

CONANT MEDIA CENTER NEWSLETTER

HELLO JANUARY...

Happy New Year from the Library!

As we begin the second semester, we wish all students and staff a healthy, successful, and inspiring New Year. May 2026 bring you new opportunities, fresh motivation, and many moments of learning and discovery. We look forward to supporting you throughout the semester.

Welcome to the Library.

Second Semester Highlights

We invite teachers to bring their classes to the library and encourage all students to take advantage of our many spaces and resources. Whether you are looking for a quiet place to study, a comfortable area to read, chat quietly, or spend time with friends. We welcome you to enjoy the library.

Upcoming Events

- January 6 - First day back
- January 12 - Book Club Meeting
- January 13 - Student Late Start
- January 19 - MLK Day - No School
- January 27 - Student Late Start

Winter Reading Display.

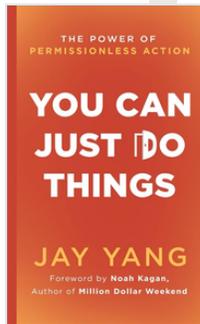

If you haven't had a chance to visit our Winter Reading Display yet, we invite you to stop by the Media Center and explore our cozy seasonal book selection. You will find heart-warming stories, exciting adventures, and perfect reads for chilly winter days. There is something for everyone—come discover your next favorite book!

Librarian's Corner

Welcome Back Everyone! We have great news, a recent CHS graduate by the name of Jay Yang has written a motivational book and has generously gifted us 100+ copies.

The book is called You Can Just Do Things: The Power of Permissionless Action. If you would like a free copy, please stop by the library today. Offer valid while supplies last.

Thank you, Elk Grove Village Public Library - Visit Highlights!

Last month, we were very happy to welcome a special guest from the Elk Grove Village Public Library, Miss Kyra Zirlin. Our students enjoyed the opportunity to talk with her about books, libraries, and reading, and had a great opportunity to create beautiful bookmarks. We truly appreciate her time and enthusiasm and hope to welcome Miss Zirlin again in the future for another inspiring visit

Book Club Meeting

We would like to remind all current Book Club members that our meetings will continue into the second semester beginning in January. We look forward to seeing everyone again and continuing our discussions, activities, and shared love of reading. Thank you for being part of our Book Club. We can't wait to start another great semester together!

Don't Forget: The next Book Club Meeting on Monday, January 12 at 3:30 PM in the library. We will discuss the book: Song of a Blackbirds by Maria van Lieshout
