McKinney-Vento Act

How does McKinney-Vento define homelessness?

The term “homeless children and youth”, means “individuals who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence.”

The definition includes but is not limited to children who are:

 - are living in motels, hotels, trailer parks, or camping grounds due to the lack of alternative adequate accommodations;
 - are living in emergency or transitional shelters;
 - or are abandoned in hospitals;
 - who have a primary nighttime residence that is a public or private place not designed for or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings;
 - who are living in cars, parks, public spaces, abandoned buildings, substandard housing, bus or train stations, or similar settings; and
- Migratory children who qualify as homeless because they are living in circumstances described above

Unaccompanied Youth Definition:

A youth who is not in the physical custody of a legal parent or guardian
