Q. Describe how the LEA may arrange school meetings at a variety of times, or conduct in-home conferences between teachers or other educators, who work directly with participating children, with parents who are unable to attend such conferences at school, in order to maximize parental involvement and participation.

AAHS provides a variety of times and ways for parents to meet. When parents are unable to attend conferences, teachers and administration set up conference calls or use technology to communicate. We have email addresses for all parents in offering different dates and times of meetings to accommodate parents throughout the year.

R. Describe how the LEA may adopt and implement model approaches to improving parental involvement.

AAHS will use the collaboration model for parent and family engagement. Collaboration may occur through monthly meetings at the district level with training, then turnaround meetings may occur at the schools. Collaboration occurs through two-way communication, recognizing parents' strengths, and solving problems together. The district and schools are open to exploring new policies, practices, relationships, and attitudes that foster partnering for children's school success.

S. Describe how the LEA may establish a districtwide parent advisory council to provide advice on all matters related to parental involvement in programs supported under this section

The district requests that schools provide a parent, or parents, from each school to serve on the advisory committee to provide advice on all matters related to parental involvement. Local schools involve parents in the development and revision of the continuous school improvement plans.

T. Describe how the LEA may develop appropriate roles for community-based organizations and businesses in parent involvement activities.

The district works closely with community representatives such as the Bessemer Police Dept., local judges, and businesses to support and train parents. School counselors assist families in finding resources and/or providing referrals to agencies to address family needs

Parent & Family Engagement Plan

U. Describe how the Local Education Agency will use the findings of such evaluation described in the section above (Sec. 1116(2)(D)) to design evidence-based strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary the parent and family engagement policies described in this section.

Translate student handbook. Send translated forms, letters, etc. to parents with limited English proficiency, when practical. Provide translation of communications and relative policies. To the extent practical, parent resource materials will be provided in a language that parents can understand. Post the LEA Parent and Family Engagement Policy on the AAHS's website. Provide training for faculty/staff on ways to involve ELL families and raise cultural awareness. Provide home materials that help parents in a language that parents can understand.
