12. Reports/Comments

12.1 Board Members

Mrs. Alexander congratulated San Bernardino City for their excellent Veteran's Day program and resource fair and stated it was great to see Chief Paulino's wife, Elsie, who was one of the honorees for her years of service. She reported she attended the C-STEM Community event along with community leaders, parent groups and many educators. She gave a shoutout to Dr. Clyde and his staff for doing an excellent job and the commitment to both primary and secondary education is great and she learned that all each of our middle schools have a component of STEAM. She thanked Ana Applegate for her leadership.

Mrs. Grande reported on attending the recent HACU and La Cosecha conferences and stated she learned a lot at both.

Dr. Wyatt gave a shoutout to our local high school football teams that were in the recent playoffs, commenting that Pacific High School's team did an outstanding job this year after not having a team last year. Although the teams are out now, he wanted to let them know how very proud we are of them.

Mrs. Ceballos reported she attended a recent DELAC meeting commenting she is very proud of their board members and how they have grown into their positions and that they are doing a great job. She also reported she attended ACSA's leadership summit to support Superintendent Arellano on his recognition as State Superintendent of the Year stating the Board is very proud of this honor. Last, she reported she attended the Business Services team leadership meeting with Mr. Cornick and his staff.

Members Rosales-Medina, Santos, and Tillman had no comments this evening.
