

THE SCHOOL

Since 1858, La Salle has offered young men the opportunity to find their futures within strong spiritual, academic, service, and extra-curricular programs and a focus on preparation for college. Consistently ranked as among the best of the Delaware Valley independent schools in programs and facilities, La Salle's Music Department has over 6,000 square feet of dedicated space that includes a Band and Chorus Room as well as a state-of-the-art MIDI Lab and Recording Studio along with eight instruction rooms.

THE DEPARTMENT

More than 350 students currently study instrumental and choral music in La Salle's Music Department. The Department, noted for local and regional success, offers both beginners and advanced students the opportunity to excel in a challenging and sophisticated program of performance. From the string ensemble to the lab and advanced competition bands to the Belcrofters choral group, La Salle music-makers perform with distinction throughout the Delaware Valley.
