

Resolution of the Dallas Independent School Board of Trustees

WHEREAS, the 89th Texas Legislature convened in regular session between January 14, 2025 and June 2, 2025; and

WHEREAS, Texas Election Code section 41.0052(a) allows the governing body of political subdivision and section 41.0052(f) allows the governing body of an independent school district that holds general elections for officers on a date other than the November uniform election date to change the date on which it holds its general election for officers to the November uniform election date in odd-numbered years; and

WHEREAS, Texas Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, Article 2783d requires the election date for Dallas Independent School District's Trustee elections to coincide with the election date of city officers for the largest city wholly or partly located within the Dallas Independent School District; and

WHEREAS, the City of Dallas voted on November 12, 2025, to change its general elections for the purpose of electing members of the City Council from the May uniform election date in odd-numbered years to the November uniform election date in odd-numbered years; and

WHEREAS, the Dallas College voted on December 2, 2025, to change its general election for the purpose of electing members of the Dallas College Board of Trustees from the May uniform election date in odd-numbered years to the November uniform election date in odd-numbered years; and

WHEREAS, the Dallas Independent School District currently holds its general elections on the May uniform election date every year and seeks to remain in compliance with the requirements of Texas Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, Article 2783d; and

WHEREAS, the Dallas Independent School District is authorized by Texas Education Code section 11.059(e) to change the length of the terms of its trustees from three years to four years until the date the November election is canvassed at any time before December 31, 2030; and

WHEREAS, the Dallas Independent School District desires for its general election for the purpose of electing members of the Board of Trustees to be held jointly with the City of Dallas and Dallas College, changing from May to the November uniform elections in odd-numbered years, and ultimately changing the length of Trustee terms of office from three years to four years.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Trustees of the Dallas Independent School District:

Section 1: Shall hold all future general elections for the purpose of electing members of the Board of Trustees on the November uniform election date in odd-numbered years and change the length of Trustee terms of office from three-year terms to four-year terms beginning in November 2027, as described in Section 2 below.

Section 2: Districts 2, 6, and 8 shall hold elections in May 2026 and have three-year terms of office expiring in November 2029. Districts 1, 3, and 9 will extend their terms of office until November 2027 and shall hold elections for four-year terms of office expiring in November 2031. Districts 4, 5, and 7, by agreement or drawing lots, shall have one such Trustee's term of office extended to November 2029, and two such Trustees' terms of office reduced by one year to expire in November 2027. For the avoidance of doubt, elections for all districts beginning in November 2027 and thereafter shall be for four-year terms.

Adopted this 18th day of December 2025, by the Dallas Independent School District Board of Trustees.

President, Board of Trustees

ATTEST:

Secretary, Board of Trustees
