

Food Support for Families

BackPack Beginnings (BPB) does not have any emergency responses planned at this time; they are currently scheduling new and returning guests for their family market appointments at Family Market – Backpack Beginnings.

- Dialing 211

They also shared that Findhelp.org is a great tool to connect families with resources year-round in many categories serving our area.

BackPack Beginnings –

- Lebanon Baptist Church, 4635 Hicone Road, is doing a public drive through food distribution on Friday, Jan 23, between 6-8 p.m.

Greensboro Urban Ministry –

- Single adult and family shelters will remain operational throughout this winter storm. They will also provide warming space during the day. The City and IRC will provide White Flag warming space at 1st Baptist Church and continue to provide Pallet Shelters at Pomona Park.

Out of the Garden (OOG) Project –

- In addition, OOG is holding a "pop-up" Fresh Mobile Market food distribution at their warehouse tomorrow, Friday, Jan. 23, from 3-5:30 p.m. The address is 300 Hwy 68 S, Greensboro 27409. Each family that comes will receive around 55 lbs. of produce, meat, bread, and shelf stable food until they run out of supplies. Families are not required to provide documentation or ID.
