ALLEGHENY INTERMEDIATE UNIT

Preschool Early Intervention

Serving Children Ages 3-5 in Allegheny County

What is Preschool Early Intervention?

- Serves eligible children, ages three to five, who have developmental delays or disabilities in the 42 suburban school districts throughout Allegheny County.
- Provides free screenings/evaluations to identify needs in communication, adaptive, cognitive, physical development, and social/emotional areas.
- Provides early intervention services at no cost to parents, which could include specialized instruction, speech/language, occupational therapy, physical therapy, vision and/or hearing services.
- Services provided by highly qualified staff of special educators, therapists, and paraprofessionals.

Service Delivery

- Services are provided in the least restrictive environment.
- Itinerant services are provided in a child's preschool, child care, Head Start classroom, Pre-K Counts classroom, or home.
- Preschool special education classrooms are provided in school districts and community buildings.

Eligibility

Children must be three to five years old and demonstrate a 25% delay in one or more developmental areas (communication, adaptive, cognitive, physical, social emotional) on a standardized assessment.
