

Fourth Grade Social Studies Curriculum

Units of Study include Native Peoples of North America, Exploration and Colonization, & Colonial America with a focus on…

Geography

- Identifies and describes the physical characteristics of places and regions in Pennsylvania
- Identifies and describes the human characteristics and regions by their cultural and settlement characteristics
- Identifies the impacts of physical systems on people and people on physical systems
- Identifies and locates places and regions

History

- Identifies contributions of individuals and groups in the exploration and settlement of United States
- Identifies contributions of Native American groups to United States history