Foreword

Adair

The years spent in Washington High School have been profitable and beneficial to each member of the class of '55. We take with us experiences—youthful though they were—that can never be duplicated in our lives. They are memories that should be cherished always. This verbal and pictorial review that we publish as we leave our Alma Mater will preserve those memories, remind us of our early aspirations, give us courage to achieve, and make us ever thankful for dear old Washington!

It is a familiar quotation that says, "The race is not promised to the swiftest, but to him who endureth to the end." One does not reach his goal of himself alone. There are many things, sometimes tangible and sometimes intangible, that helps one along his way. Sometimes these little things are unnoticed until years later. How often have great men attributed their success to others who many times did little more than give them a pat on the back at the opportune moment. With this thought in mind, this Year Book is dedicated with affection and appreciation to those homeroom teachers who guided the class of 1955 to the cherished end. Sometimes they gave a gentle pat on the back to encourage those whose skies were not always blue; other times, their pat was more forceful as they prepared unseasoned minds for an ordered life. They helped each individual to understand himself and his place in the scheme of things. With ideas ever new and always provocative, they dropped little seeds that will inevitably come to full fruition in time. Is this not another way of saying that these teachers to whom this Year Book is dedicated were the guides that helped the class of '55 to enrich their lives?

Our School

Washington—Alma Mater

Washington! O Washington!
Thy name shall be our guide,
For learning, fame, renown and gain
Our gratitude abides.
As long as God's eternal love
Shall hold their portals wide
For God and man in every hand
We'll serve for Washington.

Chorus

Washington! Oh Washington!
Thy name shall be our guide
For God and man in every land
We'll live for Washington.

Washington! O Washington!
Thy name shall never die
Our hearts are thine, thy fame shall shine
O'er earth and sea and sky.
Thy halls shall echo memories,
Thy precepts reign sublime,
Where'er we roam, where'er our home
We'll live for Washington.

Dear Alma Mater, keep our hearts
In dear old Washington
A band of loving schoolmates we
Will live for Washington.
"Vincit qui se vincit"
The lesson thou hast taught
We trust the future may perfect
The work thy hands have wrought.

Washington! O Washington!
March on to victory
For honor bright 'gainst wrong for right
Spread learning everywhere.
"Truth, purity" thy blue and white
With banner held unfurled
Great deeds we'll dare: Do each his share
We'll die for Washington.

CLASS HISTORY

By BARBARA PATTEN

In September of 1950, more than 1,000 boys and girls entered Booker T. Washington High School as eighth grade pupils. It was a strange place to us; it seemed so large, with its long halls and winding stairs. Despite all the assistance given to us by our teachers, we often found ourselves looking for room numbers, moving the wrong direction on the halls, or using the wrong stairways. But finally we began to acquaint ourselves with our new surroundings and the idea of being in high school. For the first few months it was a novelty to be in high school, but as the newness faded, we realized that after all, school is school. Although the work proved a trifle harder, we were not dismayed, for we wanted knowledge.

During our first year, a club was organized among the parents and teachers. It was called "Club '55." Once each month this club sponsored a night of recreation for the students who were to graduate in the class of '55, and through this medium, we came to know our teachers and classmates better.

In the year of '51, a new high school was built in the Dixie Hills section and a large number of the members of our class left us. Most of us regretted to see our classmates and some of our teachers whom we had come to know and love leave Washington High School. Yet, we did not let this stop us. We were eager to learn and were striving toward a higher goal.

Along with our academic work, many of our classmates took part in extra-curricular activities by becoming members of the band, the track team, the basketball team, the Boys Chorus, the Glee Club, the football team and other organizations. Some of our classmates were outstanding in the activities of these groups.

During our years at Washington High, we had the pleasure of seeing a new cafeteria constructed and it has been a real joy to use it.

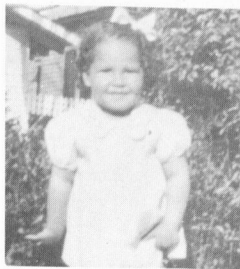

But best of all, in our senior year we were favored with being the first graduating class to christen the new gymnasium.

Another honor that came to us was the election for the first time of a young lady as president of the student body. This title was won by Roslyn Pope, a member of our class. As a group, we are not devoid of talent, for Myrna Smith, Floyd Hutchinson, Corrine Long, Beverly Willis, Roslyn Pope, and Patricia Maddox have distinguished themselves as promising artists.

To us, the election of senior class officers last fall was an important event, for we wanted students with the best ability to steer the activities of our class in this final year. Although it was lots of fun to watch the candidates campaigning and to hear their well-prepared speeches, we gave serious consideration to each one's platform. Finally, election day came, with Jerome Gresham and Johnny Crowder as the victors for the offices of president and vice president, respectively.

Now, we are at the end of one phase of our education and of our lives. We have spent five years at an institution of learning that has striven to give us a foundation upon which we may build. We are now about to face the world, no longer as girls and boys, but as young men and women. It is a strange world that we have to go into, but in the distance there is a horizon that we must endeavor to reach. This horizon is challenging us to travel toward its brilliance without losing our perspective. The challenge is ours and we must meet it as citizens of the world. Our Alma Mater has prepared us for the task that lies before us. We go forth now to meet the challenge with fortitude and determination.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1955, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave our Last Will and Testament.

I, Dorothy Anita Ellison, will my first period in Mr. S. H. Archer's office to Shirley Warner, Monica Idlett. I further will my voice and my basketball suit to anyone crazy enough to take them.

I, Pauline Little, will to Frances Moss my seat in Mr. C. C. Gaines' Physics Class.

I, Ernest Momon, will my seat in the Glee Club to Napoleon Momon.

I, Tommy Bridges, will my ability to be cool, calm, and crazy to Lyrtle Allen.

I, Yvonne Ramey, will to anyone who is capable of "wheeling" my place in Driver Training.

I, Marion Dixon, will my ability to get along with others to Dorothy Clemmons.

I, Curry Murry, in strong mind and body, will to Eugene Manner, my ability to "cut" classes and get by.

I, Barbara Besley, will my position as a senior class officer to anyone capable.

I, Hester "Little Girl" Coe, will my seat in trigonometry to my brother, Robert Lee.

I, Barbara Newman, will to Delores Gresham my seat in Glee Club.

I, Kathleen Arnold, will to Earlene White, the ability to be successful.

I, Marion Aderhold, will to Annie Wilson my five years of good luck.

I, Margaret Ivory, will to LaVerne Redding and Gloria Hollis, all of my good grades.

I, Yvonne Robinson, will to Paul Jewell, my locker on the third floor.

I, Betty Palmer, will to my brother, George Palmer, my ability to do my very best in all classes.

I, Carrie Witherspoon, will my position as second teacher of the majorettes to Jean Hammonds.

I, Richard Jewell, will my ability to play a clarinet to any worthy student.

I, Julia Dixon, will my seat in Physics to Ethellean Hall.

I, Roslyn Pope, hereby will my position as President of the Student Government to my brother, Webster Pope.

I, Eldridge McMillan, will my band uniform, No. 44, to Ulysses Heard.

I, Rosanna Mayfield, will my ability to look meek and yet be the opposite to Laverne Hardy.

I, Benjamin Anthony, will to anyone interested the ability to remember, if they are not afraid to think.

I, Marjorie Hagans, will to my sister, Marianne Hagans, my ability to be on the honor roll.

I, Mary Glover, will to Rose Marie Byron my ability to keep friendly with the boys, ignoring what the girls have to say.

I, Peggy Johnson, will all my love to Michael Watson, and my Physics seat to Carolyn Jenkins.

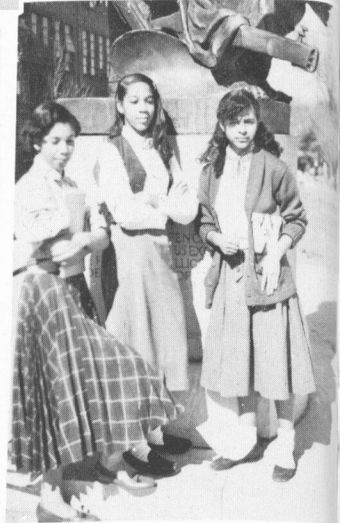

I, Frank Fannin, will my brushes and pallet to James Adair.

I, Eugene Sims, will my ability to sing to Ruth Coleman.

I, Joyce Brayboy, will my seat in Mr. Martin's trigonometry class to anyone who will make fewer mistakes than I have.

I, Jerome Gresham, will the presidency of the senior class, the presidency of the Glee Club, and the editorship of the school paper to anyone who is capable.

I, Barbara Patten, will to my brother, Edward, the ability to finish high school, and to Ruth Coleman my seat in Algebra 5.

I, Sarah Lyons, will to Eddie Lou Gatlin, my seat in Mr. Martin's Algebra 5 class at the sixth period.

I, Shirley Worthem, will to my brother, Donald, My place in the Cavalcade to play his saxophone.

I, William Nelson, will to the boys my ability to refrain from drinking and smoking.

I, Marian Venessia Owens, will to my sister, Frankie, a bit of my ability to write "Love Poems."

I, Glenneze Harris, will to Marion Bufford my ability to get Mr. Martin's mathematics, and to Sallie Polland my basketball suit.

I, Vertina Luruth Clark, will to my brother, Asa, the ability to get English.

I, Barbara Hancock, will to Loretta Gilbert, Doris Pope, and William Berry, my ability to have fun, but to know when to be serious.

I, Johnnie Mae Colbert, will to Joyce Rankin and Vivian Askew my scholastic ability, and my seat in physics to anyone who is crazy enough to take it.

I, Shirley Goss, will to Edward Kemp my seat in Mr. Phillips' English class, and to Vivian Askew and Barbara Prather the ability to study hard and have fun too.

I, Mamie Peters, hereby will to Larue Wyatt my seat in Mr. Gaines' Physics class, my position as president of the Biological Science Club to James Adair and to my sister, Frances, the ability to be serious and study.

I, Charles Usher, will my love and best wishes for good luck to Verdine Simpson.

I, Marilyn Louise Aderhold, will to Barbara Dobbs, wishes for the best of luck and success during her last year.

I, Selena Gordon, in this time of graduation, will to Barbara Prather my position as secretary of the Junior Class and the ability to be a good loser when running for secretary of the Senior Class.

I, Delores Freeland, will to my sister, Alice, my seat and English textbook in Mrs. Taylor's room and hope that she does more with it than

I did. To Willodean Overby, I will my seat in Mr. Gaines' Physics class.

I, Vivian Mack, will to my sister, Betty my seat in Mr. W. H. Cleveland's room and my ability to make deposit slips in Mr. Smith's office.

I, Myrtle Byrd, will my didapidated seat in Mrs. Modiste's class to Vivian Welch.

I, David (Cocky Joe) Johnson, will to George (Duke) Gilford my ability to get lessons without much study.

I, Jeff David, "Panama" Hutchinson, will to Celestine Louise "Bright Eyes" Bray all of my possessions and my ability to run to George Copher.

I, Bobby "Pudding Head" Howell, will all my French knowledge to Gertrude Harris and Sinclair Head, with the hope that they will struggle as hard as I did.

I, Cassandra Bowen, will to my brother, Jamarjo, my seat in Mr. Gaines' Physics class, and to Durbin Weldon my ability to be successful in Latin.

I, Rubye Davis, will to Eleanor and William Guest the ability to be liked by everyone and be your own sweet self at all times.

I, Sarah Ann Wilson, will to my sister, Carol Virginia, best wishes for success in her endeavors to finish high school.

I, Maxine Walter, will to Annette Harris and Incz Gibson the ability to do well in all my classes. To Winfred Jones, I will the ability to listen attentively.

I, Mignon Ethelyne Nance, being of sound mind (I think) will to Joyce Nelson, Laurie Anna, and Judy Rogers the ability to enjoy five wonderful years at B. T. W. and to keep many friends. I further will to Joyce Nelson my crown as "Miss Washington."

I, Edward Willie James Scroggins, will to Edward Kemp the ability to come to school on time every day.

I, June Hector, will Lynne Thompson and Vivian Welch my ability to keep an "A" average in English.

I, Ernestine Gwendolyn Phinnizee, will to Bobby McKibbin the ability to have lots of fun and yet maintain a good high school record. I further will to Junette Allen my seat in Mrs. Flagg's room.

I, Juliette Christine Patmon, will to Helen Patmon and Delores Harding the ability to keep sailing smoothly.

I, Anita Lorraine Lattimore, will the third seat in Mrs. Chaires' Democratic Problems class to Argenia Dixon. May she succeed in that class.

I, Estella Clark, will to Pearline Barksdale, Maurice Moore, and Frances Craft the ability to make "A's" and "B's" and to keep sweet at all times.

I, Bendolyn Handspike, will to Anita Alexander and Louise Knowles the ability to be neat, clean, and friendly at all times.

I, Joan Wales, will my position in Mrs. Jackson's office to my sister, Gwendolyn.

I, Ruth Morgan, will to my two nieces, Toni Rene White and Melissa Westbrook, the ability to be neat at all times.

I, Vivian Antoinette Grimmette, will my study hour to my sister, Carrie Nell, and my personality to Patricia Craig.

I, Louise Roberts, will the ability to be punctual to my sister, Jeanette.

I, Dorothy Grier, will to Betty Williams and Jessie Mae Hill my ability to study hard.

I, Betty J. Glaze, will to my brother, Charles, the ability to come to school and make the honor roll. I also will to Barbara J. Jordan my seat in Physics.

I, Oatry Covington, will to my sister, Annie Jean, my seat in Mr. Gaines' Physics class, and I will my seat in Mrs. I. G. Johnson's geometry class to anyone who is stupid enough to take it.

I, Fannie Johnson, will to my sister, Betty, my ability to get on the honor roll and remain there.

I, Joan Wilkerson, will to my sister, Cynthia, my seat in Mr. C. C. Gaines' Physics class.

I, Mary A. Drain, will to Eddie Mae Poole and Louise Johnson my ability to always keep a cool head.

I, Grace Joy Traylor, being of sound mind, will my Physics seat to Vernon Smith, knowing it will be used to the best advantage.

I, Alvenia Davis, being of sound mind and good health, will my position as president of the Library Club to Amesic Fears, the ability to have perfect attendance to Darlene Watson, and my Physics seat to Carol Ruth Parker.

STANDARDS

We all make mistakes,
No matter how we try,
For we are but human,
We bleed and we cry;
We stumble and fall,
And get up again,
Striving to live by
The standards of men.

But we would fare better,
If each roadway we trod,
Abiding instead by
The standards of God!

ADIEU, ALMA MATER

Class Song

By SELENA GORDEN

Dear Alma Mater, ere we part,
"Farewell," we sadly say
We fondly look upon your walls,
As we go on our way.

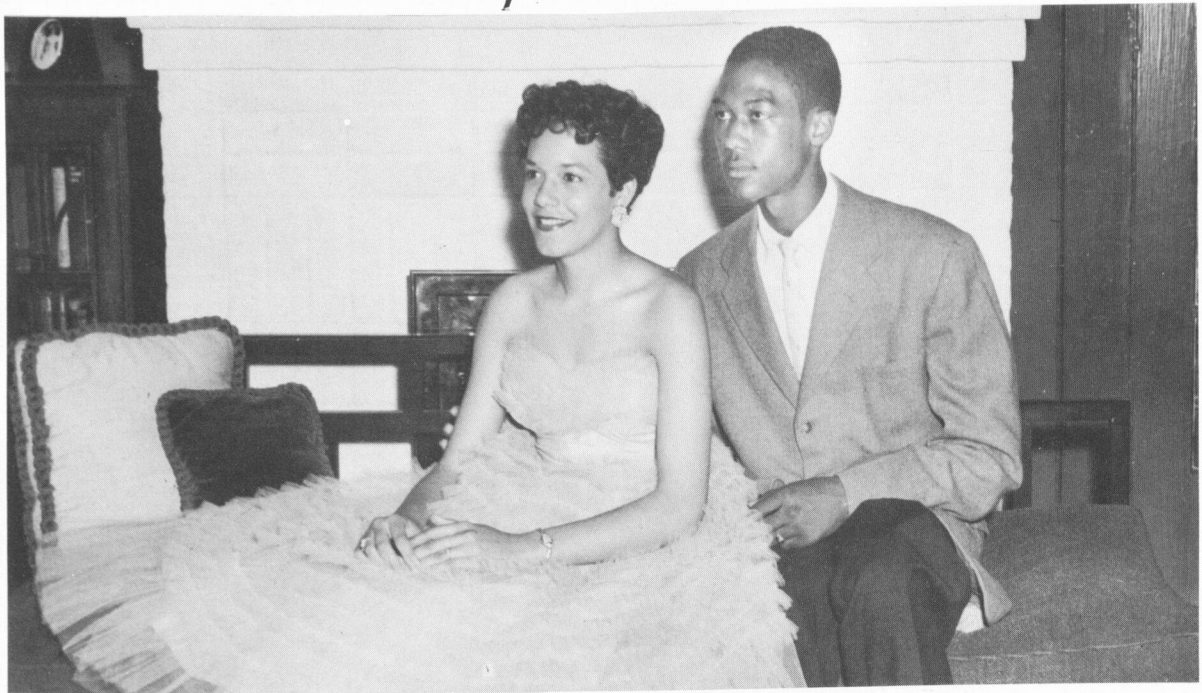

There's ache, there's pain within our hearts—
That's what we feel for you;
We'll cherish every moment spent
Within your portals true.

We've worked, we've toiled, we've sung,
we've played,
While learning by thy rule,
The praise we get we'll share with you,
Forever, Mother School!

Through many disillusioned times,
Your workmen helped us on
With gratitude we think of them—
God bless each one we've known.

Adieu! Our Alma Mater dear
Adieu! School that we love,
May all that's yours be filled with joy
And blessings from above.

FAREWELL, DEAR WASHINGTON

Now 'midst many smiles and tears,
We bid our school farewell,
But memories of our happy years,
In each one's heart shall dwell.
Though we must leave, Dear Washington,
Our hearts will stay with you,
And we will strive, as time goes on,
To be forever true.

We'll keep the lessons you have taught,
Before us as our guide,
And all the good that you have wrought,
Forever shall abide.
Now that our days with you are done,
We'll keep your memory;
The battle that we fought is won,
Thank God for victory!

YOU ARE THERE !!

and JOY TRAYLOR

The Time June 2, 1964
The Place Atlanta, Georgia
Scene A Magnificent Ballroom

There is a ballroom excelling in gaiety, with colorful decorations and a beautiful marble dance floor. There is a fifty-piece orchestra and flowers adorn the tables. Tonight is June 2, 1965 and it is the reunion party given in honor of the Booker T. Washington High School class of 1955.

The guests are now arriving. First, that great painter, Frank Fannin, and his wife, the vocalist, Marie Woodard. Now arriving is the former "Miss America" . . . Mignon Nance, wearing a gown designed by that famous Paris designer, June Hector. Mignon is escorted by Joseph Pace, Governor of Haiti. Seen now are politician Robert L. Johnson with his charming wife, the former Joan Wilkerson.

Among the alumni seen are Alvenia Davis, librarian at Atlanta University and her assistant, Edith Green. Joy Traylor, president of Spelman College, Maxine Walter, Betty Palmer, Melbahu Ross, Janice Bottoms, Eva Stroud, and Mamie Peters are noted professors at Radcliff College.

President of the United States, Jerome L. Gresham, and the First Lady of the White House, former Barbara Newman, are seen talking with Vice President of the United States, Johnny C. Crowder, and wife, former designer, Ola Kinsey. Others seen at the table are Secretary of State, Barnett Smith, brain surgeon Robert Powell, and that noted singer, Selena Gordon.

Conover models Patricia Acey, Joan Stanley, Georgia Gartrell, Gwendolyn Phillips, Gendolyn Handspike and Johnny Colbert, and cover girl Patricia Driver caught the eyes of those playboys Ernest Momon, Bobby Howell, James Keller, Lawrence McCrary, Bobby Aaron and Wayne Wright.

Honored guests included N. A. A. C. P. president, William Jones, governor of New York; Robert Johnson, attorney; James Jones and former "Mr. America," William Johnson. Athletes Charlie Hubbard, pro-football player Charles Sheppard and Robert Hamilton, now with the Harlem Globe Trotters, tennis stars Glenneze Harris, Virginia Johnson, Louise Cox, and Lillie Patrick were talking over old times.

Herman Thornton and Eldridge McMillan are discussing plans for a new dam project in Puerto Rico. National Broadcasting Company president, Curry Murray is being entertained merrily with TV personalities Peggy Johnson, Dorothy Ellison, Miriam Byrd, Dannie Porter, Cora Gunby, William Nelson, and Betty Glaze.

Before the program begins, Floyd Hutchinson, noted tenor is seen talking to his wife, the former Oatry Covington, poetress. Also seen is concert conductor of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, Cleveland Williams, taking a breather before the program.

The program is made up of displays of the talent of such stars as famous pianist Roslyn Pope, Metropolitan Opera singers Myrna Smith and Patricia Maddox, cellists Gaynell Scott and Cassandra Bowen, violinist Corrinne Long, and a quartet comprised of Eugene Sims, Edward Scroggins, Alvin Barron, and Jeff Hutchinson.

During intermission many more guests are seen, such as Benjamin Logan, owner of a chain of publishing houses, the members of the Gourmet Club, Joel Smith, Marvin Swift, Carter Tatum, Rudolph Turner, Charles Usher, and Wayne Thompson, who are really enjoying the wonderful food. Seen together are Admiral Theodore Austell and his wife, the former Gwendolyn Smith, talking with bandleader Kenneth Wynn and his wife, Columnist Fannie Johnson. Seen are Vertina Clarke, Marian Owens, Joan Freeland, Joan Anthony, and Margaret Ivory, teachers at a girls' school founded by Jean Sims, and competitors for the Nobel Prize in Science, Barbara Patten and Jacquelyn Smith, and gospel singer, Rutene Bussev.

Attention is brought back to the program as Shirley Worthem begins to sing that song we all remember, "Unchained Melody." A dance number was done by some of the members of the Rockettes, Loretta Young, Carrie Wither- spoon, Myrtle Byrd, Delores Miller, Ernestine Phinnizee, Shirley Goss, and Sarah Wilson. A piano duet is furnished by the concert pianists Joan Shrap and Bevely Willis.

Writing about this momentous occasion are columnists Tony Watts, Joan Stanley, Joyce Brayboy and Betty Jackson. There are Richard Jewell, famous aeronautical engineer, and his wife, Yvonne Robinson, who is head of the Sociology Department at Ohio State.

As the band plays that delightful old favorite, "Goodnight, Sweetheart," and the curtains are about to close, happiness is written upon the faces of many tonight; the bells within every heart are reflected by every eye; even the star-filled sky seems to possess an awareness of the light, vivacious occasion, for this night, June 2, 1965, commemorates the magnificent reunion of the class of 1955. YOU WERE THERE!

The test of a man is the fight that he makes
The grit that he daily shows
The way he stands on his feet and takes
Fate's numerous bumps and blows.
A coward can smile when there is naught to fear
When nothing his progress bars,
But it takes a man to stand up and cheer
While some other fellow stars.

It's the knocks that you take and the jolts you get
The shock that your courage stands
The hour of sorrow and vain regret
The prize that escaped your hands
That test your mettle and prove your worth.
It isn't the blows that you deal
But the blows you take on this good old earth
That show if your stuff is real.

TREES

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree:
A tree whose hungry mouth is pressed
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;
A tree that looks to God all day,
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;
A tree that may in summer wear
A nest of robins in her hair,
Upon whose bosom snow has lain,
Who intimately lives with rain.
Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

—Joyce Kilmer

Lower section above: The Student Government officers assemble in the library with their sponsor, Mr. W. H. Scruggs (standing on left). Roslyn Pope (standing in center), the president, draws smiles from all as she talks. Bottom picture: The Toastmasters are ready to sip frappe. Mr. A. R. Phillips, second from right, is the sponsor.

The Northside High Y-Teens and a group of Washington High Y-Teens hold joint meeting. Mrs. W. J. Jones sponsors the Washington High group.

Members of the Red Cross Club are pleased with the demonstration in administering artificial respiration, as their smiles show. Miss M. M. Magsby (at extreme right), the sponsor, also has an expression of satisfaction.

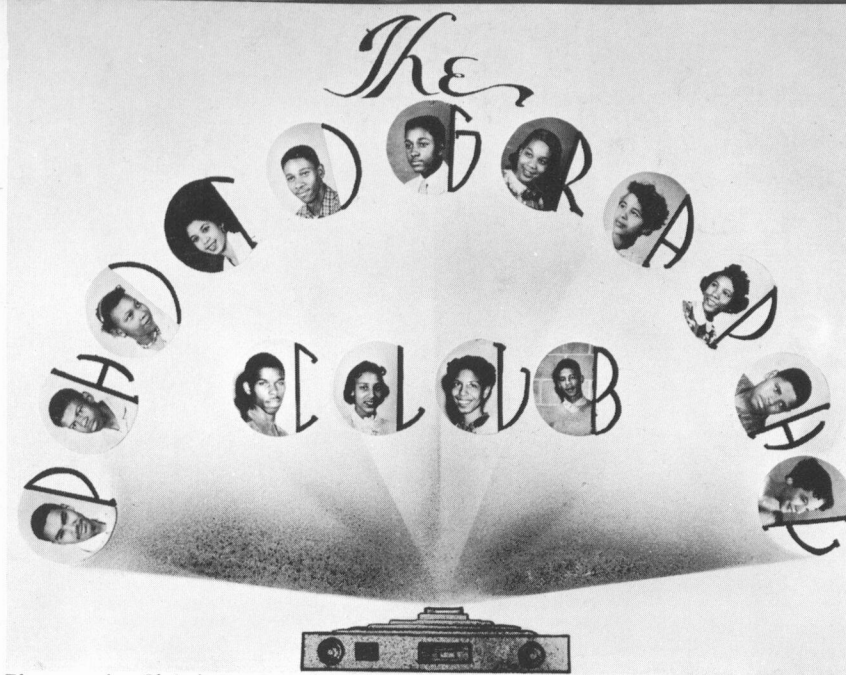

It takes many people and much work to publish a school paper, as members of the Washingtonian staff can tell you. Here the group reviews a previous edition. Messers E. C. Tate, F. V. Elliott, and H. B. Dodson are the sponsors.

Even if one is too young to drive, it helps to know all the rules and regulations. That is the purpose of the BEGINNERS DRIVING CLUB, according to Mr. R. M. Grier, the sponsor.

Tenth graders have an extra-curricular interest in Social Science, so they have formed the Tenth Grade Social Science Club. Mr. E. G. Cleveland (extreme right) sponsors this club.

The Photography Club is sponsored by Mr. G. H. Rice and Mr. R. P. M. Bowden. Members pictured are, left to right: W. Hammond, C. Robinson, Y. Robinson, M. Smith, R. Jewell, B. Smith, J. Hector, L. Cox, O. Kinsey, F. Lowery, M. Nance, J. Bridges, O. Covington, M. Beavers, V. Smith.

CLASSROOMS

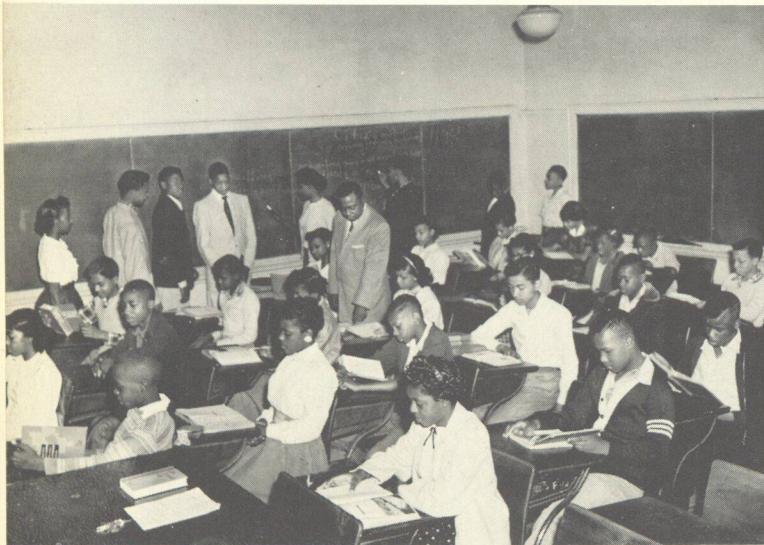

These beautiful scenes were done by classes in art under the direction of Mr. A. L. Waters.

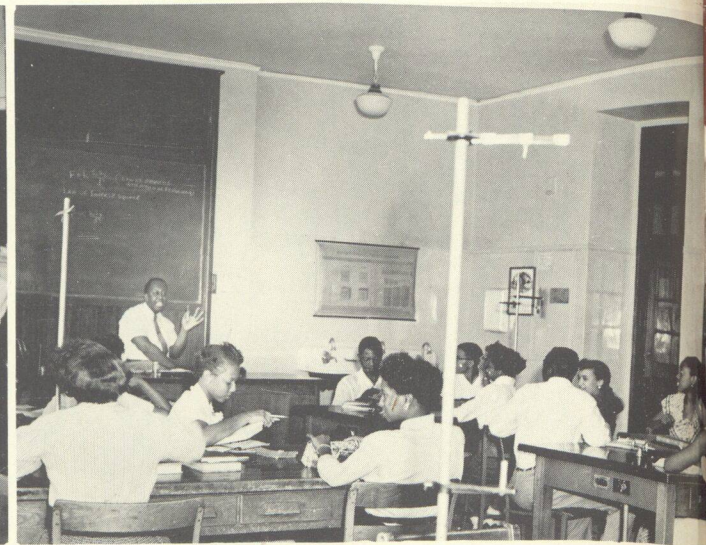

This biology class studies plant life under the supervision of the instructor, Mrs. E. S. Murry.

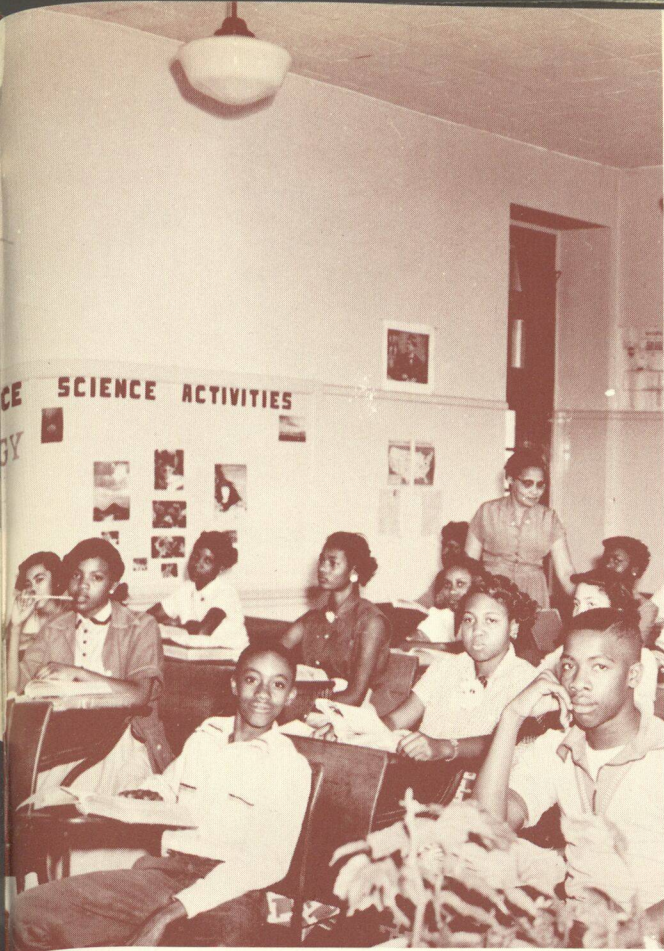

Lt. R. L. Crawford addresses the class in Driver Training. Seated are Mr. H. S. Powell, instructor, and Myrna Smith, who introduced the speaker.

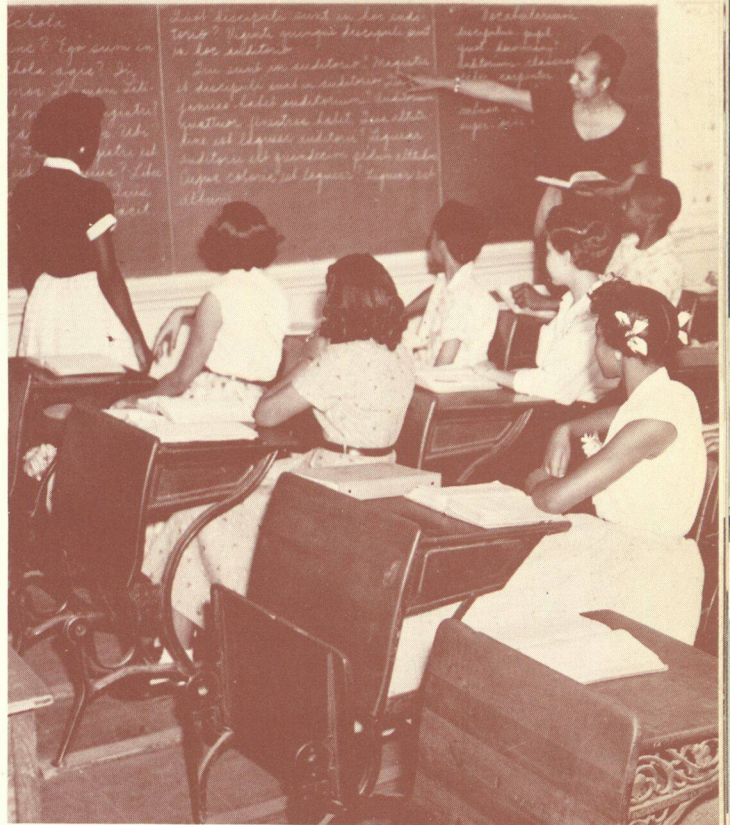

"I know the answer," the student with raised hand says in Mr. Gaines' Physics class.

An eighth grade Citizenship class studies about the community, as they are supervised by the instructor, Mr. W. F. Bradley.

Miss W. M. Ramsey instructs a class in General Physical Science.

All eyes are upon Mrs. E. R. Robinson as she points out a Latin expression to her class.

"Spanish is fun," Miss C. E. Flagg's students seem to be saying.

Mrs. C. O. Cottrell, practice teacher from Clark College, instructs an English class, as Mrs. E. M. Austell looks on.

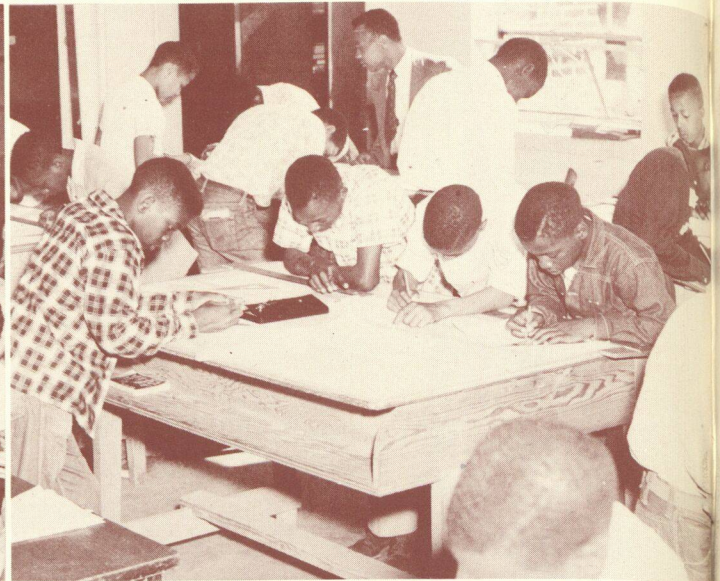

Algebra 5 class as taught by Mr. L. H. Martin

Mrs. G. M. Chaires instructs a class in Social Problems.

Doing an assignment in Social Problems is this class that is taught by Miss S. M. Cunningham.

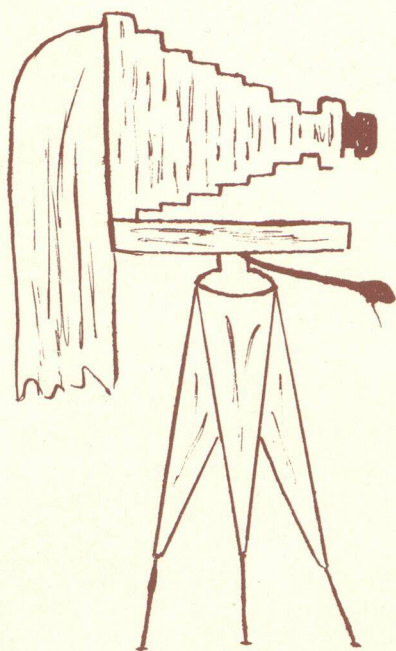

Mr. J. G. Rance teaches a class in Industrial Arts.

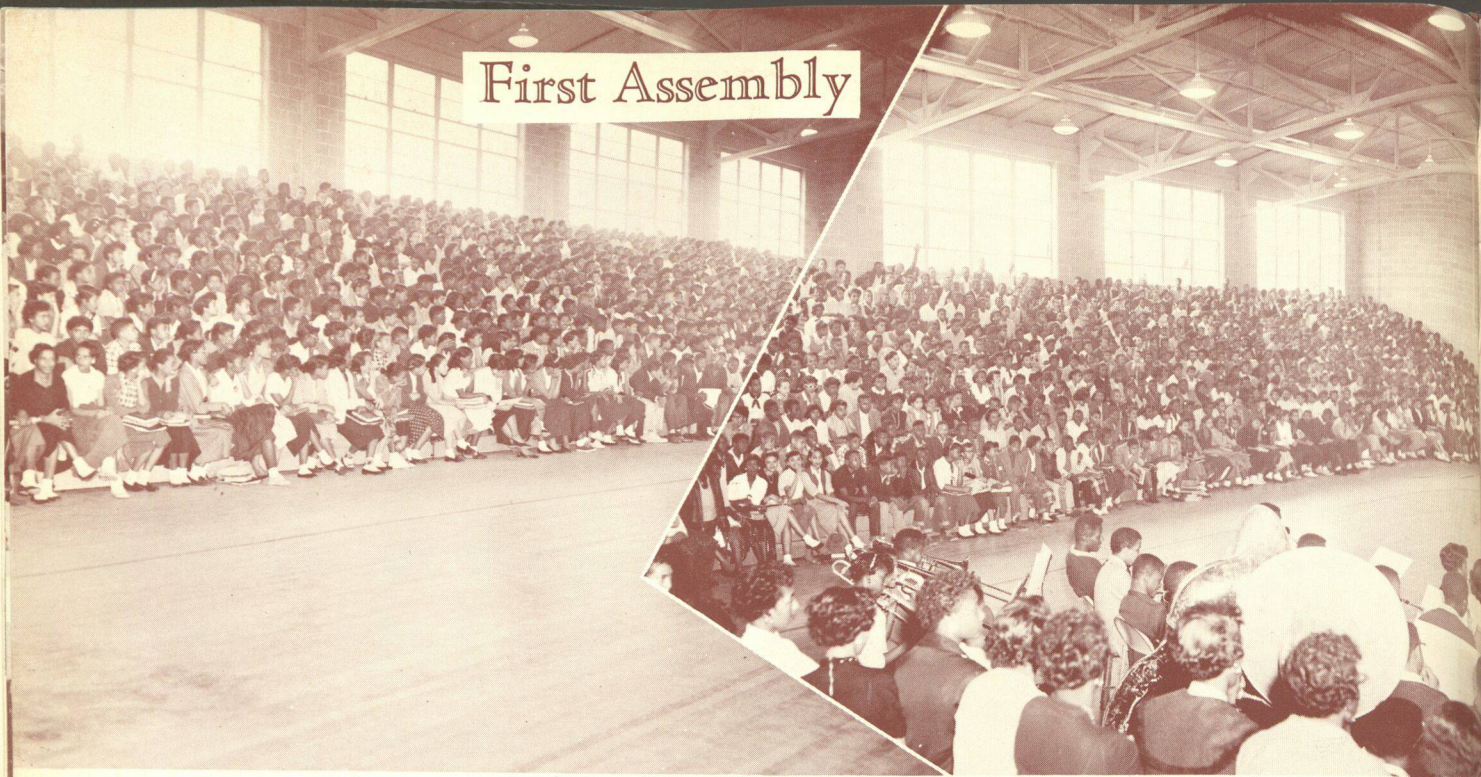

Boys and girls work together in Mrs. F. W. Flanders homemaking class.

FEATURES

First Assembly

Students dedicate the new gymnasium with their first assembly of the student body. The north and south sections are shown.

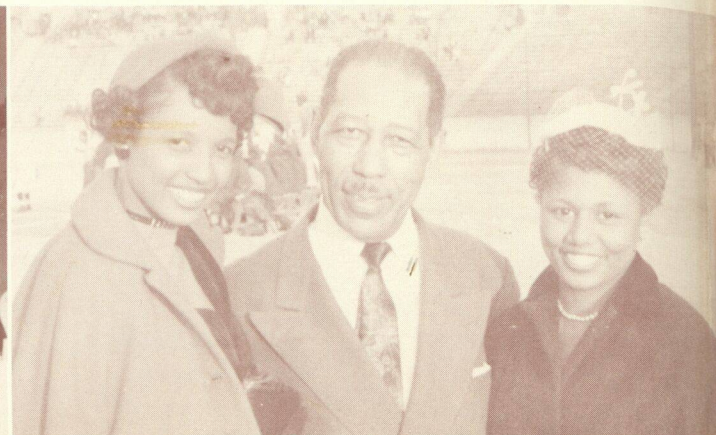

Mr. L. H. Martin is caught unawares by the camera. Whether its Algebra 5, Geometry, or Trig., that man will really get you.

Mignon Nance, "Miss Washington," poses with Jerome, Gresham, President of the Senior Class.

Parents and students "get together" on Senior Parents Night.

Even the principal had a girl at the homecoming game. Here he poses with two charmers, Misses Sylvia Lee and Helen Wright, former school queens.

The Liberian
President's Visit to
B. T. W.

Mr. Tubman, President of Liberia, approaches the school after leaving his car. From left to right are: The Liberian ambassador, Dr. R. E. Clement, President of Atlanta University; President Tubman, and Mr. C. N. Cornell, Principal, Washington High School.

Mignon Nance, "Miss Washington"; Joseph Pace, and Roslyn Pope, Vice President and President of the Student Government, respectively, pose with President Tubman and others.

This group of Washington High students and Principal Cornell are proud of their possession—an autograph by President Tubman, one of the few that he gave while in this country.

Beverly Willis, an aspirant for the Graham W. Jackson Award, holds the cherished cup while chatting with Mr. Jackson in his studio. Roslyn Pope and Corrine Long are also aspirants from the class of '55. The Graham Jackson Award is presented annually to the Washington High School senior who excels in music. Mr. Jackson's purpose in making this presentation is to encourage students to develop a deeper interest in the piano and other musical instruments. To qualify for the award, a student must appear in at least one recital, be active in his church, and play two or more instruments, in addition to being a good school citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham W. Jackson, donors of the annual award, are shown in an informal pose with their handsome son, Graham W., Jr.

"Organic Synthesis" was one of the projects Vernon Smith chose for presentation at the High School Science Fair. Here he watches very closely for the distillation of Styrene, a chemical to be used in his experiment of synthetic rubber. He won first prize for his synthetic products.

Alonzo Lester Thomas is explaining the structure of pattern of the atom Silicon. He was awarded first prize at the Science Fair for his atomic model.

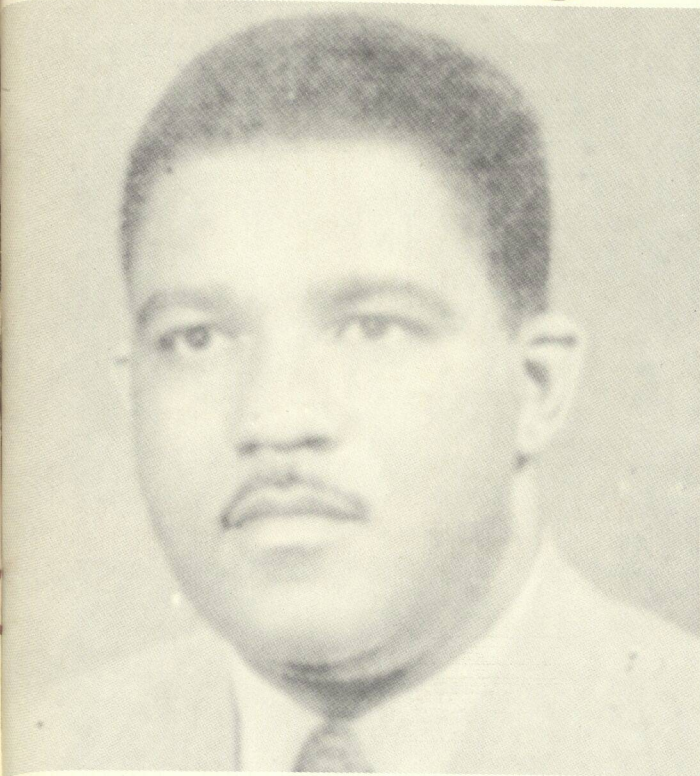

In these times everyone should be civil defense conscious. These students impressed the public with their demonstration at the Science Fair.

Vernon Smith shows the effectiveness of his rust remover at the Fair. This project won for him another first prize.

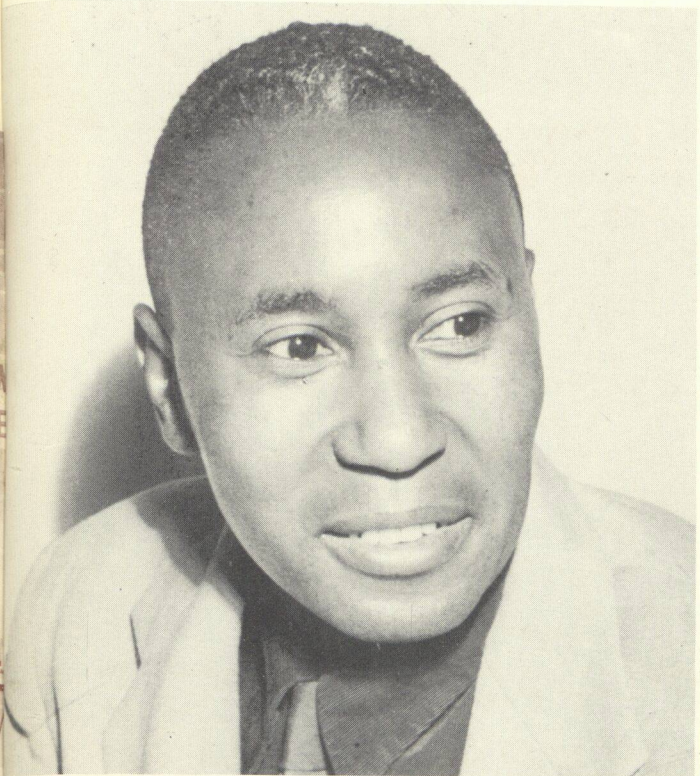

Alumni You Should Know

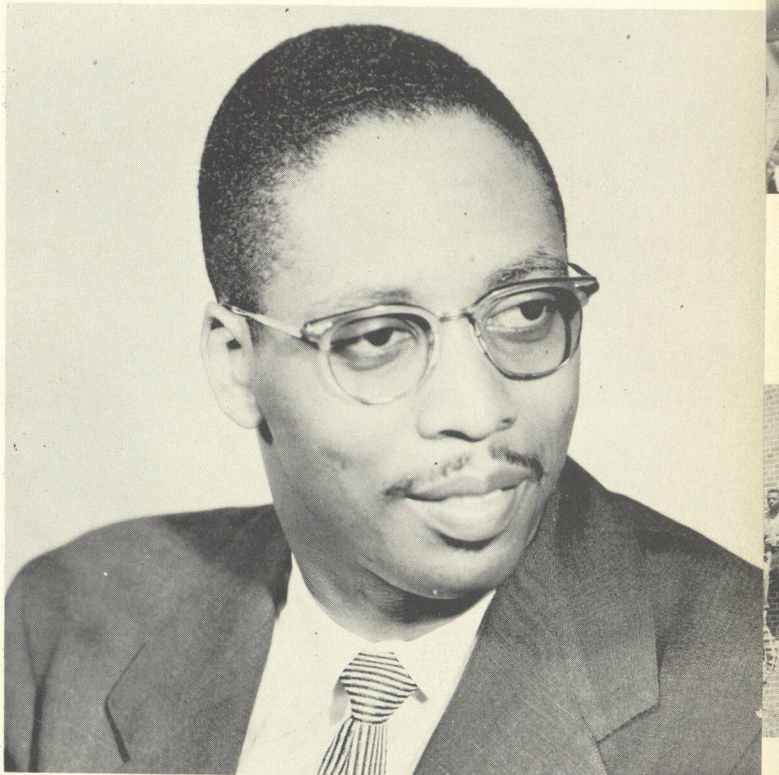

Dr. E. H. Ellison—Following his graduation from Washington High School, Dr. Ellison attended Morehouse College, where he received the B. S. Degree. Following his graduation from Meharry Medical College with the M. D. Degree, Dr. Ellison established offices in Atlanta, where he is now a practicing physician.

Attorney Romae Turner Powell, '43. Mrs. Powell's undergraduate work was done at Spelman College. She later graduated from the Howard University School of Law. Mrs. Powell is now a member of the Georgia bar and is a practicing attorney in Atlanta.

Mr. Joe Winston, '33, received the A. B. degree from Clark College in 1937. He has been engaged in YMCA work for several years and is now Director of Boys' work for the Butler Street "Y".

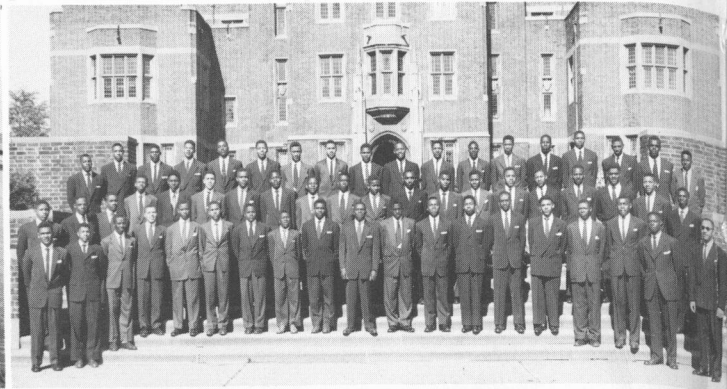

Dr. C. Clayton Powell, '44, received the B. S. Degree from Morehouse College in 1948. His graduate work was done at the University of Chicago. He is a vision specialist and Director of the Powell Vision Clinic.

CLARK COLLEGE

ATLANTA, GEORGIA

An Education Offers Greater Opportunities

DID YOU EVER HEAR A 16-YEAR-OLD GIRL CRY HERSELF TO SLEEP BECAUSE SHE COULDN'T GO ON TO COLLEGE WITH HER HIGH SCHOOL CLASSMATES?

When your daughter is ready for college, will you be ready—financially? A perplexing question, isn't it?

She is making ready for college NOW! Each lesson and each yearly upward move from grade to grade is part of her preparation—so it is likely you have asked yourself: What am I doing to make ready?

In anticipating increasing costs of a college education, the Atlanta Life has devised a "make-ready" plan which can end your worry over the college fund problem—in addition to bringing joy to the heart of your daughter or son.

Ask one of our representatives to come and talk over the plan with you. He will doubtless be able to save you many dollars, and do a more effective job of assuring you and your loved ones of future financial security.

DON'T DELAY — DO IT TODAY!
