

The ARIANNE LANE Memorial Scholarship

...Because Every Moment Counts

(formerly The Arianne Creative Arts Scholarship)

Amount: $1,000 non-renewable scholarship

Deadline: March 31, 2026

At 4-years-old Arianne Lane survived a catastrophic illness.

Despite lingering limitations she overcame obstacles with determination and courage.

Arianne was a 2009 graduate of Pueblo South High School and she received the first-ever awarded Pueblo School District 60 (then-titled) Superior Character Award.

She touched and inspired so many people during her short life.

Her favorite high school classes were Visual Arts and ROTC and she was an eight-year member of the Needle Beetles 4-H Club. During her senior year at South High School (utilizing the skills she learned in Visual Arts, ROTC and 4-H) she opened her own small business

(Cards for Life...Because Every Moment Counts) creating and selling hand-made Greeting Cards

This scholarship was established in her memory and honor.

Please attach the following documents to this application:

1. Resume: Resume should include all student and community involvement activities, along with any work experience and awards.

2. Project and/or Essay Topic: Create a project that could become the front of a greeting card utilizing your chosen medium with a minimum 25-word explanation and/or write a minimum 200-word essay. The project with explanation and/or essay should demonstrate your belief in the phrase “Because Every Moment Counts” or how Visual Arts, ROTC or 4-H have impacted your character and your belief in the phrase “Because Every Moment Counts” and how that will ultimately assist you in obtaining your future goals.

NOTE: If the scholarship winner submits a project, The Arianne Lane Memorial Scholarship committee reserves the right to use the image of the project as a greeting card cover. The resulting greeting cards will be sold at upcoming Fundraisers for The Arianne Scholarship. A greeting card category of all current and upcoming scholarship winners will be established at future fundraising activities. All proceeds from the resulting greeting card will go to the scholarship fundraising efforts as we strive to endow her scholarship so that it is able to live on forever. The artist will need to give the rights of the image to the Scholarship Fund to use the original as well as facsimiles in this fundraising endeavor. The identity of the artist will always be recognized on the back of every card.
