A Note from Your Community Education Team

February in Community Education: Where Everyone Belongs

February is a month that reminds us how important connection truly is. At Community Education, we believe learning is more than classes and programs – it's about relationships, belonging, and showing up for one another at every stage of life.

This February, we invite you to be part of something bigger – a community that learns together, supports one another, and creates a true sense of belonging for all.
