization. During his career, Randy was involved in the success of projects such as Clipper Magazine Stadium, Lancaster Square and Lancaster County Convention Center. Since retiring, Randy has worked in several roles in the Lancaster community and serves on the Planning Commission for East Lampeter Township. He also serves as a consultant with several Pennsylvania communities on economic development programs.

KIM SELDOMRIDGE

Class of 1975

Chief Financial Officer

Kim Seldomridge is the former business administrator at Conestoga Valley School District. Prior to arriving at CV, Kim worked for the PA Department of Education before serving as a district business administrator for 30 years, first at Donegal School District and then at CV for 28 years of those 30 years. Since retiring, Kim has worked as a consultant through PASBO and other organizations. Kim is very active in serving his church in many roles, including Ruling Elder. He also serves as Secretary of the Board of the Center of Parent/Youth Understanding (CPYU) and served as a past president of the IU13 chapter of PASBO as well as on state committees for PASBO.
