If the parents were able to view activities & events students are involved with and/or attended over multiple social media platforms via photos & videos close to real time (within 24hrs completion) it would create excitement and anticipation of the upcoming events. 2024-25 Title I Parent Survey/Encuesta para Padres Título I

23	There are very few instances where parents are involved in the classroom. I am not sure why this is, but it is completely different from how our classrooms functioned when we were kids in the 90s. Parents were always volunteering or supporting. I am not sure if teachers are used to having very little involvement from parents and they have structured their strategy differently, but I have been sad to miss anticipated involvement the way I fondly remember my mother being involved. I have also struggled with how the school has handled behavior and punishment. My kindergartener has witnessed students be physically removed from the classroom. I don't believe the teachers have time to pay attention to my child and as a result he tends to act out looking for attention, even if it is negative.	3/13/2025 1:50 PM
24	As a parent of a child who struggles with reading and math, I wish the teachers would initiate communication at the first sight of any issues regarding grades or comprehension. 10	Same as with the school I feel there should be district wide text notifications for cancellations, reminders of days off, half days, and other important information.	3/14/2025 11:09 AM
11	There should be a policy in place to allowing incoming new/relocating families outside of the district the opportunity to enroll their student in the school of their choice, therefore executing the "school choice program" initially. This would prevent the unnecessary disruption in the child(s) life when forced to enroll in the school assigned by housing zone while awaiting the school choice application open enrollment. It does not seem logical to force the school zone enrollment policy with no exceptions upon relocating to your district, only to offer the "school choice application" within the year forcing children move schools. It is very academically and emotionally disruptive.	3/14/2025 10:23 AM

The allowance of charter schools that are few and far between and incredibly difficult to get into and suck up talented teachers and, by their natural structure, lead to a large disparity in population demographics of other regular public schools.
