 - Justification for Using Charter Bus Instead of School Bus Per Abi Dodson, Head Coach, Boyle County High School Cheerleading:
 - District buses and drivers are needed to run regular daily routes and may not be available for extended out-of-state travel.

- A certified carrier provides an on-board restroom, reducing stops and limiting overall travel time.
- Charter buses allow students to rest and sleep safely while traveling overnight, which is not possible on standard school buses.
- Using a certified carrier with professional CDL drivers supports student safety by ensuring drivers meet required rest, training, and long-distance travel regulations.
- Overnight travel with a certified carrier minimizes the amount of instructional time students must miss.
