14 students ring the Literacy Bell

On Friday, January 16th, 14 students from SHES made the trip to the Pulaski County Public Library to ring the Literacy Bell for reading their book. Congrats to all of the students!

SHES is launching Drop-Off Dudes & Carpool Queens

Shopville Elementary School is excited to launch Drop-Off Dudes and Carpool Queens to greet students one morning per month as they enter the school building from the bus ramp and front unloading zone. Drop-Off Dudes, which is for dads and father-like figures, will greet students on one Friday per month. Carpool Queens, which will be for moms and mother-like figures, will greet students on one Friday per month. The timeframe is 7:30-8:00 AM. Please arrive early enough to check in at the front office.

As a Drop-Off Dude or a Carpool Queen, your job will be to open car doors, greet students with high fives and fist bumps, and be a positive influence for students as they start the day.

Anyone interested in being a Drop-Off Dude or Carpool Queen needs to complete the Form via the following link:
