

Dietary Preference Form for Meal Modification

Please fax or email the completed form to D51 Nursing Services. Fax: (970) 245-0825.

Who should use this form? This form should only be used for undiagnosed food allergies/intolerances, food preferences, general health concerns or ethical/cultural/religious reasons. Only limited accommodations will be provided without supporting documentation from a medical professional.

For medical conditions or allergies that have been diagnosed by a licensed medical professional please use the "Medical Statement" form, which is available on D51 Website.

Changing or Discontinuing a Special Diet Request. Once this form has been submitted and approved, the meal modifications will continue until a parent or legal guardian requests that the modifications be changed or stopped. If the student's condition changes, a parent/guardian must submit a new form to D51 Nursing Services. If an accommodation is no longer needed, a parent/guardian must submit the request in writing using a "Special Diet Discontinuation Form", which is available from D51 Website.
