

ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES OF THE MILWAUKEE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

ADMINISTRATIVE POLICY 9.06
GIFTS TO THE SCHOOLS

(1) The superintendent is authorized to accept gifts to particular schools, or to the school system, on behalf of the Board and to report such acceptance to the Board, which shall officially acknowledge the gifts and thank the donors. All such gifts become the property of the Board.

(2) All monies received as gifts or grants shall be deposited in the school operations fund or extension fund, as appropriate, but shall be considered segregated trust funds. The Board shall make use of gifts or grants in the manner specified by the donor; however, in the absence of any specific direction as to the use of the gifts or grants by a donor, the Board will determine the use of a donation or may invest the same in accordance with the requirements of applicable statutes.

(3) In instances in which the superintendent doubts the appropriateness or usefulness of a proffered gift, he/she shall refer the offer to the Board, which shall make a decision on the matter.
