- Good morning, Condors! This is a reminder that the Sports Medicine Club is back and looking for new members! If you're interested in sports medicine, athletic training, or helping out our sports teams this season, please join us for a quick informational meeting this Friday during lunch in Room 85. In Sports Med Club, you'll learn taping techniques, assist with warm-ups and treatments, provide sideline support during games, and gain valuable hands-on experience in athletic training. No experience necessary—all interested students are welcome. Again, that's this Friday at lunch in Room 85. We hope to see you there!

- And today's lunch special is teriyaki beef and noodles. Yummy!!!
