VALUES AND BELIEFS

At Albert Cammon Middle School, our values and beliefs govern our school and guide every decision we make. These are our guiding principles:

We believe our...

- ▶ students are the primary focus of all decisions we make.
- ▶ students thrive in an emotionally and physically safe, risk-free environment.
- ▶ faculty/staff foster opportunities to build relationships among students, families, and the community through communication and collaboration.
- ▶ students can learn and are provided support through instructional materials based upon individual need.
- ▶ students learn best when they are actively engaged in meaningful lessons and activities, including self-reflection and self-evaluation.
- ▶ faculty/staff ensure our students' academic achievement and continuous improvement.
- ▶ students excel in a caring environment which offers a variety of extracurricular opportunities and supports diversity.
