Team Agreements

DAC conversations are held in an environment where respect for all opinions is fostered, and space is provided for challenging and voicing questions and concerns.

Come prepared, stay on topic, and keep to the time. Be clear on tasks, next steps, and task assignment. Additional comments should be added in the chat and reviewed later if time permits.

- Respect all opinions, but don't be afraid to challenge them.
- Definitive tasks/next steps per person
- Keeping time:
 - Have a timekeeper remind us when time is running out for each item/task.
 - Put aside any additional issues until the end of the meeting, time permitting.
 - Remember to use the QR code for any additional comments.
