Marple Newtown School District Demographic Study, Nov. 2021

Marple Township is a township in Delaware County, Pennsylvania. It contains the census designated place of Broomall. The population was 23,743 at 2015. ZIP codes include mainly 19008, but also partially 19064 and 19063.

The Delaware County area was first settled by Quakers who came to Pennsylvania by the Delaware River on September 29, 1683. The ship they used was called the Endeavor. Marple Township was originally settled in 1684 and was recognized as a township in the same year.

According to the United States Census Bureau, the township has a total area of 10.5 square miles, of which, 10.2 square miles of it is land and 0.3 square miles of it (2.95%) is water.

The community of Broomall is located in, but is not coterminous with, Marple Township—the township also includes part of the ZIP codes of Springfield and Media. Other villages include Larchmont (also in Newtown Township) and Lawrence Park. Waterways in Marple Township include Crum Creek, Darby Creek, Hotland Run, Springton Lake and Trout Run.

As of the census of 2020, there were 24,214 people, up slightly from 23,428 people in 2010. The 2000 census showed 8,623 households, and 6,415 families residing in the township. The population density was 2,326.1 people per square mile. There were 8,797 housing units at an average density of 862.1/sq mi.

The racial makeup of the township was 92.60% White, 1.10% African American, 0.09% Native American, 5.51% Asian, 0.12% from other races, and 0.59% from two or more races. Hispanic or Latino of any race were 0.66% of the population.

There were 8,623 households, out of which 30.0% had children under the age of 18 living with them, 64.1% were married couples living together, 7.6% had a female householder with no husband present, and 25.6% were non-families. 22.6% of all households were made up of individuals, and 13.0% had someone living alone who was 65 years of age or older. The average household size was 2.64 and the average family size was 3.12.

In the township the population was spread out, with 21.8% under the age of 18, 6.3% from 18 to 24, 24.8% from 25 to 44, 25.0% from 45 to 64, and 22.0% who were 65 years of age or older. The median age was 43 years. For every 100 females there were 89.4 males. For every 100 females age 18 and over, there were 85.1 males.

The median income for a household in the township was $59,577, and the median income for a family was $71,829. Males had a median income of $47,062 versus $32,304 for females. The per capita income for the township was $28,494. About 2.1% of families and 4.6% of the population were below the poverty line, including 3.7% of those under age 18 and 5.0% of those age 65 or over.

Newtown Township is a township in Delaware County, Pennsylvania, United States. Prior to 1789 it was part of Chester County. The population was 12,216 as of the 2010 census.

At the turn of the 20th century, the automobile began to disperse the urban populations over the countryside. The trolleys, along with the new "horseless carriage," transformed the country farmers into suburban commuters. Farms were sold and the land subdivided. Newtown Square boomed. Many city dwellers retained their country estates, however, these became hidden amidst gridiron developments. Although construction slackened during the depression, another boom was experienced after World War II. Some farms and large estates remain, but for the most part, the township was developed into a suburban community with old stone homes and structures dotting the landscape to serve as reminders of days gone by.

According to the United States Census Bureau, the township has a total area of 10.1 square miles of which, 10.0 square miles of it is land and 0.1 square miles of it (0.69%) is water. Its villages include Echo Valley, Florida Park, Larchmont (also in Marple Township,) Newtown Square, and Wyola.

As of the census of 2020, there were 15,002 people, an increase from the 2010 population of 12,216. In 2010, there were 4,549 households, and 3,184 families residing in the township. The population density was 1,166.0 people per square mile. There were 4,690 housing units at an average density of 467.4 per square mile.

The racial makeup of the township was 96.16% White, 0.66% African American, 0.07% Native American, 2.30% Asian, 0.13% from other races, and 0.68% from two or more races. Hispanic or Latino of any race were 0.69% of the population.

There were 4,549 households, out of which 27.6% had children under the age of 18 living with them, 60.4% were married couples living together, 7.2% had a female householder with no husband present, and 30.0% were non-families. 27.2% of all households were made up of individuals, and 15.9% had someone living alone who was 65 years of age or older. The average household size was 2.50 and the average family size was 3.06.

In the township the population was spread out, with 23.1% under the age of 18, 4.9% from 18 to 24, 24.4% from 25 to 44, 25.6% from 45 to 64, and 21.9% who were 65 years of age or older. The median age was 43 years. For every 100 females there were 88.9 males. For every 100 females age 18 and over, there were 83.2 males.

MNSD Mission Statement

The mission of the Marple Newtown School District is to provide appropriate, rigorous educational opportunities for all students in a safe, healthy, and responsive learning environment through a collaborative commitment that involves students, staff, families, and the community. In pursuit of this mission, Marple Newtown School District is committed to preparing students to be responsible citizens in the 21st Century workforce and society. MNSD is committed to collaborating with all stakeholders to support the above mission so that all students are career and college-ready.

MNSD Vision

For all students...

- learning is engaging, meaningful, and relevant
- individual differences are respected
- students will have a proficient understanding of the basic skills needed in core content areas
- students will know how to communicate, collaborate, think critically, and problem-solve in creative ways
- innovative thinking and application to learning will be evident in each classroom
- interests and aspirations will be honored
- availability of and access to necessary resources will be ensured
- educational experiences will foster a commitment of service to others

MNSD Shared Values

Students

We believe that...

- students are entitled to a safe, caring learning environment that provides for interpersonal relationships, positive wellbeing, well researched and evidence based programming, and high-qualified staff.
- it is the responsibility of the district to provide an educational environment that embodies appropriate amounts of learner autonomy, a relatable purpose, and the opportunity to master content so that students have the foundational skills-set needed to succeed in a global community.
- all students can learn.
- it is essential to recruit, retain, and revere high-quality staff.
- collaboration between parents, educators, and the community plays an integral role in student success
- education of our youth occurs through the supported and shared leadership of all stakeholders

Staff

MNSD school staff will act with regard for those around them. Staff will provide a welcoming setting for all stakeholders in the Marple Newtown school community for the purpose of creating an inclusive school environment. Employees will be empathetic to all students, the families they serve, and the mission and values put forth by MNSD. Staff will uphold the standards expected of them as per District goals and the PA Department of Education.

Administration

Administrators will nurture a collaborative environment that includes all stakeholders. All programming for staff and students will be aligned to the mission and values stated in MNSD's Comprehensive Plan. Administrators will monitor student and teacher wellbeing, development, and learning so that each student has access to high-quality instruction that prepares them for a career and/or college.

Parents

Families are invited to share their ideas, concerns, and efforts in our schools. Their consult is important to administrative planning and is evident in our policies and regulations. MNSD and the school community families model the vision and expectations of the District through volunteering, open communication, celebrations, and traditions/rituals, and established routines. MNSD offers parents and guardians an assortment of District sponsored workshops focused on an array of topics related to child development, District operations, wellbeing, and learning.

Community

MNSD and the community at large collaborate to provide District students with experiences that extend beyond the classroom. District and community leaders develop school projects and programs that offer our students experiences in the workforce. The purpose of these learning experiences is to support our students' wellbeing and prepare them for the 21st Century workforce and real-life experiences in their community.
