If you want to guarantee that you get a senior dedication for your child, and if you want to guarantee that you get the size that you want, then complete your design and complete your purchase online at YearbookOrderCenter.com by Dec. 18.

First come, first served. No saving space. Ads are considered complete once a confirmation number is received after the ad is designed and purchased.

Ads are designed online. Proofread and make sure your ad is complete before payment.

Payment is made online once the ad is designed.

Please note that if you receive an alert saying the date has passed prior to the deadlines listed above, the size you selected might be sold out. You might try a smaller size if those are still available.
