

Third Grade Social Studies Curriculum

These are the content expectations for a student by the end of Third Grade.

Civics and Government:

- Identifies the elected representative bodies and their roles for Pennsylvania

Economics:

- Defines, explains and applies economic terms related to production and consumption of goods and services

Geography:

- Identifies geographic tools and their uses for United States and world
- Identifies and locates places and regions
- Identifies and describes the physical characteristics of places and regions in Pennsylvania

History:

- Understands the political and cultural contributions and groups of Pennsylvania history