In the 7th Grade WiffleBall Tournament of Donuts yesterday, the playoff game between the Princess Loosleys and Abate MegaKnights enthralled the audience. Princess Andrew Fosmark hit a home run right off the bat - no pun intended - foreshadowing the victory yet to come for his team.... But not before, the Knights responded with four runs thanks to home run hitter Cody Padilla. The two teams tied up 5-5 in the second inning and really set the crowd on fire. In the third inning, the MegaKnights earned two more runs - bringing their score up to seven, but the Princesses did not lose hope! They hit a series of safe and solid singles that ultimately won them the ball game! The final score was Princess Loosleys 8 to Abate Mega Knights 7! There is no game today due to the school Spelling Bee! The tournament will resume tomorrow!
