

System-Wide Field Trip Permission Form

The student will be under the complete authority of those authorized to sponsor and chaperone the trip. Any student that disregards directions given by the chaperones that are in charge are subject to being excluded from any future trip for the rest of the school year. If immediate disciplinary action is necessary, this will be left to the teacher/sponsor of the class/group.

School officials will not be responsible for actions of students not covered by school rules or policy. School officials will not be responsible for accidents occurring on the trip.
