

Carroll ISD Announces Komal Panjabi as Interim Principal of Eubanks Intermediate School

January 14, 2026 — Southlake, Texas — Carroll Independent School District (CISD) is pleased to announce Ms. Komal Panjabi has been selected as the Interim Principal of Eubanks Intermediate School. Panjabi currently serves as an assistant principal at Carroll High School and brings a decade of experience in Carroll ISD, with a strong background in instructional leadership, student support, and campus culture.

Panjabi has served Carroll ISD for 10 years, including seven years at Durham Intermediate School as a math teacher and three years as an assistant principal at Carroll High School. During her time at CISD, Ms. Panjabi received the distinction of being named the 2020 K–6 District Teacher of the Year.

“Eubanks Intermediate is a special place, and I’m truly honored to step into this role and serve the students, staff, and families of EIS,” said Panjabi. “My goal is to support our outstanding teachers so they can focus on what they do best and ensure every student feels known, valued, and encouraged each day. I’m excited to build relationships, continue the strong traditions at Eubanks, and help our Dragons thrive.”

Panjabi’s educational and professional journey reflects a deep commitment to growth, service, and student success. Born and raised in Hong Kong and later living in the Middle East, she earned her undergraduate degree from James Madison University and her master’s degree from New York University. Prior to joining Carroll ISD, she worked in New Jersey, where she spent 10 years as a part-time early interventionist in special education while raising her family. Panjabi later moved to Texas and joined Carroll ISD.

Current Eubanks Intermediate Principal Ms. Katie Schuttler has accepted an exciting professional opportunity with another district. Schuttler will remain at Eubanks through January 30 to support a smooth and thoughtful leadership transition.

“It has been an incredible honor to serve Eubanks Intermediate and the Carroll community,” said Schuttler. “I am so proud of our students and staff, and I am deeply grateful for the support of our families. Eubanks is a strong campus because of the people in this building, and I know the school will continue to thrive. Ms. Panjabi is an outstanding leader, and EIS will be in wonderful hands.”

Carroll ISD Superintendent Dr. Jeremy Glenn expressed confidence in Panjabi’s leadership and thanked Schuttler for her service to the district.

“Ms. Panjabi is a proven instructional leader who understands the heart of Carroll ISD and what it takes to support students and staff at the highest level,” said Glenn. “She brings experience, warmth, and a strong commitment to relationships and learning, and Eubanks Intermediate will be in great hands under her leadership. We are also incredibly thankful for Ms. Schuttler’s leadership and dedication to the Eubanks community, and we sincerely wish her the very best in her new opportunity.”

